Drury-lane is let to Mr. Bunn for three years at £6,000 per annum. The first year the proprietors will receive only £5,500; the remaining £500 to be applied to exterior and interior decorations and painting. Mr. Bunn has likewise taken the Theatre Royal English Opera house, at a rental of £3,500.

MONTREAL, THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1836.

The papers to the 15th instant, from the Lower Provinces, received by yesterday's mail, contain little of importance.

Trade is unusually brisk at Halifax.

...ERT CARTER, Esq., Commissioner of ...ial Bank, had arrived at St. John's,

...ORGAN.—This day, Sept 6, a field of ...ing cut down at Willow Park, which ...in April last, on the 8th or 9th. The ...hen on the ground, the surface only ...s thawed to the depth of three or ..., and tolerably dry. In consequence ...y sowing the grain has ripened well, ...erest and waving, while later crops ...counter bad weather, in the course of ...nth, and suffer from being lodged. It is good husbandry to plough and ridge in the fall, that the farmer may avail himself of the first opportunity in the spring, to commit his seed to the earth.—Nonwiscotian.

THE WEATHER.—We are sorry to learn that the frosts experienced here, on Tuesday and Wednesday nights last, extended into the country, and in many places destroyed the potato stalks, and injured the late grain crops.—Halifax Journal.

The most knavish trait, and that which most excites our indignation, in the character of the majority of our House of Assembly, is their habitually styling themselves the representatives of the inhabitants of this province, and more particularly of the French ...ortion of them. It is not necessary, ...should descant upon what is to be ...d by the word representative, or degrees of sympathy and relationship ...the case of all true representatives, ...y subsist between such and those ...y represent. These matters must ...iar as household words to all who ... Suffice it to say, we can discern ... in the character and objects of the majority of the House of Assembly, that can entitle them to be called the representatives of the French Canadians, but a common origin, and the reflection of common prejudices. There are no ties between them of a higher nature. With sught that concerns the purely political opinions of the majority, the habitans have little or no sympathy.

The circumstance that the majority do not represent the inhabitants of French—to say nothing of those of British origin—that they are not, therefore, in reality backed by the people, in maintaining the position of defiance they occupy, renders it certain that their ...ceedings will only expose to the ... entire impotency, and must be ...a the sure forerunner of their ruin. ...gone too far to retrace their steps ...od grace, and yet they cannot en... demands, because their passive ...ts have no enthusiastic sympathy ...

...may, however, without fear of disor... dismissed; and wiser heads, and more honest hearts, called in to mend our difficulties and grant redress of grievances, since we have, by the obstinacy of the House of Assembly, become virtually deprived of the benefits of a native Legislature.

The Address of the Legislative Council in answer to the Speech from the Throne, will be found in another column. It is mostly an echo of the Speech. It breathes a good spirit, and displays the most praiseworthy desire for a better understanding being established between all the branches of the Legislature.

...ondon and Gore Railroad is pro... ...nd, so far, very satisfactorily. The ... been surveyed by Mr. JOHNSTON, ...ter, from Hamilton to near Chat... the results have exceeded the most ... expectations; it being found to be ...ably adapted for a Railroad. The ...nd at the back of Hamilton will be ... without the aid of any stationary ...ngine, and, in fact, no power of this kind will be required throughout the whole route.

Amidst the rival Railroad schemes in the Western portions of Upper Canada, it would be not less difficult than invidious, to assign to one the pre-eminence over the rest, did not the variety of their location enable each to claim for itself peculiar advantages. But, if the question were, which of the projected lines of Railroad in Upper Canada would form the shortest and most direct means of communication between Lake Ontario and Lakes Huron and Michigan, the answer would undoubtedly be, the Wellington Square and ...h Railroad.

...ondon and Gore Railroad will ter... a point nearly opposite Detroit, ...which and the head of Lake Michi... ...ar means of communication is about ...lished. The circumstance of these ...traversing, the most fertile re... ...l being in a direct line with each ...ld inevitably tend to increase the ... both. They would, doubtless, share ...to the trade between the head of Lake Michigan and the Eastern States; but we remain firm in the conviction, more than once expressed, that a Railroad direct between Lakes Ontario and Huron, such as that proposed between Goderich and Wellington Square, would absorb the great bulk of traffic passing from the flourishing North-Western States and Territories on the one side, and Canada and the Eastern States on the other. The London and Gore Railroad cannot be considered as a rival to this, as it could never come successfully into competition with it for the transit or carrying trade we have alluded to. Both, however, will inconceivably benefit the districts through which they pass.

The Bathurst Courier states that the water in the River Tay is so low that a barge having no loading can scarcely float in it. The letting off of some of the mill-dams above, is proposed as a remedy.

The St. George steamer arrived yesterday afternoon at half-past four o'clock, with the barge Hesiome in tow. She experienced very rough weather on the way up. From our Correspondent's letter and the Quebec Gazette, received by this conveyance, we give the Parliamentary intelligence and ship news, up to Monday evening.

The weather was disagreeably cold yesterday. There was a very slight snow shower.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY,
MONDAY, Sept. 26.

The business of the House this morning was transacted in the space of ten minutes. The messengers waited on His Excellency today; His Excellency appointed tomorrow, at two, for the reception of the House, with their Address.

I send you a copy of the proposed Address of the Council—to be taken into consideration tomorrow. There is some difference of opinion on the subject. DESBARATS and VIGER have another, which I have not been able to see.

ROUTINE BUSINESS.

MONDAY, Sept. 26.—10 o'clock. A. M.

On motion of Mr. Morin, a new Writ was ordered for the election of a Member for the County of Bonaventure, in the room of Edouard Thibaudeau, Esqr. deceased.

The Agent's Bill was read the second time, and committed for Wednesday next.

The order for the House in Committee on the State of the Province, and on the Legislative Council Reform Bill, was postponed till tomorrow.

Adjourned till tomorrow, at 10 o'clock, A. M.

Legislative Council.

To His Excellency the Right Honorable Archibald Earl of Gosford, Baron Worlingham of Beccles in the County of Suffolk, Captain General and Governor in Chief, in and over the Province of Lower Canada and Upper Canada, Vice Admiral of the same, and one of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, &c., &c. &c.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Legislative Council of Lower Canada, in Provincial Parliament assembled, beg leave to return our humble thanks for your speech from the Throne, and we conceive that the present state of the Province and the events which marked the close of the last Session of the Provincial Parliament fully justify your Excellency in having called us together at this unusual season of the year.

We participate in the general interest which must be produced by the answer of His Majesty to the Address of the House of Assembly on the state of the Province; and we shall receive with the attention due to the importance of the subject, the communication of the instructions under which your Excellency assumed the administration of the Government, as well as those addressed to your Excellency and to your colleagues in the Royal Commission, which the King has been pleased to command to be laid before the two branches of the Provincial Parliament.

We agree with your Excellency, that it is a principle too obvious to be denied, that the administration of the Government cannot be satisfactorily carried on, whilst the salaries of the public servants remain unpaid.

We deeply appreciate your Excellency's consideration for our personal convenience, in not wishing to cause a prolonged absence from our homes at this particular season of the year, by the recommendation of any other matters to our attention than those which your Excellency has specially mentioned in your Speech. We humbly join with your Excellency in the expression of our thankfulness to Divine Providence that the summer has passed away without any appearance of Epidemical Disease. And we are pleased to learn that your Excellency was gratified at the reception which you every where met with, in your recent visit to the different parts of the Province.

We congratulate your Excellency on the approbation which your conduct has obtained from His Majesty,—and we shall give all possible attention to the Documents which it is your Excellency's intention to transmit to us. The declaration of the great political principles which your Excellency gives us as the guide of your conduct, and the desire which you have expressed to promote the prosperity of the Country, ought to inspire a hope, that a mutual good understanding will be produced between the different Branches of the Legislature—the only means of advancing the public welfare.

BILLS OF EXCHANGE.—An act has just passed the British Parliament, which settles a disputed point in regard to Bills of Exchange in that country, and which ought, therefore, to be known to men of business generally. The point alluded to, is that respecting acceptors or referees for honour, in which no uniform practice existed, some houses presenting the bills as marked on the day when they became due, and others the day after. It is now declared, however, that it shall not be necessary to present such bills of exchange until the day following that on which they become due, and if the names of the acceptors or referees for honour shall be in any other place than that in which the bills shall be made payable, they need not be forwarded until the day succeeding that in which they become due. If the following day shall be either Sunday, Good Friday or Christmas-day, they need not be presented or forwarded until the day succeeding such day of non-business.—New York Journal of Commerce.
