YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Few Buyers, But Every Lot Cut Down in Size at Junction Tax Sale Yesterday.

AT WOODBRIDGE FAIR TO-DAY

Charles Ware, the Well-Known Storekeeper at Lambton Mills, Died Yesterday, Aged 76.

Toronto Junction, Oct. 16.—There were few buyers at the tax sale yesterday, yet every lot offered was cut down in size. Even lots on Peel-street in the sage bush west of Elizabeth-street were cut in half and brought full taxes. It was only the last lot disposed of that was not reduced in size, and this brought full taxes.

This gives a stability to Junction real estate which it has not had since 1893, and goes to show that all the property in town is, worth the amount it is assessed for. Property in the older settled parts of the town has increased in value rapidly of late, and new buildings are being put up in all parts of the town.

The Dodge Co., which owns 30 acres of land between Pelham-avenue and Davenport-road, has recently erected several new buildings, so that half of this property will soon be a hive of industry.

Mr. Hall is building five houses in Mulock avenue, Mr. Schultz has the foundation for another house in High Park-avenue about completed, which will make the eighth on this street within the present year.

Mr. W. Joy has also purchased 200 feet on the east side of High Park-avenue, and intends to erect five detached houses thereon this fall. The demand for houses in the Junction continues unabated, and most of them are sold as soon as completed.

The Public School Board will send a letter of condolence to Mrs. Wallace of Woodbridge, widow of the late Hon. N. Clarke Wallace.

At this time of year chickens can do very little damage in a neighbor's garden, and for this reason Henry and Elizabeth Colley were dismissed of the charge brought against them by Sarah Doubleby. George Wilson, for throwing a stone thru Mr. Gasslon's window, was ordered to pay the cost of replacing the glass.

Charles Ware, the well-known storekeeper at Lambton Mills and a prominent Orangeman and Free Mason, died yesterday in his 76th year. The funeral will be an Orange one, and will leave his late residence at 2 o'clock to-morrow for St. James' Cemetery.

Rev. J. C. Speer will lecture on "The New Century in the Arms of the Old" at the bowl supper in Islington Methodist Church on Wednesday, Oct. 23.

WOODBRIDGE FAIR TO-DAY.

To-day is the big day of Woodbridge Fair. All the events in the ring take place this afternoon, and to-night the annual banquet will be held. The exhibits this year are fully in keeping with those of former years and the attractions have all been crowded into one day. That day is to-day, and with bright, cool weather a large crowd will no doubt take the special trains at single fare from Toronto.

EAST TORONTO.

Mr. W. H. Clay, Village Clerk, has written a letter to the Grand Trunk authorities on behalf of the residents of the village, asking them to blow the steam whistle at 6 o'clock every morning, instead at 6.40 and 7 o'clock, asat present. As the best of feeling exists between the G.T.R. and the residents of the village, they have little doubt that their request will be granted.

As Mr. A. E. Ames' coachman was driving on the Kingston-road towards the city a collie dog belonging to Mr. Ferguson ran out barking and biting at the horse, causing it to get almost beyond the control of the driver. There have been several complaints lately against this animal and other. Richard R. Burns was fined for stealing letters a few days ago, when he was bitten severely by a fox terrier owned by R. Holman, and a day or two afterwards, in the same neighborhood, a little boy on his way to school from the Danforth-road was attacked by a dog, and severely bitten. Both the victims in the two last cases are being attended by Dr. W. A. Yellowlees.

James Rennie of Scarboro was driving to town on the Kingston-road with a load of grain, when his wagon collapsed, bursting some of the bags and scattering the grain on the roadside.

John Lawrie of the Gladdew Hill farm is mouring the loss of a valuable 2-year-old mare (thorobred), thru an attack of distemper.

SCARBORO.

The members of the Epworth League attached to the Methodist Church (Washington) of Scarboro attended the meetings of the various sections of the branches for the county and City of Toronto last evening, and were greatly elated upon being presented with the banner which is given annually to the branch league which attends with the greatest number of members. There are 45 members on the roll of the Scarboro branch, and they all were in attendance, giving a percentage of 100. Among those present were: The President, A. Martin, Thomas Jennings, R. G. Bertram, William Lefrangh, H. Dicks, G. Dicks, Miss M. L. Dicks, H. Hammond, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Tog, Mrs. W. A. Heron, Mr. and Mrs. William Annis, Mr. A. Annis, John Everist and several others.

NORTH TORONTO.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Farr of Yonge-street celebrated their crystal wedding last night. There was a large gathering of friends and relatives, and a very pleasant time was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Farr were the recipients of numerous suitable presents.

Miss Eva Crown is taking Miss Hutty's place in the Davisville School for a time, owing to the indisposition of Miss Hutty.

Taxes came in very satisfactorily on Tuesday, and a larger amount was paid into the treasury on account of the first instalment of taxes than has ever been received by the collector in former years.

RICHMOND HILL.

Mr. William Savage, son of the Reeve of the village, was married yesterday to Miss Jennie Palmer, daughter of Mr. John Palmer of the Palmer House. The wedding took place in Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Savage, who are both popular young people in the village, have the best wishes of all.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Wellwood of the Methodist Church left yesterday for a visit to the Pan-American Exhibition, and will return before Sunday.

Reeve Savage and Assessor Nicholls represented the village at the funeral of the late Mr. Hutt at Aurora on Tuesday.

DONCASTER.

Arrangements are completed for the harvest home service in St. Barnabas' Church to-night. The church has been beautifully decorated with products of the field and garden, and flowers in profusion decorate the altar. A number of choristers from St. Peter's Church will aid the choir.

LEASIDE.

It is several years since partridges have been seen in this part of York Township, but five were shot in the Don Valley a few yards south of the C.P.R. station here yesterday.

TODMORDEN.

Mrs. Fred Baldwin and her six children leave for England to-morrow and will spend the winter there.

Scarlet fever broke out here again on Monday last, but the patient, a little girl of 8 years, upon being refused admission to the Isolation Hospital was taken to the home of a relative in the city.

Public Amusements

Eva Tanguay, the Soubret.

Probably none of the younger soubrets who have become prominent in the last few seasons have attained greater popularity than Miss Eva Tanguay, the little emotional soubret who will be seen here in the coming production of "The Chaperons." Miss Tanguay is just out of her teens, and has had only one season in the large Eastern cities, but she has received enough attention to turn the head of a less conscientious worker. Her dancing and singing with "My Lady" company at the Victoria last winter made such an impression on Manager Perley that he sent for and secured her name to a contract for "The Chaperons" before he had started in seriously on the production. She is described as "a woman of bewildering vivacity and piquancy," who "possesses the physical attributes that cause her sex to be adored." Young as she is, Miss Tanguay has had 11 years' experience on the stage, beginning as a child actress in "Little Lord Fauntleroy," and being starred before she was 14 at the head of the Tanguay Dramatic Company. She then spent five years with the Francesca Redding repertoire company before taking up the singing and dancing line of work that has given her prominence in musical productions such as "The Brownies" and "The Merry World." In Frank L. Perley's production of "The Chaperons" Miss Tanguay will have the part of Phrosia, a dime novel girl detective, which she has made a distinct character creation, colored with her own whimsical personality, that might be extravagantly described as one continuous flash of electric sparks in a stream of human kaleidoscopic changes.

In "The Chaperons" Miss Tanguay has a coon song entitled "My Sambo," which she sings with a chorus of 30 appropriately-costumed girls. The number is said to be one of the musical hits of the show. The sale for the show opens this morning at the Princess Theatre box office.

Many Midgets on the Stage.

"The Royal Lilliputians," an aggregation of the world's most famous midgets, and, as a remarkable contrast, the tallest giants form part of the organization. This company will present a bright extravaganza at the Grand Opera House next week, and an entertainment will be provided that will interest both young and old. Among the leading Lilliputians who play the principal roles are: Major James Doyle, Capt. William Piatt, Commodore Carl Weise, Louis Merkel, Major Gus Alexander, Major T. Rhinbeck, Mr. and Mrs. Major Littlefinger, Colonel Archie, Jennie Quigley, the tiny Cautna Sisters and many other little actors and actresses. The giants take no small part in the performance and in the many funny scenes they have with the folk laughter and fun reign supreme. As the Eastern papers have put it: "The Royal Lilliputians are the only novelty in sight." There will be no increase in prices during this engagement, and those who are desirous of witnessing this up-to-date lavishly-equipped extravaganza by the most remarkable actors on earth, should not fail to see "The Royal Lilliputians" in the big laughing scenic success, "The Merry Tramps."

"A Homespun Heart."

A play of intense heart interest, and one interspersed with pathos, bright comedy and strong situations is "A Homespun Heart," which comes to the Toronto Opera House next week. The scene of the play is laid in Central Ohio, and tells the story of the love of a young couple in a rural community, who are for a time parted thru the dark designs of a miserly old moneylender, aided by a scheming adventuress; but at last these are thwarted thru the efforts of the half-witted brother of the heroine. As sweet as a spray of apple blossoms is this gem of pastoral drama. All the scenes are familiar, and there is no straining for unnatural effects. The action is brisk and rapid, the climaxes real and natural, the humor droll and laughable, the scene neighborhood, a true and typical to the environments wherein the story is supposed to have been told. Altogether, one cannot fail to enjoy these chapters from an everyday love story. The company comprises such well-known people as Blanche Warren, Lulu Espey, Lucille Allen Walker, Estelle Howard, Fred Monley, Harry L. Dunkinson, Jack L. Evans, Will H. Chapman, Charles W. Porter, Merrill Frederick, Julia Barth and Baby Beatrice.

At Shea's Next Week.

For next week Mr. Shea offers a show composed almost entirely of head-liners, including Ellson and Erroll, Alexandria Dagmar, Four Nelson Sisters, Montgomery and Stone, the Marvelous Merrills, the Le Febre Saxophone Quartet, George C. Davis and others. The show this week is considered by almost everybody to be the best attraction Mr. Shea has offered this season. Regular patrons of the house say it is even better than the excellent Empire show of last week. The audience proves that it is, as the theatre is doing the banner week of the season.

The Royal Chorus.

Something entirely new in Canada will be attempted at Massey Music Hall a week from Monday evening, when a chorus of 1000 trained voices will be heard in a concert hall. In the first place, of course, there are very few halls in Canada capable of seating this number of a chorus, to say nothing of the audience. In the second place, on no other occasion has a chorus of this magnitude been brought together. All of Mr. Torrington's singers will respond enthusiastically to the call, and the first rehearsal will be held early next week at Massey Hall. They will be assisted by the combined bands of the Royal Grenadiers and 48th Highlanders, and a splendid program will be presented at popular prices. The Massey Hall platform will be enlarged, and the chorus seats will be built up to join the end section of the first gallery. It is sure to be a popular and splendid occasion musically, and an immense crowd will doubtless be in attendance.

Of All Modern Garments

Scores' famous Guinea Trousers are the most popularized, the least criticized, the most eulogized and, we may add, the best advertised (because so eulogized by their many smart wearers). The new autumn and winter materials comprise the newest designs and most exclusive patterns—$5.25 spot cash—greatest value ever offered in high-class tailoring. A large new shipment of Scotch Neckwear—the identical goods that took the prize at Glasgow Exhibition—English Hunting Stocks, Driving Gloves, etc.—values out of the ordinary.

OWEN SOUND NEWS.

Owen Sound, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Agnes Smith, widow of the late J. B. Smith, died yesterday at the age of 74. Mr. and Mrs. Smith were among the oldest residents of the town.

Trooper Mulloy lectures in the Town Hall to-morrow night.

Capt. John Sullivan of Toronto and the Soo is in town.

Samuel Hewitt, purser of the Germanic, took a holiday this week to enjoy a few days' shooting. Purser Ince of the Atlantic taking his place this trip.

J. F. Shipman, proprietor of the Seldon House, has returned from a trip to the east. While at Ottawa he noticed that sawdust is shipped to New York for conversion into commercial products, and wondered why a plant for that purpose could not be established in Ontario. Vast quantities of sawdust and lumber waste are burned at the big mills along the north shore, and the suggestion seems reasonable that this material might profitably be converted into wood alsohol, oxalic acid, or some other of the many products obtained elsewhere. Sawdust in Scotland is worth from $2.50 to $4 a ton, and is utilized in many ways.

Notwithstanding the large number of residences erected here this summer, over 150, there is still an unsatisfied demand for houses, and would-be tenants are outbidding each other in their eagerness to obtain accommodation.

The Baptist congregation have decided to build their new church on the east side of Bay-street on a vacant lot offered by John Harrison.

Regulars on Parade.

About 100 men from the R.C.R.I. at Stanley Barracks marched into town yesterday morning, under Major Macdougall, on their regular weekly parade. Their appearance was very soldierly and evoked much praise from the spectators who witnessed the parade.

The Women's Gift.

GOVERNMENT LOST 40.

Colon, Oct. 16.—The situation on the Isthmus of Panama is unchanged. News has been received here that the government forces defeated the insurgents recently at Panoneme, killing a large number. Panoneme is now in the hands of the government. The government loss in the engagement was 40 killed and wounded, among the latter being Col. Navia.

Famine Stations in India.

The Presbyterian Foreign Mission Committee continued their sessions yesterday and dealt more particularly with the work of Indian missions. It is proposed to make the famine stations self-supporting, by teaching to the children the art of rug-weaving, and by establishing a trade with Canada and the different nations. Markets have been obtained in the United States and England, but, owing to our high duties, it is thought hardly probable that a Canadian trade could be secured.

Rev. Dr. Gray, president of the Young Ladies' College at Kalmazoo, Mich., and formerly of Windsor, was present at the meeting.

The committee hope to conclude their deliberations to-day.

Sloppy Weather Discounts.

Put out your barrel and catch the shower of discounts that Fairweather's (84 Yonge) are giving off their entire stock of umbrellas. A special sale goes into force this morning. Their stock is big and good prices range from $1.00 to $12.00, and there's a special line of ladies' umbrellas, with sterling mounts, at $3.00, and every rain shedder in the house (except the $1.00 line) is marked at a straight discount of 25 per cent.

Union of Christians.

To-night in Cecil-street Church at 8 o'clock, a meeting will be held in the interests of Christian union. This is the first of a series to be continued monthly during the winter, at which representative ministers will speak. The address this evening will be by the Rev. S. D. Chown, D.D., of Broadway Methodist Tabernacle. Everyone interested in this important subject will be welcome.

A Reward for Merit.

The business apathy which usually follows a holiday is absent after the Duke's visit. For instance, at Archambault's tailoring establishment, 125 Yonge-street, there is a great demand for $16 made to order grey cheviot overcoats and $16 suits. The popularity of these $16 fashionables is due to the fact that they are made thoroly first-class in every detail.

Veterinary Students Hustle.

The Ontario Veterinary College hustle took place yesterday afternoon, and for a little while there was a lively time on Temperance-street. The freshmen were taken by surprise, and one by one they were compelled to climb a big tree in front of the building. The freshies disposed of, outsiders were caught and treated the same way. The students, however, struck a snag when they attempted to have fun with a driver of a laundry wagon. They stopped his horse, but he used his whip freely, and dared the whole crowd of them to come on together. A policeman arrived just as matters were warming up, and dispersed the crowd.

Trinity College will be represented at the celebration of the foundation of Xaic University by Sir John Bourinot. The Marquis Ito of Japan and President Roosevelt will be among those who will be present at the ceremony.

Knox College Lit's At Home.

The Literary Society of Knox College intend holding an at home at an early date. This was decided at a meeting held yesterday, but the day has not yet been decided upon.

Registrar Brebner has been unable so far to total up the number of students who have registered at Varsity this term, but it is expected that the number will exceed the previous one.

So far there are 26 resident students enrolled at Wycliffe College. Several more are expected to register later on in the term, but even then the attendance will hardly be up to what was anticipated.

Work on new wing of McMaster University is being pushed rapidly forward, and when completed it will make a very considerable addition to the main building. McMaster this session has 75 resident students—several more than last.

TECHNICAL SCHOOL'S GREAT RECORD

Effort Will Be Made to Have Students Graduate Into S.P.S.

A meeting of the Special Committee on New Classes was held at the Technical School yesterday afternoon. The meeting was attended by the chairman of the Board, Ald. J. J. Ward, Dr. J. O. Orr, J. D. Allan and John Gemmill.

The secretary reported that the entries so far registered are 1010, compared with a total for last season of 400. This excellent showing is largely attributed to the systematic canvass made by the chairman of the board and the secretary among the large manufactories of the city, in co-operation with the proprietors of the factories, who have placed the advantages of the Technical School before their employes.

It was decided in regard to the granting of diplomas to consult with Principal Galbraith of the School of Practical Science, so that Technical School students may graduate from the Technical School into that under Principal Galbraith. Messrs. Allan and Orr were deputed to consult with Principal Galbraith.

The committee decided in favor of inviting Hon. R. Harcourt, Minister of Education, to attend the formal opening night, at an early a date to suit his convenience, and to present the diplomas and prizes to the successful students of last season.

Arrangements were authorized to be made for the class in domestic science to meet four nights a week instead of two as at present.

The Special Committee is considering the establishment of a class for modelling from life to be conducted by Mr. Banks. The regular meeting of the board will be held to-night.

WEST END PARAGRAPHS.

Residents Complain of Damage By Soldiers During the Review.

David Kennedy of Dominion-street complains that serious and extensive damage was done to his buildings, vinery and gardens in consequence of the coming of the military and the advent of the crowd of spectators at the military review. Other complaints are made that long stretches of sidewalks were torn up and used for fuel for the cook fire trenches, and that the foraging caused by the necessities of the army will entail a considerable outlay to make good. The West End aldermen have the complaints in hand, and they will be aired at the City Council.

A stiff municipal fight will be put up in Ward Five. The four present aldermen, Messrs. Starr, Bell Fraleigh and Woods, are in the field for re-election, also Alex. Stewart, who made a close run last year, ex-Ald. Denison and Mr. Dunbar.

Members of the West Toronto Liberal Association resident in Parkdale, state that they are quite in the dark whether the present association will be called together again, as requested some time ago by the president of the Central Association, or whether a new organization will have to be formed. E. C. Chender of Parkdale is spending a few days at the Pan-American Exposition.

Police Sergeant Charles Coombs, who was recently compelled to retire from the force thru illness, leaves today to spend the winter in California.

MARRIED AT DUNNVILLE.

Dunnville, Ont., Oct. 16.—The residence of Mr. C. Currey was the scene of a pretty but quiet wedding, when their daughter, Amelia Belle, became the bride of Mr. B. M. Haney, one of the popular young business men of the town. The bride was attired in white silk organdie, and was assisted by Miss Belva Griffith of Welland, who was gowned in blue silk organdie. The groom was assisted by Dr. R. Y. Perry, B.A. The bridal couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents, prominent among them was a Morris chair, presented by the non-commissioned officers and members of No. 6 Company, and bugle band of the 37th Regiment, Haldimand Rifles, of which company Mr. Haney has command. The bride's travelling gown was blue broadcloth, with hat to match. Mr. and Mrs. Haney left on the evening train for Toronto and Montreal. After their bridal tour they will reside in Dunnville. Only relatives and immediate friends were present.
