City Police Court.

The Magistrate found his time fully occupied this morning by the number of mixed cases which came under his cognizance. Six prisoners were in the dock and several arrested on warrants were on the floor.

The first case was that of John McDonald, the young Scotchman who has of late been so frequently before the Court. Yesterday he was among the prisoners and was let go to be again arrested for drunkenness on Union street. He admitted the offence, but faithfully promised, if let go, that he would take the pledge and reform. The Magistrate admonished him very seriously and reminded him that his mere resolution which had been so often broken was of little use unless he on his knees prayed for help from God to keep him from destruction. In view of all the circumstances the Magistrate fined him $6 with the alternative of two months in the Penitentiary, and trusted that his imprisonment would be means of his reformation.

James O'Connor, 36, Ireland, was before the Court yesterday for drunkenness, and on his reappearance this morning was fined $6, or two months Penitentiary.

Donald Gunn, the veteran, 55, Ireland, [illegible] like sentence for being drunk on [illegible]

[illegible] McGrath, 24, Ireland, was given [illegible] by his stepson, Thomas Pierce, assaulting him in a house on Main street. He admitted the offence and was fined $10. The amount was paid by his wife, who is mother of the complainant.

John Sweeney, 18, N. B., one of a disorderly crowd, standing and swearing on Union street, pleaded it was his first offense. He was fined $6, and received a reproof for swearing.

Wm. Garey, 30, England, came to the station for protection. He was before the court under similar circumstances yesterday and is evidently of unsound mind. His lip showed marks of a blow which he said was received from some person at his former boarding house. The magistrate asked the prisoner, "What is your name?" "Some call me Garey and some McGarey. I don't know which is right, as I never was christened." "Where do you belong?" "I don't know." The magistrate then told him that the station was no place for him to lodge, and asked him if he had no way of doing something. "Well," was the reply, "if you could fix me up a bed at the station I would not mind wearing a policeman's coat. I think I could do as good service as most of them." The magistrate sent him to gaol for thirty days.

John Broderick, 59, Ireland, came to the station for protection. He was cautioned and let go.

John Perry lives or did live with his wife in the house of Mrs. Mary Holland, York Point. He appeared this morning with a doleful tale of abuse from Mrs. Holland who with force of arms and billets of wood went for him and his little daughter. It seems that he attempted to move his furniture, and that Mrs. Holland tried to hold it for a balance of rent due. After both parties had told the court their story the case was settled by Mrs. Holland agreeing to allow the removal of the furniture on condition that the rent was paid next Saturday night. Mrs. Holland left court, carrying with her a large stick of wood which she had brought to be used in evidence.

Silene Collins was fined $6 for calling Susan Brocklebank very naughty names.

BOSTON, Dec. 10, p. m.

Gold and exchange steady.

The safety of the steamship City of Bristol is announced; she had arrived off Queenstown with a broken shaft.

Consols and foreign markets generally are without change.

The political excitement in France is quieting down.

LONDON, Dec. 10

The gale continued yesterday, but not with such severity as Sunday. Despatches continue bringing intelligence of disasters both on sea and land. The damage in London is considerable. Six houses were blown down, and forty persons were injured by falling buildings.

An unknown brig foundered off the coast of the Isle of Wight, and every person on board perished.

The bark Strathand, from Hamburg for New York, was wrecked on Kemeridge Ledge. Crew saved.

The gasometer attached to the Royal Arsenal, of Woolwich, was damaged, and the hospital has been without gas two nights.

Telegraphic communication was very much impeded.

STRIKERS IMPRISONED.

LONDON, Dec 10.

Several striking gas stokers in London have been sentenced to six weeks imprisonment.

THE WIRES DOWN.

Telegraph wires in Ireland, prostrated by the gales, are not yet fully restored.

THIERS BOTH RIGHT AND WRONG

A deputation of moderate Republicans in the National Assembly called upon M. Thiers yesterday to express apprehensions that he was leaning too far towards the party of the Right. The President in response assured them that he would uphold the firm and unshaken policy announced in his message at the opening of the session.

TWENTY-TWO PERSONS ROASTED TO DEATH

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.

The Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, was damaged by fire last night to the extent of $100,000. The domestics who occupied the upper story were unable to escape owing to the burning of the staircase. Twenty-two dead bodies have been recovered; sixteen in one room, and six in another, which is probably all. Most of them are burned beyond recognition. Many guests had retired, and a great panic ensued when the alarm was given, which was a little past eleven.

At a Court of General Quarter Sessions of the Peace, for the City and County of Saint John, held at the Court House, on Tuesday, the Tenth Day of December, A. D. 1872:—

Resolved, That in the name of the inhabitants of the City and County of Saint John, this Board desires publicly to recognize the voluntary and ready services of the several persons hereinafter mentioned in connection with the rescue, from their perilous and hapless position, of the captain, mate and four seamen, of the schooner "Pioneer," driven ashore on the eastern side of Courtenay Bay, in the Parish of Simonds, by the gale which occurred on the morning of Saturday, November 30th, namely:

OF WILLIAM LEAHY, ROBERT MURRAY, CHARLES BRIDGES, ISAC MURRAY, JAMES DALY, AND WILLIAM MORRISON, who, at the request of His Worship the Mayor, went from the City to Red Head for the purpose of rescuing the unfortunate seamen.

ALSO, OF GEORGE RUDDOCK, WILLIAM SMITH AND ALBERT FULTON, ALEXANDER FULTON, AND WM. CHISHOLM, three of the crew of the schooner "Enterprise," (stranded by the same gale, about a quarter of a mile from the "Pioneer,") who, at a great risk and with much labor, succeeded in laun hing from the "Enterprise" the boat in which the "Pioneer" crew were saved, and in dragging the same to the shore near where the "Pioneer" lay.

AND LASTLY, OF JOHN COHOLAN, WILLIAM SMITH, PATRICK MCCARTHY, and two other seamen, of the "Enterprise," (names unknown), by whom said boat was promptly manned and the rescue of all on board the "Pioneer" safely accomplished.

Resolved, That there be presented to the said John Coholan, and those with him in said boat, the sum of $10 each as a further memorial to them of the public approbation of their humane and skilful efforts and of the success by which they were attended; and further

Resolved, That the County Treasurer be directed to place at the disposal of (Justice Keans), the Chairman of the Committee, out of the contingent fund the sum necessary to meet this grant; and that a copy of these resolutions be inserted in each of the City papers.

(Extract from the Minutes.)

THE FAMILY CIRCLE

With a vast amount of interesting, entertaining and valuable information relating to what is going on in this busy world of ours.

By making up a club, a man can secure for THREE CENTS A WEEK, a

Thirty-Six Column Newspaper,

Which is filled with news, reports of markets, articles upon agriculture, business, trade, politics; essays, poetry, short stories, pen sketches of events in real life, and practical hints upon all topics of interest, which are carefully prepared for THE BOSTON WEEKLY JOURNAL, which is the CHEAPEST NEWSPAPER published in New England.

The Publishers call attention to

What the Reader Gains by the Recent Enlargement of the

WEEKLY JOURNAL,

On the 1st of June the Publisher of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL increased the size of the paper, without increasing the price. This enlargement was equivalent to adding

OVER SEVEN COLUMNS OF READING MATTER

To each issue of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL. In fifty-two weeks the number of additional columns given is 364, which is equivalent to about twelve extra copies of THE WEEKLY JOURNAL of the old size. The subscribers therefore receive at THE SAME PRICE this large amount of additional reading matter.

We shall continue during the coming year all the old features which have given the WEEKLY the large and substantial support which it enjoys in New England, and we shall add such novelties as may strengthen its hold upon the reading masses.

Specimen copies sent upon application.

All Postmasters are requested to act as agents.

Though the enlargement adds materially to the cost of production, there will be

NO CHANGE IN THE RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

The success achieved by this weekly visitor to the firesides of thousands is owing less to the extremely low terms at which it is furnished, than to its excellence as a weekly companion of news and information, which is read by young and old with pleasure and gratification.
