SENATORS' BOOZE IN MAIL POUCHES

Liquid Refreshments Delivered by Bootleggers Under Guise of Mail.

New York, Jan. 21.—United States Senators have their booze delivered in mail pouches to avoid detection, according to George Winters of Washington, held at Elizabeth for violation of the motor vehicle act.

Winters, who told the police he is an ex-policeman, had a pouch in an automobile he was driving. When confronted by post office inspectors he told his story. He is being held pending further investigation with four others arrested at the same time.

Winters says he made regular trips to the offices and residences of Senators with booze concealed in mail pouches.

WOMAN BANDIT ASKS VICTIMS TO KISS HER

Chicago, Jan. 21—And now Chicago has the kissing woman bandit. Stanley R. Lasky, a salesman, reported to the police that a woman bandit held him up at Thirty-first and State streets early today. Prodding him in the ribs with a long knife, she made Lasky give up his purse, $31 and his watch

After robbing Lasky the woman bandit said: "I always demand a kiss from each victim. Now kiss me, dear boy."

This was too much for Lasky, who fled.

Liberals Considering Organization Issues

Questions Expected to Appear in the Commons During Session Are Discussed.

Ottawa, Jan. 21—Questions of national party organization and the work of the organization bureau in Ottawa during the past year, were under review at this morning's meeting of the National Liberal organization committee which met today at the Liberal headquarters on Sparks street. There is a full attendance of representatives from every province at the meetings which will probably continue throughout today and tomorrow. Questions of policy and deliberations regarding the attitude of the party on national questions which will come up in parliament during the coming session will also be reviewed, it is expected.

STAR COP WRESTLER TRIMMED BY MALINDA

Has to Call for Help in Arresting 360 Pound Drug Trafficker.

Richmond, Va., Jan. 21.—Malinda Ogden, weight 360 pounds, scored clean beat over Lieut. Archie Holt, amateur wrestling star of the Richmond police force, when the officer tried to arrest her single handed for alleged traffic in drugs.

A hurry call brought reinforcements and the prisoner was walked to the city jail, only to cause further embarrassment.

She wouldn't fit the cell doors, so she sat outside until released on bail.

Some of the people you can't fool yet of the time.

It a man has nothing to do and nowhere to go he can afford to sit down and argue with a woman.

A man is always as old as he feels, but a woman is always as old as she says she is—and then some.
