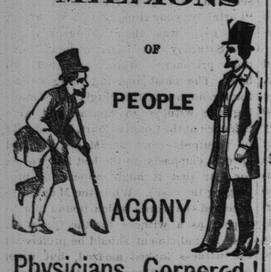
MILLIONS



Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of the physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy, and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease.

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease; but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that a cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, and well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

Messrs. Devins & Bolton,

Dear Sirs,—I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, I am now, a-er taking two bottles of this medicine, entirely free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so. I am, sirs, yours respectfully,

JOHN HELDER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after trying every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody suffering with this terrible disease to to try it, and see if it does not do the same for them that it did for me.

Yours,

JAMES L. EAGLES,
Indiantown.

BARNES' HOTEL,
ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1873.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the past two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, but experienced no relief, until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly, JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly relieves the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the pain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!!

This medicine is for sale at all the druggists through Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock ask him to send for it to

THAT AMATEUR FLUTE.

The company all seated, and the laugh and jest went round—light-hearted revellers unconscious of their doom. The executioner entered. He bore in his hand a silver flute. A malignant smile lighted up his features. "Ha, ha!" he said, with a fiendish glee, "I will administer unto them an adagio; not a man shall escape."

Now, therefore, this, accompanied with many apologies to the honored shade of Edgar Allan Poe:—

Hear the flute with his flute—
Silver flute,
O what a world of wailing is awakened by its toot!
How it demi semi quavers
On the maddened air of night!
And defleth all endeavors
To escape the sound or sight
Of the flute, flute, flute,
With its tootle, tootle, toot—
With reiterated tootings of exasperated toots,
The long protracted tootelings of agonizing toots
Of the flute, flute, flute, flute,
Flute, flute, flute.
And the wheezing and the spittings of its toots.
Should he get that other flute,
Golden flute—
Oh, what a deeper anguish will its presence institoot!
How his eyes to heaven he'll raise,
As he plays,
All the days,
How he'll stop us on our ways
With its praise!
And the people, oh the people,
That don't live up in the steeple,
But inhabit habitations
Where he visiteth and plays—
Where he plays, plays, plays—
In the cruelest of ways,
And thinks we ought to listen,
And expects us to be mute,
Who would rather have the ear-ache
Than the music of his flute—
Of his flute, flute, flute,
And the tootings of its toot—
Of the toots wherewith he tootleth its agonizing toot,
Of the flute, flewt, fluit, floot,
Fluite, phlewt, phlewght.
And the tootle, tootle, tooting of its toot.

—Arcadian.

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

And now the Davenport Democrat has to apologize to Matilda Fletcher for an error of one of its compositors. The editor wrote that she had invented a "cylindrical trunk," and the typo put it up cylindrical drunk.

Honor to whom honor is due. As envious remarks have been made about the reportorial English used in describing the Tilton trial, it is no more than justice to point out an unexceptionable comparison in the Herald, which compares the trial to Shakespeare, as being not for a day, nor a year, but for all time.

TOPEKA, KANSAS, Feb. 5.—The House, yesterday, passed a bill appropriating $90.000 for settlers in the districts devastated by drought and grasshoppers. The Clerk announced that Mrs. Bickerdyke had thirty car loads of provisions in transit to Kansas, and requested the members to report to her at the Gordon House the amount of destitution in their respective districts. The announcement was received with cheers for Mrs. Bickerdyke.

Father Ryan, a Catholic priest of New Orleans, in a lecture recently delivered, attributed a kind of sordid cowardice to the men of the East, by saying that while to call a Southern a liar is to provoke a duel, to call an Eastern man by that name is to elicit the retort, "Bet you five cents you can't prove it." This has drawn from an ex Confederate soldier a letter, published in the New Orleans Times, in which he rebukes the priest in these words: "Perhaps if he had stood, as so many of us did, on those long days of Fredericksburg and Gettysburg, under the fire of Maine and Massachusetts regiments, he might have been inspired with a little more respect for Yankees."

In the Maine Legislature, last week a resolve was reported making appropriations for the Penobscot tribe of Indians as follows: Amount of interest on trust fund held by the State for the benefit of the tribe, $4,429.70; annual annuity, $1,800; agricultural purposes, $600; bounty on crops, $400; salary of agent, $300; teachers, $150. The following sums were appropriated to be paid for shore rents: Schools, $400; $250 on Oldtown island; $80 on Mattanawcook island; $70 on Olamon island. Salary of priest, $100, provided he says mass at least 24 Sundays during the year; salary of Governor, $50; salary of Lt. Governor, $30; $50 for completion of school house on Olamon island.

GENERAL.

A Welsh clergyman in an obituary of a brother minister states that "he died in his harness, and his buckles were undone as noiselessly as the angel unbarred and unlocked the prison in which Peter was confined." "Undone his buckles," as a mortuary figure is good—indeed, better than "passed in his checks."

The London Times prints a list of the brokers of that city. Persons who are inclined to think that Dickens manufactured his names, may find the following gems worth examination: Clement Couey Butlin Morris; John Alexander Petrocochino: Tom Edward Wilkins Thomas: Temple Hillyard Hicks Soanes; Edward Hudson Blower Smith; Norman Percy Miles Troson and Spiridion Stamati Zula.

Mr. Charles Reade's language when he gets "riled," would have shocked Mr. Turveydrop, that model of propriety. Mr. Reade has had some correspondence with the editor of the Leeds Mercury, touching the narrative of "James Lambert," and closes the correspondence by telling the editor that he "encouraged a literary reptile to write a long, insolent retort to him" and that he, the editor, is "a liar, a coward, and a blackguard." Which may be called tall writing.

"This is outrageous," said a lady, as she entered a car upon one of the best managed railways out of Boston, "perfectly abominable! I shall catch my death of cold on this wet floor, but the company shall pay the damages, they shall!" And then she gathered up her skirts around her, pouted out her pretty lips, sat down upon the seat, and rode ten miles, showing by her frequent exclamations, how perfectly dignified she was. "Only varnish, and perfectly dry," remarked a by-sitter. Then she dried up, too, and was soon lost in contemplating Longfellow's remark, "Things are not what they seem."

It is very many years since there was such general religious interest among the New Hampshire churches as there is at the present time. There have been very powerful revivals at Nashua, Manchester, Bowcawen, Canterbury and other places. In some cases the converts are numbered by hundreds, and among them are many of advanced age, and others who were considered almost beyond the hope of reformation. At Goffstown there is a very powerful work in progress, which is reaching all classes. A friend who was present at an evening meeting a day or two since, says the interest is very intense, and the scene when one of the leading business men of the town rose, and with childlike simplicity testified of his new-found hope in Christ, was one never to be forgotten. The work there continues with great power.

A NEW THING AND A GOOD THING

THE invention of the paper collar was of positive benefit to the world, furnishing as it did, a neat, clean, and most economical article of apparel. But it never did answer all the purposes for which it was designed, owing to the frail nature of the material. The problem has been to make a cloth collar as cheap as paper that would last longer and could be made always fresh and bright. The new "44" collar, now upon the market, fills these requirements perfectly. It is made entirely of cloth, three thicknesses being used; it so closely resembles the finest linen that it might be sold anywhere for linen; and, no matter how much it may be soiled, it can be cleaned and made as bright as ever by the application of a damp sponge or cloth.
