THE REFLECTOR.

FOR THE WEEKLY OBSERVER.

"Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost; as your fathers did, so do ye."—Acts, 7th chap. 51st verse.

So to the old Jewish laws,
[illegible]
If [illegible] the cause they did
The holy ones possess.

Unconvinced [illegible]
Their [illegible]
Christ's [illegible] wonderful works make
In and around Jerusalem.

And hence they did, his miracles works,
To Satan's power ascribe—
Be [illegible] his power and rules,
And all the [illegible].

Hence priests [illegible] did not escape
The cruel hand of [illegible];
Jesus himself [illegible] death,
We find in Scripture page.

Thus cruel malice [illegible] felt,
Patronist of bigotry [illegible],
To vindicate the character, God,
He their true history tell.

Each demonstration of God's power
The proud Jews despised;
From Moses down to Christ, they shew'd
Their hearts unchrist-like.

Anthem, now, we see, also!
Hypocrisy in their deeds,
In [illegible] unchrist-like
And treachery in their creeds.

When God, by his free grace, doth snatch
A soul from [illegible] hell,
The world [illegible] those hosts against
The Holy Albert rebel.

To blind new sight! to relief new ears!
New life to feel in soul!
Such wonders Jesus works on all
Who are to him akin.

But when these works of pow'r appear,
Delusion! their explain.
Thus seen rejects the Holy Ghost,
Dishonoring his name.

Jan. 13, 1832. CHRISTOPHERUS.

THE LAW OF KINDNESS.—The annexed extract from the "Universal Watchman"—a valuable religious journal, published in Hartford—must meet the approbation of every intelligent mind. It was a remark of Philip Henry, that "all his quarrelling produced more [illegible], than were ever occasioned by the labors of Velvet or Paste."

"In the scenes of active and enterprise there looks many a danger, (such is our frailty) that in pursuing the cause of what we honestly believe to be the truth, we become careless in cultivating and cherishing the Christian temper,—in courtesy and watchfulness over every root of bitterness from our hearts. It is a melancholy and appalling fact, that [illegible] day's unparalleled Christian effort [illegible] injurious tempers, it is also [illegible] in consequence of a lamentable deficiency [illegible] charity,—of holy love and peace,—of [illegible] with. The important and endearing [illegible] seem to be too often [illegible] evinced in the establishment of the [illegible] building up of exclusive [illegible] to free discussion on [illegible] we do desire to see [illegible] with the calmness and humility [illegible] as followers of the meek and lowly Jesus. The spirit of censure and bitterness [illegible] and fellow beings is totally at variance with that inculcated by our Divine Master, and his Holy Gospel. We think it from neither, but it is the [illegible] impulse of an unholy nature. So long as we continue in labors abundant—in well-doing, not weary,—so long as the love of the Redeemer, and of his Kingdom, is our constraining principle of action, we may expect a blessing on our efforts. So long as we ponder the prevalence of truth to that of our own prejudices, seeking not our own, we may claim the promised aid of the spirit. We do not wish to see the borders of Zion enlarged, except her sons be in the unity of the faith, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life."

GOING DIFFERENT WAYS.—Dr. Hosack has [illegible] in his Lectures, contrived to bring in the following anecdote: Rev. Dr. Witherspoon, formerly President of Princeton College, was once on [illegible] where, among other passengers, [illegible] was very loud [illegible] with his pious [illegible]; and [illegible] offered to bet he could get any [illegible] to believe in a God [illegible]. By and by there came [illegible] and the proposal was, that all [illegible] should be put in the cabin, and [illegible] Dr. Witherspoon! we'll fling you [illegible] to stop. Oh, my good [illegible] We are all going—don't [illegible] Dr. Witherspoon! [illegible] a lock of money [illegible] paid, in hand [illegible] which [illegible] going [illegible]

FIRE INSURANCE.

E. DEW. RATCHFORD, AGENT for the ÆTNA INSURANCE COMPANY, of Hartford, Connecticut, continues to issue policies, and renewal receipts, for Insurance on Houses, Barns, Stores, Mills, and other buildings, vessels in port, or on the stocks, Household Furniture, Farmers' Stock and Utensils, Merchandize, Machinery, and every other description of property, against Loss or damage by Fire, on liberal terms.—It is a notorious fact, that the subject of insuring against fire, does not receive from the inhabitants of this Province that attention which its importance demands; and the premiums, for fire insurances particularly, bear so very small a proportion to the value of the property insured, that much less sympathy is felt for those sufferers who may have neglected to avail themselves of the means of providing against such calamities.

The capital of this Company, $200,000, has been all paid in, and invested in the best securities; independently of which, a SURPLUS FUND of more than $35,000 has been set apart to meet the occasional claims for losses, and the stock bears a high premium.

The Agent will at all times attend personally to the survey of buildings on which insurance is desired within the City; and applications in writing (post paid) from all other parts of the Province, describing the situation and the property to be insured, will receive prompt attention.

Saint John, N. B. 15th November, 1831.
