PLUNGE ON SEAGRAM ENTRY BACKED DOWN FROM 4 TO 3

Early Morning Trial by the Waterloo Candidates—Starting Machine in Place.

The feature yesterday in preparation for the King's Plate was the scurrying of some wise speculators to get their money down on the Seagram stable, that hitherto had been little in demand. Single bets of $300 to $1200, and $200 to $800, besides a number of smaller wagers, forced the Toronto books' quotation from 4 to 1 down to 3 to 1, and the Waterloo entry is now split favorite with William Hendrie's best

One week from to-day the flag falls for the first race of the O.J.C.'s thirteen days' meeting. The program for next Saturday has the trial purse, 6 furlongs; Juvenile Purse, half-mile; Minto Selling Stakes, 1 1-16 miles (4.30 p.m.); and Carleton Purse, 6 furlongs.

Yesterday morning the Seagram half-dozen galloped the plate distance so early that the time was reported anywhere between 2.13 and 2.23, with chatelaine leading the bunch. Cross of Gold, Eastrn Prince, Virtuoso, War Medal and Con Amore followed in that order. Norbury, Cloten, Glad Tidings, Scotch Plume and Irish Witch worked a mile handily in 1.48. Dramatist, Pan Longin, Persistence and Camily Man galloped the same distance in 1.55. The Seagram 2-year-olds breezed a half in sections around 55 seconds.

Nipissing and Brant, Hendrie's 2-year-olds, went a half in .53. Dymen's Will King, and Maid of Barrie and Cook's Ame covered the same distance half a second faster.

Opuntio, Thornhedge, Bedlington, Georgia Pine, Woolgatherer and Florenza were schooled thru the field.

Hawkins and Grand Lodge of the Beck string covered the mile and a quarter in 2.19, the first mile in 1.52. Beck's entry was not wanted in the winter books yesterday.

War Whoop ran away from Sailor Lad in a breeze thru the stretch preparatory to a workout this morning between 8 and 9.

The Hendrie pair, Heather Jock and Nimble Dick, galloped with Scarfell.

W. P. Maxwell leaves New York to-morrow for Woodbine with 14 head belonging to H. R. Schaffer. Maxwell is the inventor of the gate of that name, and was last season training a section of Doc Streett's stable.

Jockey Willie Blake, who won so many races on Orontas, writes from Chicago that he will be here for the meeting and is anxious to have a mount in the plate. Tiny Williams, formerly in Mr. Seagram's employ, will come along with Blake. Williams can ride at 108 pounds.

Joe Flynn, who once rode with great success on the flat for Pierre Lorillard, Tom Ryan and others, will ride over the jumps at the Woodbine.

C. C. Powers came in from Salem, N.Y., yesterday with Ginki and Catspaw.

The starting machine will be in its place at the six-furlong chute this morning, and each morning of next week, with W. Hollar in charge ready to school all horses between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock. Owners and trainers are warned to avail themselves of this opportunity in order that their horses may be thoroly broken to the barrier before racing starts next Saturday.

The horses owned by the late Joseph Dugkan, 20 in all, including Beguile, Brendile, Crestfallen, Per Centum, Sea Roll and Violent II. will be sold privately, as Mrs. J. J. Dixon, daughter of deceased, will not remain in racing stable. Mr. Duggan died intestate, and thus the entire estate, valued at over a quarter of a million dollars, goes to Mrs. Duggan.
