Personal.

Dr. F K Crosby returned last night from a visit to friends in Massachusetts.

Horse Notes.

The young Hambletonian stallion Reformer, which is kept here for stock purposes, presents a fine appearance on the road in charge of his owner, Mr. Stephen Golding. This horse was sired by a brother in blood to Dexter, called Jay Gould, and the latter is the fastest stock horse in the United States, having trotted close to 2 20 in public. The dam of Mr. Golding's colt is also deep in Messenger blood, combined with other strains of thoroughbred, and we are informed that this young horse is unsurpassed in the Province for excellence of trotting, blood and action, which are the necessary qualities for a progenitor of fast and valuable colts to possess.

Lord and Lady Dufferin have arrived at Mr. Notman's Studio, Chipman's Hill, on elegant photographic cards, and will be exhibited free or sold for a trifle to all loyal or disloyal persons who may apply. Mr. Notman's studio is adorned with a rich and varied collection of pictures.

Chief Marshall as a Detective.

Information was received, about a fortnight ago, by Mr. Marshall, that a young man by the name of Murray—not our friend James—had absconded from New York, taken with him a sum of money belonging to his employer. The eagle eye of the Chief soon found him enjoying the sweets of new married life at the Victoria. Monday afternoon they started for the Upper Provinces via Bangor. The Chief, under "deep disguise," took passage by the same train. On stepping from the train Mr. and Mrs. Murray were arrested by City Marshall Bolton, taken to the Station, and stripped them of their watches, jewelry, and ready money amounting to one hundred and fifty dollars.

New Dining Room.

Mr. John Ross of the Bee Hive, who has long been famous as a caterer, has just fitted up a new room for the accommodation of his numerous guests. The large room at the left of the hall formerly used as a billiard room, has been newly painted and papered, new oil carpeting has been put on the floor, and pictures have been hung up round the wall. At the east end of the room a handsome oyster bar has been erected. It is Mr. Ross's intention to have appliances for cooking oysters, behind this counter, so that there will be as little delay as possible in serving his guests. Around the room are small marble top tables, capable of accommodating from four to six persons to which gentlemen can adjourn from Chubb's corner and discuss their business matters comfortably. At 1 o'clock to-day a number of gentlemen, by invitation of Mr. Ross, sat down to a sumptuous lunch, prepared in the proprietor's best style. Meats of all kinds, fowl and game, with delicacies ad lib, comprised the entertainment. After the vivands had been fully discussed, Major Macshane rose, and, in a happy speech, proposed the health of "Our Host," which was drunk with full honors, and three rousing cheers.

Skating Masquerade Party.

The wide awake directors of the Victoria Skating Club have adopted excellent regulations for the coming carnival. Season ticket holders who take the trouble to don fancy costumes will be admitted free. This is right, and will ensure a larger number of maskers than attended former carnivals in the Rink. None but season ticket holders may join the maskers, but everybody and his wife are invited to go and see the spectacle.

Police Court.

Nancy Campbell, abuse, fined $6.

Catherine Fox, a vagrant, got three months in the Alms House.

How the Academy of Music Concert Prizes are to be Drawn.

To the Editor of the Tribune.

Sir: It may be satisfactory to the public to know that in the articles of agreement between the Academy of Music Company and the Managers of the Gilt Concerts, ample provision is made to guard the interest of Ticket-holders. The agreement recites that each Ticket is to be numbered consecutively, and a record kept of each Ticket sold. That proper books are to be kept of all receipts, agencies, &c., and said books to be open at all times to the inspectors appointed for that purpose, Wm. Breeze, Esq., and C. E. L. Jarvis, Esq., and also to the President and Directors and Committee of Management. All sums exceeding one hundred dollars received from the sale of Tickets are to be deposited forthwith in the Bank of New Brunswick, subject only to withdrawal upon a joint checque of Inspectors and one of the managers. Sums received are not to be deducted for any expenses or otherwise until the success of the enterprise is fully established. Should the undertaking not succeed, all deposits will be withdrawn, to be returned to ticket-holders. The distribution of gifts is to be under the control of leading citizens appointed by the Committee of Management and the audience, and entirely outside of the President and Directors and Business Managers. Any further information can be obtained on application to the Inspectors, Committee of Management, and Business Managers.

J. R. Armstrong,
Secretary to Company.

Portland Police Court.

Daniel Higgins, James Moore, and John Cochran, charged with stealing wood from Mr. Hilyard's shipyard, were found guilty, and sentenced each to one month jail.

Bernard Hughes, using abusive and insulting language to Mr. Gibson. The charge was proved and he was fined $6 and $1.50 cost.

Robert Spehman, James Milligan, and David Gilbraith, were in Mr. Bennet's house on Main street yesterday, and not conducting themselves properly, but were guilty of disorderly conduct, breaking furniture, etc. They were this morning brought before Judge Tapley and each fined $4 and costs.

M. Murray, keeping a ferocious dog, let off on paying $1 50 costs.

The Montreal Skating Tournament was marred by the refusal of all except one of the competitors for the grand prize to skate, they protesting against the incompetence of the judges.

A SONNET.

"A vast multitude was incessantly passing down King street, because the myrmidons of the law permitted them not to stand on the street corners."—Beckford.

I sometimes dream, when shutting both my eyes,
That I, sometimes, especially when I sleep,
And when I've dreamed enough, I always rise
And ope my eyes no longer vigil keep.
With Thomson's Eye Wash for optics sore,
I bathe my eye lids when I feel the pain,
And suffer ills and anguish nevermore;
But if I do, I bathe them o'er again.
And Quacker Bitters do I drink to kill
Dyspeptic aches, Yellow Jaundice dire,
A sure relief is it from every ill:
Consumption's cured, likewise the hectic fire
Which burns the heart and eats the ebbing life away.
And soothes the troubled spirit with its painless lay.

Cadiz advices state that the captain of the Murillo and officers on the watch at the time the disaster to the Northfleet happened, are held as prisoners on a Spanish man of war, pending the investigation. The crew are under guard, and not allowed to go ashore. The Spanish authorities who have made an examination of the Murillo, declare that she shows no signs of having been in collision, and it is their belief that she is guiltless of running down and sinking the Northfleet.

THE BRITISH PARLIAMENT.

Parliament re-assembles to day.

THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

The following sketch of the Queen's Speech has been obtained in advance of delivery:

"England is at peace everywhere.

"The great Powers have promised to co-operate effectually for the suppression of slavery on the east coast of Africa.

"Friendly negotiations are in progress with Russia. Count Schowaloff has assured Her Majesty's Government of the friendship of the Czar towards England.

"The new treaty of commerce between Great Britain and France is calculated to promote the friendship of the two countries.

"The President of the French Republic has been appointed to arbitrate the differences between Portugal and England, relative to the possession of the south coast of Africa.

"Copies of the Alabama and San Juan Awards will be presented immediately. It is considered proper to hasten the payment of the Alabama award."

The speech expresses regret at the rapid rise in prices consequent on disputes between workmen and employers; and promises that bills will be introduced

For improving the system of higher education in Ireland,

For the reconstruction of the Supreme Appellate Courts, and

For the prevention of corrupt practices at elections.

Notice of Co-partnership.

THE Subscribers having this day entered into Co-partnership under the style and firm of Lockhart & Chipman, for the purpose of carrying on business as Auctioneers, Commission Merchants, and Forwarding Agents, have taken the Store No. 80 Prince William Street, (between the establishments of Messrs. McMillan and Messrs. Sheraton, Son & Skinner) and hope by strict attention to business and prompt returns to merit a share of public patronage. Every description of Auction Sales, Real Estate, Stock, Ships, Merchandise, Underwriters' Sales, Household Furniture, etc., solicited.

They trust that the increasing Auction business so liberally extended to to Mr. W. A. Lockhart for the past five years will be continued to the new Firm, who have superior facilities for conducting it to the satisfaction of their customers.
