Poetry.

THE SPIRIT OF LOVE.

Of all the bright fancies we follow on earth,
Which we cling to with pleasure below—
And there must be a feeling of sadness or mirth
To fly to wherever we go—
Is love that, unpringing within us for beauty,
Paints the object it worship's so finely,
Feel we deem it a spirit we hallow in duty,
Or we never had loved so divinely.

And just as the pilgrim—at even-shade speeding
To the shrine of his heart and his love,
Finds the path he is pledging for, far away leading
From the goal that he prays for—above;
When the soft bell of vesper awakes on the gale,
Turns aright on his travel again,
So the voice of that spirit is heard here to tell
How we wander, nor tell us in vain.

And again, as the samian, when round him sea breaking
The wild waves, and loud thunders roll,
Smiles to see that, whatever wind course he is taking,
How the needle still points to the pole;
So the Spirit of Love to our heaven can betoken
The unerring abode where it dwells;
And we echo each word which the [illegible]
And believe in whatever it tells.

QUEEN ELIZABETH.—Among the records of the good old town of Ipswich, Mass., we find the following under date of 1651:

"Single persons who are under no government are ordered to put themselves under the care of some head of a family. Daniel Webster is required to return to his wife according to law."

The most agreeable of all companions is a simple frank man, without any high pretensions to oppressive greatness; one who loves life, and understands the use of it, obliging alike at all hours; above all of a golden temper, and steadfast as an anchor.—For such a one we gladly exchange the greatest genius, the most brilliant wit, the profoundest thinker.

THE GLANDERS.—While writing, I will mention a fact for your Veterinary department. More than 30 years since the glanders of the most virulent kind was among the horses of the neighbourhood in which my father lived. Great numbers died off.—His horse was taken, and under the belief that he also would die, my father commenced an experiment on him with a strong detoction of tobacco juce, given internally. In a short time the horse broke out all over his body with sores. These cured up in a month or so, and the horse was sound soon failed, and was, as long as I knew him afterwards, a sound and healthy animal. This was the only horse in all the neighborhood that recovered. Some farmers in this vicinity, noted for fine stock horses, give occasionally Scotch snuff to their horses.—Cor. Albany Cultivator.

G. T. WILEY.

THE BEST MEDICINE IN THE WORLD.

PARR'S Life Pills, are now established as the only certain cure of disease in the human frame. Sufficient has already been advertised in the public prints to convince any reasonable person that the efficacy of this medicine is unbounded, and that every disease will soon vanish from the effects of this popular remedy. Already the proprietors have received and published twenty-six different sheets of Testimonials; and, having received some thousand letters confirming all the statements published, and proving the immense benefit derived by all classes by taking Parr's Life Pills. Testimonials are received daily, and it would be impossible in a newspaper to publish one half received and the following are selected as people well known in their respective neighbourhoods, and whose testimony is unquestionable. Further sheets of testimonials may be had gratis, of all Agents.

The fame and efficacy of Parr's Life Pills in America.

From the New York Sunday Mercury, Jan. 10, 1844.

We call the attention of the invalid to the Testimonials of cures performed by Parr's Life Pills.—The testimony of such respectable names is a certain guarantee for the truth of the efficacy of this truly excellent medicine.

The number of testimonials of cures by Parr's Life Pills, are crowding upon the proprietors daily, and their unsolicited testimony witnessed by gentlemen of high reputation.

The following testimonial is from one of the most talented and respectable members of the theatrical profession. Mr. T. D. RICE, the original Jim Crow—a gentleman whose high character for worth and integrity as a citizen, places his unsolicited and voluntary attestation of the excellence of the Medicine beyond the shadow of suspicion. This (worth thousands of similar grateful acknowledgments) can be seen at the principal depot, 394 Broadway

From Mr. T. D. Rice, (the original Jim Crow,)

To Messrs. T. Roberts & co. 294 Broadway, N.Y.

Gentlemen—Having in the course of a long and arduous practice of my profession, contracted a tightness across the chest, with great prostration of strength, and suffering much from the effects of the labour attached to my peculiar pursuits, while in England, I had recourse to your popular Medicine, Parr's Life Pills, from which I received great benefit. Finding a branch of your house in this city, I procured a few boxes of the Medicine, and can now sincerely testify to their value & great efficacy, and also to the great character they bear in the old country. Your obedient servant,

T. D. RICE, 20 Vestry street.

The following Testimonials in favour of Parr's Life Pills, from highly respectable parties, are confidently submitted to the public. This singularly efficacious medicine is now being introduced into every family, and rests its claims for patronage on the most credible authority.

Cure of an old confirmed stomach and liver complaint.—Mr. John Howarth affirms that he has been for many years suffering from a deranged stomach and liver complaint, and although he has had recourse to various remedies, and has been under one of the most popular surgeons in Manchester, nothing afforded him the desired relief until he met with Parr's Life Pills, which have already afforded him more benefit than all the other advice and medicine he has been taking for years, and therefore can with the greatest confidence urge any one suffering from the same complaint to give them a trial.

Witness to the truth of the above, Mr. George Dean, Market street, Manchester. Feb. 7, 1843.

80, Medlock street, Hulme, Manchester, January, 1843.

To the proprietors of Parr's Life Pills.

Gentlemen—For the benefit of the afflicted public I hand you the particulars of a case of cure from the use of your benign medicine. I had for many years been out of health, and suffered much from internal pains in various parts of my body. I tried nearly all kinds of medicines without relief, and consulted the most eminent medical practitioners in Manchester, but my complaint defied their best efforts; at length I despaired of ever recovering, and life became to me burdensome; providentially my attention was directed by my nephew Mr. Higginson, of Salford, to make trial of Parr's Life Pills, which I consented to do, and found considerable relief when I had taken only one box, and I continued their use until this time, and have had about six boxes altogether, and have the happiness to say that I am now restored to perfect health. I have, therefore, the best of reasons for placing implicit faith in the invigorating efficacy of your Parr's Pills, which have of a truth been Life Pills to me. This testimony is at your service, hoping it will tend to cause their use to become even yet more universal, as such a medicine ought to be kept in every family.

I am your grateful servant.

[Witnessed by G. Vaughan.] W. Higginson.

Chronic Rheumatism of three years' standing.—Christopher Sanders, 43 Bengal street, Oldham road, hereby testifies that he has for three years been grievously afflicted with Rheumatism, and for the last fourteen weeks was unable to follow his employment; hearing from Mr. Wainwright, butcher, that Parr's Pills had cured him of the same complaint, I began to take them, and having done so for three weeks, I am so much better as to be able to resume my work again next Monday, and will persevere in their use a short time longer, to complete my restoration to health. Any one doubting the truth of this case, is invited to call upon me or write (post paid) and I will immediately bear testimony.

Bengal street, Oldham road, Manchester, Feb. 3.

JAMES HALL, of No. 8, Ford lane, Charlestown, Pendleton, near Manchester, who is upwards of 60 years of age, says he was attacked with Inflammation of the chest, which confined him to his bed for a long time in a very debilitated state, with a most distressing cough and spitting; after taking various kinds of medicine without the least relief, he at last commenced taking Parr's Life Pills, and having taken three boxes was completely restored to health, and is now much stronger than he has been for some years, and has recommended them to many persons who have taken them and received the greatest benefit from their use, and is ready at any time to attest the above. Witness, John Hatton.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.
