Van Valkenburg Plays Abbott Trophy Final This Afternoon

Semi-Finals Won by Balmy Beach and London Rinks —Scotch Doubles Get Under Way—O.B.A. Tourney Drawing to a Close.

The third day of the Ontario Bowling Tournament saw it pretty well on to the finish. The finals of the trophy competitions will be played this afternoon at 3.30 between C. Abbott of the London Thistles and M. H. Van Valkenburg of Balmy Beach. The association competition is down to the sixth round, and the consolation down to the fifth. C. Abbott and S. D. Swift of the London Thistles provided a hot battle, the former only winning by four shots. He was leading all the way thru the game till the seventh end, with only one shot up, but in the eighth he jumped to four. The greatest game ever witnessed on a bowling lawn was that of the Balmy Beach and the Brantford rinks. VanValkenburg was tie with Husband in the twelfth end. Husband was eight shots up in the sixth end, and then Van Valkenburg pulled together. In the last two ends Husband fell down. He tried two running shots and missed them both, Van Valkenburg defeating him by 17 to 15. In the fourth round of the association, A. M. Ecclestone of St. Catharines and F. Sinkins of Rusholme played a close game, Ecclestone only winning by one shot. Heaman of London gave Taylor of Victorias a pretty bad beating, being fifteen shots to the good. There were a few close finishes yesterday. A. Murray of Parkdale winning over J. McCarron of St. Catharines by 13 to 12, and R. Greenwood of Canadas defeating G. Maclem of Kew Beach by 14 to 13. In the preliminary Scotch doubles the Wigmore rink put it over the McMillan rink by 19 to 3. The Pettite rink only won over the winning rink by one shot.

A very exciting day is expected today in the finals of the trophy between the London and Balmy Beach rinks. A few of the out-of-town rinks departed for their homes, thus eliminating them from the competition.

Giants Whitewashed Ames Was Hit Hard

Chicago Wins Only Full Game in the National League.

At Chicago—New York was shut out, 3 to 0, not a visitor reaching second base. Richie allowed the visitors four scattered hits, while Ames, who opened for New York, was hit hard in the second innings, when three hits, a base on balls and a wild pitch gave Chicago three runs. Fleecher was hit on the finger by a pitched bal land retired; Groh was spiked on the hand, and Wilson retired when a foul tip injured his finger. Score:

Sculllers Line Up Race is Postponed

Start Delayed Until 5.45, When Storm Broke Over Bay—Race To-day at 5 o'Clock.

The heavy downpour at 5.45 last evening put the kibosh on the sculling race between Eddie Durnan and Wm. Haines of Boston for the professional sculling championship of America. The men were on the starting line when the storm broke, making it impossible to live in their shells. The men agreed to call it off, and decided to race this afternoon at five o'clock.

Early in the afternoon the worst blow in the history of Toronto Bay made it look as if the race would have to be called off, but at four o'clock the water was almost as smooth as glass, and a sculling race could not have been held under more ideal conditions.

To allow the observation boat to fill up and leave the city dock, Referee Claude Macdonell, M.P., did not order the men on the starting line until 5.30. The race should have been started at five, and would have been finished before the storm burst in all its fury.

The wind in the early afternoon storm shifted the buoys and necessitated the judges going over the course again and placing them. Everything was in readiness by five o'clock, but the start was not called for until half an hour later.

Haines rowed over in his shell, the Dreadnought, early from the Argonaut clubhouse, on the city side, and was waiting in his shell fifteen minutes before Durnan made his appearance, at 5.35.

Lou Scholes won the toss for Durnan, and the champion elected to row the south course, under the lee of the island shore. Starter James Pearson had them all ready for the word on the line when the downpour came.

The following officials were chosen to handle the races yesterday, and they will act to-day:

Referee—Claude Macdonell, M.P.

Starter—James Pearson.

Timers—Capt. Wilson, Francis Nelson, Ed. Mack, W. A. Hewitt.

Judge at turn—Leslie Ferguson, Argonaut R.C.

The betting was light yesterday, with a little going at 2 to 1, with Durnan as the favorite.

Before they went to the starting line, Haines claimed the right to turn either way, providing the way was clear, under the Canadian Rowing Association rules, under which the race was to have been rowed, but was overruled by the referee, and was notified that each man must turn his own buoy, from port to starboard.

H. A. Jackson, Boston, Mass., Haines' backer, and J. L. Smith, his trainer, were both on hand.

BISONS FAIL TO WALLOP ROCHESTER WINS AGAIN.

BUFFALO, July 10.—Charles Hightower, former Cornell University star pitcher, went into the box to-day for Buffalo. He did fairly well, but the Bisons did not hit behind him, and Rochester won by 6 to 2. After the first innings Tom Hughes allowed the Bisons but four scattered hits.

Beer---Liquid Beefsteak

Extract from Toronto News, 5th July, 1912.

PROF. GRANT ADDRESSES ONTARIO MEDICAL COUNCIL, AND DEFENDS WORKINGMAN'S BEER

A strong defence of liquor as a beverage was instituted. The workingman should have his beer if he wanted it. It was a well-established fact that alcoholic beverages, such as whiskey or brandy, promote many diseases, and it is not surprising that both sides of the House should be stimulated to prevent the use of alcohol.

"Lager and mild ale are forms of liquid beefsteak which undoubtedly impart power and strength to the system. Why should the poor laboring man who requires a little assistance in this way be deprived of his daily bread in the form of liquid lager?"

Professor Grant also urged greater care and influence created in the sanitation of dairies and meat abattoirs.

Lager and Mild Ale are forms of liquid beefsteak which impart power and strength to the system.

Sir James Grant, before the Ont. Medical Council.

As a refreshing beverage and health-building tonic, O'Keefe's Beers and Ales stand high in public favor. Brewed of the choicest hops and malt in Canada's Model Brewery, they are aged just right and bottled right. They have a rich, creamy, delicious flavor.

Buffalo Here This Afternoon.

The Leafs will arrive in town this morning after a great road trip. Toronto won six and lost two on the present away-from-home jaunt. Buffalo opens a four-game series at the stadium this afternoon, and the visiting police chiefs, who are in convention here, will attend in a body.

The Leafs are only seven games behind Rochester, and the long series of home games may decide the championship. It is Rudolph's turn to pitch. Tickets are on sale at 117 Bay street.
