ADVANCE IN OATS ON HEAVY BUYING

U. S. Government Purchases Freely and Maximum Price Unlikely.

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Huge purchasing of oats for government account, together with authoritative statements that no maximum price on oats would be established, had a strengthening effect today on all board of trade commodities. Corn closed firm, ⅝c to 1⅝c net higher; oats up 1⅝c to 2c, and provisions varying from unchanged figures to a rise of 35c.

For the third day in succession oats jumped to new high record prices for the season. The broad demand, which existed both for immediate delivery and for future options, as well, was ascribed directly to measures taken to supply the needs of the various entente governments. Topmost prices of the day were reached after positive announcement had been made that there was no need or prospect of a maximum price being fixed. Meanwhile country holders seemed afraid to sell. Their chief reason appeared to be scarcity of cars, altho the government is shortly expected to increase the number of cars in the west to handle cereals, including oats.

Corn prices reflected the pronounced car shortage and the fact that unwelcome dampness and mild temperatures prevailed.

Strength of grain and hogs lifted provisions. Besides the market was bullishly affected by liberal shipments of packing house products.

BROOMHALL'S REPORT

Broomhall's report as received by J. P. Bickell and Co.: Wheat—General position unchanged with the undertone firm, but dull. Argentine shipments larger and more expected and it is believed that American shipments will increase moderately, but the demand is for spot, which, in most cases, is not offered. Continental demand good and the absorption of American offers is noted at full prices. Argentine crop news less favorable and American grading poor, which causes a deferment of export purchases.

Oats—Dull and easier with increased arrivals and good floating quantity. Recent purchases have been liberal and the demand for the moment has been satisfied.

CASH OATS UNCHANGED IN WINNIPEG MARKET

Winnipeg, Nov. 23.—Cash oats were unchanged. Demand for barley was improved, with prices half a cent higher. Offerings were light. Flax was unchanged. The tone of the future market was strong. Oats futures closed 1¼c higher for November, December was 1⅞c higher and May 1½c up. Barley closed 1c higher for both months. Flax closed 2c down for November, 1c lower for December and ½c down for May.

Winnipeg market: Oats, Nov. 73⅝c to 76⅛c; Dec., 75⅜c to 74⅝c; May, 75¾c to 77c.

Barley: November closed $1.22½; May closed $1.24.

Flax: Nov., $3.09 to $3.08; Dec., $2.91; May, $2.91 to $2.91¾.

Live Stock Market

Thru a clerical error the firm of Quinn & Hisey were in Friday's live stock market report credited with selling 8 hogs at 8c per lb., while as a matter of fact the firm sold 800 on Thursday at 18½c and 18½c weighed off for the entire lot. They sold 15 cars in all, and Mr. Quinn reported the market for all good classes of stock as steady to strong with an upward tendency and a satisfactory clean up. They shipped out three loads on order. One load to Kitchener, Ont., one load of young breeding heifers to Dundalk, and another car of heifers and springers to Cookstown, Ont.

The outlook for Christmas Fat Stock Show at the Union Stock Yards on Friday and Saturday, Dec. 7 and 8, is said to be excellent, and Mr. Topping and his assistants are working hard to make the affair a greater success than ever before. The entries, it is understood, will positively close on Monday, 26th, and it behooves all those who intend showing to get their entries in at the earliest possible moment now. Reports from the country indicate a show that will do infinite credit to the province and managers of the Union Stock Yards.

A feature that is commending itself very strongly to the commission firms, drovers, and all who have business at the Union Yards is the improvement being effected in the exchange building itself. The heating system has been greatly improved, and the entire building inside is being redecorated, presenting a neat and tasteful appearance and adding greatly to the comfort of the patrons.
