DEATHS BY FEVER.—It is to-day our melancholy duty to record the deaths of four of our medical friends, who, within a few days, have been sacrificed to fever:—On the 23d inst., Dr. George Seymour, surgeon to the Kilconnel Dispensary; on the 24th inst., Dr. Charles Donnollon, of Winterfield, medical attendant to the Annadown Dispensary; on the 25th inst., Mr. Francis Bodkin, for many years apothecary to the Clifden poor-house; and on the 26th inst., Dr. Edward Lambert, of Oranmore, a gentleman much beloved, leaving a widow, with a young and interesting family, to deplore his loss. Independent of the above, we are sorry to add that serious apprehensions are entertained for the recovery of Dr. Mulville, of Gort, and Dr. Hynes, of Kinvarra.—Galway Vindicator.

SCRIPTURAL INSTRUCTION IN IRELAND.—That valuable institution, the Sunday School Society for Ireland, has recently published a paper containing some interesting facts connected with the spread of Sunday School instruction, and shewing the extensive demands upon the society for assistance to the schools. It appears that 818 schools, containing 68,267 scholars, have received assistance in books during the last six months; and that 36 796 Bibles, Testaments, and portions of scripture, besides 28,914 Scripture reading books, and spelling books containing reading lessons selected from the sacred Scriptures, have been granted to the schools during the same period. It is also a striking fact that the number of Bibles granted during the last six months exceeds by 2954 the number disseminated during the corresponding period of the year 1846.

MUNIFICENCE OF THE QUEEN DOWAGER.—Upwards of £20,000 are every year distributed amongst those who apply to her Majesty Queen Adelaide for assistance. Two gentlemen (one an experienced lieutenant in the navy) are attached to her Majesty's household, whose chief occupation it is to ascertain the truth of every doubtful application, to call on the persons referred to as being ready to corroborate the statements, and to form a just estimate of the condition of those who apply, and the nature and degree of assistance required by them. No worthy application is rejected.—Lady's Newspaper.

Pottery Manufacture of England.—The total annual value of the manufactured article is estimated at £2 500,000, and the amount of labour employed is that of from 80,000 to 100,000 men.

A WHOLESALE BIGAMIST.—It is stated, as a fact, that an excavator, either at present or recently working in the neighbourhood of Sheffield, has thirteen wives living in various parts of the country! None of them look after him, probably because he is not worth following.

EVERY MAN'S HOME.—To make it healthful and joyful; to ensure, economically, impunity from fire; such a supply of fresh air, light (God's first great gifts,) and warmth, when needed, as the constitution of man demands, and to lead Art—capable of producing "An endless fountain of immortal drink"—delightfully to adorn it, is matter of world-wide interest. When it is remembered that homes are the manufactories of men, and influence a growing nation, the importance of improving these homes is at once seen. Perfect men come not forth from ill-arranged, ill-ordered dwellings; and how few homes are there which might not be improved!—The Builder.

A dwelling-house of three stories—an extraordinary circumstance—has been excavated at Pompeii, which formerly belonged to one of the Decurii or Senators of Pompeii. The interior is very rich in paintings and costly furniture.

RETURN OF A COMET.—The American Almanacs for 1848 prophecy a return during the year, of Pingre's Comet, which appeared in 1264 and 1556. The period of the Comet is presumed to be every 292 years—and Mr. Hind, of England, agrees with the most celebrated astronomers of the day in their calculations of its orbit and return. On former occasions, it approached very near the earth, and the display was really magnificent. The perihelion passages of this Comet upon its two former appearances were July 17th, 1264, and April 21st, 1556.

The Steamer Cambria, 72 hours from New York, arrived at Halifax last Tuesday morning, and proceeded on her voyage to Liverpool at half past two o'clock in the afternoon. Passengers—Miss Magee, Hon. John Robertson, and Messrs. James Kirk, John Wishart, A. Smimers, John Hegan, John Gillis, James Doherty, and James Howard, of St. John; and Messrs Knight and Doan, from New York, 50.

☞ The Mail for England to meet the departure of the Steamer Acadia from Halifax on the 14th current, will close at the General Post Office in this City, To-morrow, (Wednesday,) the 9th inst., at three o'clock in the afternoon.

[Certificate from the Principal of the Fredonia (N. Y.) Seminary.]

FREDONIA, July 17th, 1846.

Dr. Seth W. Fowle,—Dear Sir:—Feeling, as I do, under obligation to the friend who urged me to try Wistar's Balsam, in spite of my hostility to the endless variety of remedies claiming infallibility, I cannot justly refuse to comply with your request to furnish a statement of its effects.

From my youth I have been subject to lung complaints and during the last ten years I have been under the necessity of using the utmost caution to avoid that most ungracious customer, "a cough." In February last I took cold—a cough set in, and though slight in the beginning, I made use of the simple remedies which I always keep for that purpose. These failing, I resorted to others, many of which have gained celebrity, but my cough increased in violence, and a pain in the side and right lobe of the lungs set in, which soon became very distressing and at intervals were attended with oppressive strictures on the lungs. During this time I expectorated freely, but the mucus raised from the lungs indicated a disease deeply seated. Two or three physicians very kindly sent me their medicines, which have been very efficient in curing coughs, but they failed to reach my case, and I began to be somewhat uneasy. In the latter part of April I left home, intending to travel awhile, and if possible escape, by that means, from present danger. When I reached Buffalo I had taken an additional cold, and my cough was considerably aggravated. A friend there advised me to try the Balsam of Wild Cherry, but I told him I had swallowed medicine enough. Well, sir, I coughed out that day and the night following, and the next day my friend urged me again to try "Doctor Wistar," and at 3, P. M. I was willing to try any thing, for I coughed constantly. I procured a bottle—drank of it—read the directions—took the stage for home, continued taking it from that bottle one week, and when the Balsam was gone my cough and pains were gone, and I have not coughed since. Respectfully yours, &c.

Jan 18. WILLIAM CARVILL.

By Her Majesty's Royal Letters Patent.

DELL'S HYDRO PNEUMATIC

BED WARMER.

THE Subscriber respectfully intimates to the nobility, gentry and community of this city, and Province at large, that he has just received from London, two cases of this valuable apparatus, which only requires to be known to be appreciated.

Invalids, elderly persons, and those who have been in hot climates, will find these an invaluable luxury.

The price is moderate—they cannot be put out of order, and there is no expense after the first cost. Full directions are given with each.

It is a well known fact, that many persons who have purchased them have never since found a single cold night in Bed. They are extensively adopted by the faculty in London.

This is the last importation for this season, therefore an early call is solicited, and is absolutely necessary, to secure them—as the last few days has been so severe, the demand has become greater for them. GEORGE BEATTIE,

Wholesale Dry Good Store, Water-street.
