The Housewife Sings of WALKER.

Through the house I gaily sing,
My heart with joy is bounding,
From the basement to the roof
WALKER'S praises sounding.

Like the snow-flake on the branch
WALKER'S curtains hanging,
See my youngest daughter Blanche
WALKER'S Piano banging.

WALKER'S bed and WALKER'S chairs,
WALKER'S plates and dishes,
WALKER'S cornucopia fills
All a housewife's wishes.

Who is WALKER? What is he?
I can hear you saying,
WALKER shows the multitude
An easy way of paying.

Paying for the goods they need,
Just as they are able.
These are really solemn facts,
And no foolish fable.

Just a year ago to-day,
WALKER'S store I made for,
WALKER furnished all my house,
Now it's nearly paid for.

Nothing gives a housewife a greater sense of pleasure than having her home nicely furnished, and nothing is easier than to secure on easy instalments household, furniture, bedding, carpets, oilcloths, linoleums, dinner sets, cutlery, oil stoves, etc., from

Acceptable Suggestions!

Acting on our advice of the past week numerous orders for fall garments have already been placed, many of them from ladies holidaying out of town. Although our staff is large, and eminently superior in all respects to any in the Dominion the increasing volume of trade urges the necessity of pressing for an early orders as possible, so as to secure best attention and despatch for each patron and to avoid, if possible, a repetition of the unpleasant refusal of many desirable trousseaux. WHETHER FOR PRESENT OR FUTURE WEAR place your orders at once. No time of the year affords the same opportunity for good attention or the same bargains in materials as at present.
COLORED MATERIALS PROCURED WHEN DESIRED.
All garments guaranteed satisfactory in every respect, else positively no charge.
