As to the first, it cannot be denied that the Bible is a test by which to exclude your child, fellow Protestant, from that Academy, if he has it in his hand. Yes, as the law is now wrongfully interpreted and enforced, the use of the Bible is a test, for the exclusion of Protestant children from the Central Academy; and No Bible,—no reading of the Bible, a test for their admission. In no other way are the Holy Scriptures a test. Protestants do not consider King James's version a test, because they use it daily,—and, wonderful to tell, are none the worse of it. If Roman Catholics consider that version a "test," they can use the Douay (see Mr. Wightman's Resolution in the House of Assembly last Session); and if they have no desire for that, they are at perfect liberty to use neither. How then a "test?" And if a test, with what grace could the majority of the last House of Assembly boast that, under the present system, it is used in all the Common Schools?

The second objection, be it confessed, is not so easily answered, because it is rather hard to understand how antipathy to the Bible can be a qualification in any man entrusted with the training of the young. It is unnecessary to say more about that gentleman's "resignation," as it seems not to concern the public as much as it does himself.

Let not electors be diverted from the question by noise about Elective Legislative Council Reforms, Vote by Ballot, &c;—these may, or may not be good enough in their place. What you should bear well in mind, fellow Protestant,—yes, at your peril—and wo to you and your unfortunate children, if you are forgetful of it,—is this: In that Academy, for the support of which you are taxed, neither you, nor your child, nor any of your religion, dare read your Bible, because it is PROHIBITED by law. Free, indeed! The first link in our religious thraldom is already rivetted on our supine limbs. Talk of "tests," indeed,—'tis a mere insult to common sense. Popery "always the same," as remarked by no less than Macaulay, stalks in our land hand in hand with selfishness, lust of place, power, and (what is more inducing) pay. "Lay the Bible under a bushel," says popery to lust of place, power and pay, "and the offices, with the emoluments, shall be ours unitedly." "Done," says lust of place, power and pay;—and done it is. And all before your and my eyes, fellow Protestant! and we are to be diverted with twaddle about "tests," and stigmatized as "bigots;" and the Bible is shut out from the Academy by popish influences, helped by Protestant men. Yes, (with a blush be it confessed) popery has been aided in all these doings by Protestant fathers. Shame! shame! May God not visit the sins of these fathers on their children.

Yours, &c.,
M. C. D.

Death of the Rev. Murdoch Sutherland, and Mr. John McDonald, Student, of the Free Church.

The Free Church of Nova Scotia and P. E. Island have lost within the last month two talented and devoted young men. The one, the Rev. M. Sutherland, late of Pictou, died in Rothesay, Scotland, on the 21st of April—the other Mr. John McDonald, Student in Divinity, died at Whycocomah, Cape Breton, on the 14th of the same month. As these men have laboured for some time in this city, and were much esteemed by those acquainted with them, they deserve some notice. Mr. Sutherland was a native of the North of Scotland, and came out to Nova Scotia in the summer of 1849 to labour as a Catechist, having completed his classical and philosophical studies in Edinburgh. After several months of devoted labour he began his theological studies in Halifax, in the session of 1849—50. Loss of health by excessive labour, the following summer, caused him to go back to Scotland, where he completed his college course in 1852. After ordination, he accepted a call from the congregation in the town of Pictou, where he laboured with indefatigable perseverance for upwards of four years, until last summer, when he was compelled by disease to resign his charge, and return the second time to his native land, where his dust now reposes awaiting a glorious resurrection. He spent two months of the summer of 1854 in this city, endeavouring to establish a Free Church congregation. His sermons and visits, on that occasion, created a very favourable impression, and will not soon be forgotten. In public matters he took an active part. The observance of the Sabbath—religious instruction to the railway labourers—temperance, and resistance to popery, called forth his most zealous efforts. We regret to state that he has fallen a sacrifice to his unintermitted exertions. Three sermons every Sabbath, besides the instruction of the young, formed his regular work on the Lord's day—and this was followed by preaching twice or thrice through the week, and constant visitation. Part of this toil might have been spared, and would have been spared, and no doubt the life of this devoted young minister prolonged, but for the unreasonable and unchristian demands of a few Gaelic people, who must have a service in a language they are pleased to call their own. We have often urged upon Mr. Sutherland the absolute duty of preaching only twice on a Sabbath, and have always received the above as the reply. It is high time that Presbyterians, and especially the Free Church, who have most to do with Gaelic people, should discountenance universally the use of the Gaelic language in the public service of God. It is retarding the advancement of their people—overburdening their ministers at all times, but especially at sacraments, where the services must on this account be double, and very materially diminishing many congregations.

Mr. Sutherland has gone hence to his reward; the church mourns a loss which will not soon be repaired; and we hope that unreasonable congregations with a few Gaelic people in them, have received a lesson which will not soon be forgotten. Should his sacrifice prolong the lives of other labourers now overburdened, it will not be in vain.

Mr. McDonald, of Whycocomah, was a very promising young man. As a student he stood high; his mental powers being strong—and his talent for speaking attractive. During the summer of 1855 he laboured in this city, and at the West River, and was greatly beloved by those who waited upon his instructions. For more than two years he suffered from consumption, occasioned by a cold taken in returning from Halifax by water to Cape Breton. Throughout his sickness, he gave abundant evidence that he had found the Saviour the secure refuge of his soul—and at his death joyfully anticipated that rest that remains for the people of God. These have been early called from the field of labour, who shall arise and fill their place?—[Com.

From a well known and highly respectable Physician in Canada West.

PRESCOT, C. W., Nov. 29, 1855.

Dear Sir: It affords me pleasure, in complying with your request, in giving an expression of my opinion of the virtues of the Oxygenated Bitters.

It is now nearly two years since I recommended its use to some of my patients, in a variety of Chronic Diseases, and with the most happy effects.

It has proved very useful in Dyspepsia, Nervous Headache, derangement of the Stomach, and General Debility. Therefore let all those who are afflicted with the above diseases, try the Oxygenated Bitters, and their success is certain.

I am, Sir, yours truly,
R. W. EVANS, M. D., & Druggist.

GOOD AUTHORITY.—The Cincinnati Evening Nonpariel, says of the Perry Davis Pain Killer:—It removes pain as if by magic from any part of the body, and no one who knows its virtue would willingly be without it.

THE Dwelling House of Mr Bernard Shannon, near the Ten Mile House, St Peter's Road, together with all its contents, were consumed by Fire, this morning, (May 21st,) about the hour of two o'clock. It is not known how the fire originated.

☞ The Baptist Church and Congregation of this City having secured the services of the Rev. J. DAVIS, late of Saint George, N. B., as their Pastor, public worship will in future be held in their Chapel, every Sabbath, at the usual hours (11 a.m. and 6½ p m.), and on Wednesday evenings, at 7½ o'clock.

☞ The Rev. Mr. Roy will preach in the Temperance Hall (up stairs) on Sabbath, 30th, at the hours of 3 and 6½ p.m.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch St., Phil., Pa.

READ WHAT IS SAID OF THEM.

SCOTT, Cortland Co., N. Y., March 21st, 1857.

Dr. C. M. Jackson. Dear Sir:—In behalf of the afflicted, I pen a few lines to you. I have suffered and doctored myself, and know how to pity those in a like condition. Until I commenced taking your Bitters last summer, I was not able to do anything, or even to sit up any considerable length of time. Before I had taken the first bottle I felt like a new man, and now, after having continued the use of them a short time, in the worst season of the year, I am able to labour hard every day. To say the least, I think I have received more benefit from the Bitters, than all other medicines I have taken. I have not only used your Bitters myself, but have given bottles and parts of bottles to those complaining of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and in every case, they tell me they have taken no medicine so beneficial as the Bitters.

Respectfully yours, JAMES VON BENSCHOTER.

They are sold by druggists and storekeepers, in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies and South America, at 75 cents per bottle.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.—Provided with these remedies, a person of the most delicate physique may brave any climate. They comprehend within the article of their curative influence all internal diseases not organic, and all the varieties of outward inflammation. Be careful not to be imposed upon by a spurious article palmed upon you for genuine. The latter are known by a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions accompanying each pot and box. This Water-mark consists of the words, "Holloway's Pills and Ointment, London." which ought to be seen in semi-transparent letters in the paper. Hold it up to the light.

THE RAILWAYS OF GREAT BRITAIN.—These railways have cost £313,000,000, nearly one-half of the national debt. This enormous sum has been expended in the construction of railways, which have required not less than 70 miles of tunnel, 25,000 bridges, and the removal of a quantity of earth, which, according to the estimate of Mr. Robert Stephenson, would make a mountain half a mile in diameter at its base, and a mile and a half in height. Over the roads thus formed, railway trains run a distance of not less than 80,000,000 of miles per annum, or more than 3000 times the circumference of the globe; and every second of time there are 2½ miles of railway covered with trains in motion. The engines required to work this amount of railway would extend, in a continuous line, from London to Chatham; and all the carriages, if placed in one monster train, would extend from London to Aberdeen, a distance of 500 miles.

The Falkirk Herald reports the death of a veteran—David Richardson, of the 21st Scotch Fusiliers—"who had the honour of teaching Sir Colin Campbell the use of the sword."

The town of Frankenstein, in Silesia, situated on the road from Breslau to Glatz, was on the 24th ultimo entirely destroyed by fire. Out of 500 houses which the town contained, 400, including the Catholic church, are in ruins; 16 persons perished in the flames.

Mr. Layard has arrived in London, from an extended tour through the disturbed districts of India.
