The book has no sanction nor approval, nor has the writer had any information, assistance or encouragement from either of them, nor is he in possession of any of the late Sir John Macdonald's papers, documents, or private opinions. They further desire to state that the authorization and collaboration announced in these advertisements as having been given by Sir John to this work amounted to, as they were told by Sir John himself, nothing more than a bare acquiescence in its preparation. Such acquiescence it was Sir John's custom to accord to all proposed biographies of himself, on the distinct understanding that so doing he did not in any way imply approval or endorsement of the contents." ### A Notable Funeral.

The sudden death of James T. McCarthy, a young man held in the highest estimation by all who knew him, was the occasion of much sadness throughout the city, and the attendance at his funeral yesterday emphasized its sincerity. The funeral was a grand testimony of how well and favorably the deceased was known, not only among his companions but also by the people of St. John as a whole. The procession which was proceeded by a coach filled with floral offerings, was one of the longest ever seen in St. John. The cortege left the house about 2.30 o'clock and arrived at the cathedral. The pocession was led by the coaches, followed by the City Cornet band playing Adeste Fidelis. Then came the Father Mathew association, of which the young lad was a member, and members of the theatrical club of which he had last winter shown his inclination towards the stage. The grammer school boys, with whom deceased was associated before his death, came next. The hearse followed with the following pall bearers: Vincent White, John Murphy, William Hogan Richard Coughlan, Stephen Gerow and Charles Peterson. Deceased's three brothers, five cousins, and his father and three uncles were the chief mourners. Then followed a long and most representative procession of friends and acquaintances. After services in the cathedral the procession reformed and proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the remains were interred. The floral offerings were very beautiful. They were of roses and lilies and in the forms of crosses and wreaths. Handsome offerings were sent by the F. M. A., St. Malichi's hall school boys and altar boys of the cathedral, Mrs. John Berryman, Mrs. James Gerow, Miss Morrison, Mrs. Charles Merritt, Arthur Jones and the scholars of Mr. McLean's room in the Grammar school. A beautiful star was sent by the boys with whom he had been rehearsing before his death. The design was significant of the position he occupied amongst them in their amateur stage performances.

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—The world's record for the 440 yards low hurdle race was broken yesterday on Holmes' field, Cambridge, by P. J. Finneran of the Boston Athletic Association.

Yesterday morning Eugene Sarre's record of 58 3-5s., made on the Manhattan Athletic Club's track at Berkeley Oval, was the best. Finneran reduced this to 57 2-5s.

The Wheel.

Saturday, Wm. W. Windie rode a mile against time, on Hampden Park, Springfield, 2,15, lowering the world's bicycle record of 2.16. The time on quarters was 36½; 1.08; 1.41. so he made three-quarters record time between the first and third quarter, 1.04 3-5. Harry C. Tyler made a half in 1.06, breaking the record, 1.06 3-5.

Yachting.

Elijah Ross the builder of the yacht British Queen has improved her appearance by building an overhanging stern on her. The yacht was taken to the Kennebecasis Saturday.

A fine yacht is soon to be launched by Samuel Hutton.

Football.

The St. Johns had their first football game of the season on Saturday.

The Shamrocks are organizing a football team.

Dalhousie college and the Wanderers foot ball teams played the third game for the championship trophy on Saturday. The Dalhousie lost by two tries to nothing.

The Turf.

The turf season is about over, and the leading turfmen are figuring up their winnings. Four racing stables have won more than $100,000, and ten have won $40,000. The Morrises head the list, with winnings of $154,000 by twenty-four horses, and M. F. Dwyer comes next, with $143,000 won by twelve horses. The horse that won the highest money is, appropriately, His Highness, which brought his owner $105,000, the largest winnings ever made in this country by a 2-year-old.

GREAT HORSE SALES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—What promises to be the most sensational sale of thoroughbred horses in the world, not even bearring the disposal of Lord Falmouth's stud, was begun at Hunt's point today at noon by the Tattersalls of New York, when the first instalment of the grand collection of brood mares, stallions and younsters, the property of the late August Belmont, were offered by Auctioneer Easton. Today's offerings, comprised only the brood mares and weanlings.

Seventy-six head in all were led into the ring nearly one-half of which were weanlings, foaled this year, and when the hammer fell on the last one, as twilight was rapidly fading, the sale showed the astounding total of $270,050, over 40 horses having brought more than $1,000 each.

Viola, the 5-year-old imported daughter of Kisber, seemed to be wanted by everybody. She is the dam of Victory, and, starting at $2,500, mounted rapidly at $500 and $1000 a crack until Mr. Sanford became her proud owner at $20,500, the top price in this country for a thoroughbred brood mare. Mr. Potter was Mr. Sanford's most determined opponent, bidding $20,000.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Charles Reid, the proprietor of the Fairview stud, Gallatin, Tenn., electrified the 1000 persons at Tattersall's tonight when the last draft of the late Hon. August Belmont's thoroughbred race horses were sold, by bidding $100,000 for the famous sire, St. Blaise, son of Hermit and Fusee.

This is by a long way the highest price ever paid for a thoroughbred stallion in a sale ring, and Mr. Reid, who was determined to have the horse to head his stud, bid his limit at the outset.

It was the greatest sale of thoroughbred horses ever held in any country. Records were made for the old world to shoot at, and prices were paid that will cause the whole univeise to marvel.

A yearling sold for $30,000, and several commanded $10,000; while the entire stud brought the enormous total of $597,300. This includes the stallions, brood mares, yearlings, weanlings and 2-year-olds and race horses in training sold at Babylon on Dec. 29 of last year. The sale has occupied three days—Dec. 27 of last year and Friday and Saturday, Oct. 16 and 17, 1891.
