REV. CHAS. FISH, METHODIST MINISTER, 192 DUNN AVE., TORONTO, CURED OF ECZEMA.

About ten years ago I felt the beginnings of what is commonly known as Eczema. The disease commenced in my ears and spread entirely over both sides of my head and also developed on my hands. During those ten years I was a great sufferer. Specialists on skin diseases treated me. As I write this I am just commencing on the fifth box of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and, judging from the rapid improvement effected, I am certain that before the box is used I shall be completely cured.

LOYAL BROTHERS.

I chanced to witness a pretty scene out upon the streets one day quite recently. I was passing along through the busy part of the town, and was in quite a hurry to reach my place of destination, when I chanced to meet Hiram Haywood, one of my Sunday-school boys, who was almost a young man. He greeted me with his usual pleasant "Good-morning," and lifted his cap politely, in spite of the fact that he had a number of packages in his hands to deliver to some of his employer's customers.

Hiram was always very gentlemanly and polite, and I thought nothing more of the little act of courtesy, until I saw him meet his own sister a moment later. The same earnest "Good-morning" greeted my ear, and the cap was lifted just as gallantly as it had been when he met me. The smile upon both faces revealed the sincerity of the cordial greeting between the brother and sister. Hiram hurried along with his packages, and the sister went in another direction with the smile upon her face that had been awakened by the earnest greeting of her loyal brother. Although Hiram boarded with his employer, he visited his own home every evening, yet in spite of this fact, the greeting was as sincere as though the brother had been out of town a long time.

Many times we see young men that are very polite and gentlemanly to other young ladies, while they never think of treating their own sisters with the same respect. More than this, they are sometimes cross and really unkind to their sisters, but very pleasant and attentive to others of their lady friends.

Hiram Haywood is the true gentleman and as loyal to his own sweet, gentle sister as he is to all others. Such a young man can be trusted anywhere and everywhere, so far as loyalty to womanhood is concerned.

There can be no brighter home scene than a kindly tenderness between brothers and sisters manifested upon all occasions. The home that has this true loyalty is always filled with life's brightest sunlight.

DYING FOR HIS PARENTS.

Bishop Clark, of Rhode Island, states that Bishop Boone the elder, while on a visit to this country, related to him the following incident: "I had a very valuable Chinese servant in my employ, upon whom I leaned with implicit confidence, and one day he came to me and said: 'I shall be obliged to ask you to find some one to take my place, as, in the course of a few weeks, I am to be executed in place of a rich gentleman, who is to pay me very liberally for becoming his substitute'—such a mode of exchange, as the reader may know, being in accordance with the law of the empire. I then inquired what possible inducement there could be for him to forfeit his life for any amount of money, when he replied: 'I have an aged father and mother, who are very poor and unable to work, and the money that I am about to receive will make them comfortable as long as they live. I think therefore, it is my duty to give up my life for the sake of accomplishing this.'"

—God gives His wrath by weight, and without weight His mercy.

—God's will is always to be acquiesced in, but cannot always be accounted for.

The Success of anything depends upon the publicity it receives

Therefore, when a Sunday school entertainment is to be held, or special church services are to be conducted, it is important that as many persons as possible be made acquainted with the fact. There is no better way of accomplishing this than by attractive poster and newspaper advertising. We print posters that people stop to read, and compose advertisements for newspapers equally attractive.
