FLYING FOX WON THE DERBY

Damocles, 15 to 1, Was Second and Innocence, 50 to 1, Third. Time 2.42 4-5.

HOLOCAUSTE BROKE A LEG.

Twelve Horses in the Big Race at Epsom and the Favorite Won Easily.

London, May 31.—The Derby, otherwise the 219th renewal of the Derby Stakes, was run to-day at Epsom, and was won by Flying Fox. Damocles was second, Innocence third and My Boy fourth. Twelve horses ran.

Glorious weather prevailed, bright sunshine and a cloudless sky enlivening the spirits of those who journeyed to the Downs in order to be present at the race for the Classic Derby Stakes.

The usual scenes were witnessed along the roads leading to Epsom this morning. The Prince of Wales and a party, including the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke of Cambridge, Prince Francis of Teck, Prince Christian, the Duke and Duchess of Portland, the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire, the Grand Duke of Hesse, the Rt. Hon. Henry Chaplain, president of the Local Government Board; the Earl of Coventry, the Duke of Westminster, the Marquis of Londonderry, Lord Lurgan and the Earl of Derby, left Victoria Station on a special train for Epsom.

Mr. Joseph H. Choate, the United States Ambassador, drove to the Downs, as the guest of the Lord Chief Justice, Baron Russell of Killowen, from Tadworth Court. Mr. Joseph H. Choate, jr., formed one of Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan's coaching party. Major-Gen. Samuel S. Summer, the new military attache of the U.S. Embassy, was also present.

The Derby Stakes, of 6000 sovereigns, by subscription of 50 sovereigns each, half forfeit of 5 sovereigns only if declared by the first Tuesday in January, 1898; for 3-year-olds; the nominator of the winner to receive 500 sovereigns; the owner of the second 300 sovereigns, and the owner of the third 200 sovereigns out of the stakes; about 1½ miles; 275 subscribers:

Duke of Westminster's b c, Flying Fox, Orme—Vampire .....(Cannon) 1
Mr. W. G. Steven's ch c, Damocles, by Despair—Emma .....(S. Loates) 2
Mr. J. A. Miller's br c, Innocence, by Simonian—LaVierge .....(Halsey) 3

Time—2.42 4-5.

My Boy (Watts), Holocauste (Tod Sloan), Desmond (Pratt), Oppressor (T. Loates), Scintillant (Madden), Ballyleck (Bradford), Matoppo (Rickaby), Sir Reginald (Allsopp), and Beautiwick (Wingfield) also ran.

Betting—5 to 2 on Flying Fox, 15 to 1 against Damocles, and 50 to 1 against Innocence.

The race was started three-quarters of an hour late, and when the horses settled down to work Holocauste was driven to the front, followed by Flying Fox. A mile from home the two favorites were clear of the field. Holocauste led in the straight but directly after Cannon sent his crack out Holocauste's fate was sealed, and it was claimed that the fact that a furlong further on the French horse broke his fetlock joint did not affect the result.

"I heard it snap," said Sloan, who at once dismounted. Cannon, who was holding a strong lead, finished in a canter. A hurricane of cheers greeted the result, which, naturally, was intensely popular, and the return of Flying Fox to the enclosure was a triumphal procession. The Duke of Westminster went out to meet his horse bareheaded, holding his hat in his hand, and led him back to the weighing room. The Duke has won several Derbys, but this is the first time Cannon has won the great race.

Flying Fox won by two lengths. Holocauste, who entered the straight in second place, there broke his fetlock joint, and was subsequently shot. Tod Sloan was uninjured, and walked back to the weighing room, escorted by a policeman.

The Stanley Stakes, of 10 sovs. each, and 200 added, was won by Mr. J. Musker's Lady Schomberg (4 to 1), by Aughrim—Clonavarn. Sloan rode Lord William Beresford's buy gelding, Yumboe (5 to 2), and finished second. Sir J. Scott's Lottie Hampton bay colt (5 to 1) was third.

The Caterham Plate, of 200 sovs., at Epsom to-day, was won by Lord William Beresford's Lutetia (4 to 1), ridden by Tod Sloan. Locasta was second and Winnipeg was third. Thirteen horses ran. The result was one-sided, Lutetia always holding a prominent place and winning in a canter. The ground was very hard.

HAMILTON SECOND DAY.

Joseph Duggan Scores With Another Long Shot — Three Favorites Beaten.

Hamilton, May 31.—(Special.)—Three favorites, two second choices and Beguile at 12 to 1, belonging to Mr. Duggan who also owned the winning long shot at the opening, landed the purses on the second day. Romancer 1 to 2, La Vitesse even and Rideau 4 to 5 were the first choices that went down. The weather was cloudy, the track slow and the crowd about the same as on Tuesday.

The other owners were afraid of Mr. Hendrie's Gold Car in the fourth event, Wellington Handicap, and on account of the many scratches this event was declared off and the third race split to make two races for maidens. The fields gave Curly Brown trouble.

In the first race, after a poor start, Midlo made the pace to the stretch, when Skillman came on and won easily over Flying Bess; Wine Press came on like a whirlwind in the last 50 yards and got inside the money.

In the Hunters' Handicap, Romancer, with the heavy impost of 180 pounds, was odd-on favorite. Mr. Reinhardt carried him to the far side of the track and lost a lot of ground, Annetburn winning out by half a length.

In the first division of third race for maidens, La Vitesse was warm favorite at 7 to 5, but he ran his race before they got away, the continuous scoring tiring him out. Amenti was also heavily played, his price coming down from 4 to 2½ to 1, and Windward carried considerable stable money. Dr. Jack led to the turn, when Amenti and Windward fought it out in a whipping finish, Amenti getting the decision by a nose.

In the second division of maidens, with seven starters, Credential, the favorite, won as he pleased, while Confederacy and Mr. Baffin fought for the place, the former getting it.

The steeplechase had five starters, but was full of mishaps and resulted in an uninteresting finish. Lady Maud fell twice in first mile and went lame. Eli Kindig threw her rider at the pig pen and finished the race riderless ahead of the field. Longbrook refused the water jump and lost ground, but trailed in later on to secure third money.

Beguile, the long shot, won the last event in good style, Rideau at 4 to 5 just getting the place over Lady Bratton.

They have just beaten Montreal two out of three, and will be hard picking for the Islanders. To-morrow's game starts at 4 o'clock, and Saturday's game at 3.30 o'clock. The record:
