THE SCENE OF FRANCE'S GREAT VICTORY

French troops in the trenches overlooking the plains of Champagne, over which they charged to victory.
Official photo by French army photographic service.

---

o for Quebec, where he intends tak- military course.

and Mrs. Guy Moore, and daugh- fancy, left Sunday for their home in cester (Mass.), after spending the few weeks with Mrs. Moore's moth- Mrs. W. Milner, Squire street.

s. T. A. MacDonald and her guest, MacDonald, of Bolestown (N. B.), the week end with Private T. A. Donald, at Halifax (N. S.)

rs. Joseph Dobson and Miss Lila on, are visiting in Chatham, at the of Mrs. A. W. Watters, Mr. Dob- sister.

ss Jo Oulton, of Dorchester and her Miss Marjorie Calkin, of St. John, in town on Friday and Saturday.

ter an illness of nine months, Miss na Crane passed away Wednesday at the residence of Colonel J. M. d, Middle Sackville. She is survived her father, Mr. James Crane, of ling (Mass.) Her mother died many s ago. Deceased was a very bright lovable girl and her early death at ge of twenty-one years comes as a k to her many friends.

he funeral service held on Saturday noon, was conducted by Dr. Bond, or of the Sackville Methodist church, ted by Dr. Borden and Rev. Mr. e. Appropriate music was rendered male quartette, composed of Messrs. bert M. Wood, R. Trites, C. G. Stead- and G. T. Morton. Interment took e in the Rural cemetery. The pall ers were Messrs. Murray Fawcett, Prescott, Abner Smith and W. es, of Nappan(N. S.)

ev. B. J. Porter, B. A., Mount Alli- 1898, who has been spending a few in town, left last Wednesday for ome in Parrsboro. For the past four ths Mr. Porter has been the efficient secretary for the Mount Allison tutions.

ev. H. W. Cann, was in Hillsboro, week, attending a meeting of the dist association for New Brunswick. iss Faith Henderson, of St. John, has rned to Mount Allison Ladies' Col- to resume her studies.

MONCTON

oncton, Sept. 30—Mrs. E. C. Rice her first reception since her mar- e on Thursday afternoon and was sted by her mother, Mrs. N. Steeves, Petitcodiac, and Mrs. J. A. McAnn. Rice wore a pretty gown of pale silk; Mrs. Steeves, black silk, and McAnn, old rose silk. The Misses y Weldon, Blanche O'Brien and rgie Ryan served and Mrs. George idson ushered. Mrs. F. W. S. Col- presided at the tea table and wore k velvet with overdress of lace. Mrs. on and Miss Frances Colpitts also sted, Little Miss Helen McAnn at- ed the door. The reception rooms most attractively decorated, the r scheme in the parlor being pink white and in the tea room yellow white, while the fireplaces were ed with flowers. Mrs. Rice received n on Friday afternoon.

dge and Mrs. Borden returned on ay evening from Dorchester, where had been spending the day with nds.

r. and Mrs. L. P. Stratton have re- ed from their wedding trip to Bos- and New York.

eutenant and Mrs. Atkinson are re- ng the congratulations of their nds on the arrival of a little daugh-

r. and Mrs. S. E. McKie and little chter have returned from Milton ., where they were spending a few s with friends.

rs. Scott (nee Miss Jean Robb), of nish (P. E. I.), is spending a little at her former home in the city, guest of her mother, Mrs. Robb.

rs. Alex. MacPherson has gone to n (Mass.) to spend a month with brother, Dr. MacPherson.

iss Hannah McDougall entertained wo tables of bridge on Friday after- , when Mrs. R. A. Borden was the ner of the prize, a hand-made hand- hief. The guests included Mrs. Par- of New York; Mrs. F. P. Gutelius, W. R. Devenish and mother, Mrs. Donald, Mrs. R. L. Botsford, Mrs. sdin and Mrs. R. A. Borden.

r. Alfred Leger has returned from liday trip to Boston and New York.

rs. H. A. Sleeth has returned from extended visit to her old home in ou county (N. S.)

ev. T. Porter Drumm has returned New Glasgow, where he addressed W. H. M. Society of the Presby- n church at its annual meeting.

he members of the local Red Cross ety are greatly pleased with the suc- of the play put on by Mr. Theodore and local talent on Thursday and day evenings at the Grand Opera se. The acting was good and the talties were of a most catchy and active kind, while the stage settings e beautiful. The whole performance ected great credit on all taking part. both evenings the house was packed Mr. Bird and his capable assistants rest assured of an equally warm come when they again appear before people of Moncton.

Mrs. R. Jefferson and Mrs. Willard shton have returned from Campbell- where they were the guests of Mrs. B. Price.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spear and Miss zel Spear have gone to Chatham, ere they intend to reside.

Miss Marion Bulmer is in Newcastle, guest of the Misses Williamson.

Mrs. Annie Cluston, of Newcastle, is guest of friends in the city.

Mrs. Owen McGinity, who has been guest of Mrs. J. A. Gilker at Camp- ton, has returned home.

Mrs. Abbie Hebert, of Shediac, is vis- g her sister, Mrs. H. Belliveau.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Brooks, of Mur- Harbor (P. E. I.), are visiting nds in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Marks and family e returned from Shediac Cape, where y have been spending the summer.

s Flo Newman, who spent the sum- with her sister, Mrs. Marks, has returned home.

Mrs. Powell and children have re- ned from Newcastle, where they have n spending a month with Mrs. S. A. bner.

Miss Elma Burns is in Campbellton, guest of her cousin, Miss Harriet derson.

Mrs. F. W. Emmerson is spending sev- weeks with relatives in Fredericton.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McWilliam and ily have returned from Shediac, re the have been spending the mer.

Mr. L. T. Joudry, of Campbellton, an- nces the engagement of his daughter, ce, to Mr. J. O. B. Steven, son of nel and Mrs. W. A. D. Steven, of city, the marriage to take place early month.

Mr. J. E. McCoy, of New York, is nding his vacation at his home in the

Mrs. S. L. Shannon has gone to Mont- to join her husband, who is re- ning from Winnipeg.

Mr. R. E. Perry spent Sunday with family at Quebec.

ev. J. L. Batty, formerly pastor of tral Methodist church but now of nipeg, arrived in the city Saturday route to Halifax. During his brief in the city, Mr. Batty met many friends who were delighted to see him and to know he finds the work so congenial in his western home.

Lieutenant F. H. Tingley has gone to New York to take special treatment from the physicians there.

Miss Jean Blakeney is visiting friends at Amherst.

Private Bliss Smith of the heavy artillery, Charlottetown, is spending a few days' leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Smith.

Mr. Roy Ackman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ackman, has returned from Montreal, where he was undergoing special treatment at the Royal Victoria Hospital.

Mr. A. E. Taylor, manager of the ank of Montreal at Chatham, spent Saturday with friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ferguson have returned from Fredericton, where they were attending the exhibition.

Mrs. J. G. Fraser and little daughter have gone to Boston to visit Mrs. Fraser's sister, Mrs. C. M. Borden.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place Monday morning at 8 o'clock, at L'Assomption church, when Miss Eva Lirette became the bride of Mr. Albert Richard, of this city. A large number of friends were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Henry Cormier, pastor of the church. The bride wore her traveling costume of navy blue cloth with black hat and carried a white prayer book. At the conclusion of the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Richard left for St. John to spend a few days and on their return will reside in the city. The young couple received many beautiful gifts from friends in the city and elsewhere.

Mrs. J. J. Kennedy has returned from a trip to Petitcodiac and St. John.

Dr. H. S. Thomson is spending a few days in St. John.

Mr. E. L. Day was kindly remembered by the members of the Delphian Club prior to leaving for Woodstock. At a meeting of the club, the president, Mr. F. P. Forbes, presented Mr. Day with a diamond stick pin as an appreciation of his services to the club. Following the presentation an oyster supper was served and a good time generally enjoyed by the members present.

Miss Etta Taylor spent the week-end with her grandmother, Ms. R. M. Stevens, and returned to her home in Sackville on Monday.

Mrs. H. S. Bell has returned from P. E. Island, where she was attending the exhibition.

Mrs. Kate Craig, of Ogunquit (Me.), is the guest of Mrs. Sears.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Russell, of Hopewell (N. B.), are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John Russell.

Miss Lottie Brown has returned from Charlottetown, where she was attending the exhibition.

Lieutenant and Mrs. N. C. McKay, of Campbellton, are spending the week with friends in the city.

Mrs. Wilson Bell and daughter, Miss Doris, spent the week-end in Shediac, the guest of Mrs. D. S. Harper.

Messrs. Robert Dysart, of Boston, and Arthur Dysart, of Winnipeg, who have been visiting their old home in Cocagne, were in the city Monday.

Miss Laura Stultz has returned from a two week's holiday trip to Boston and Malden (Mass.)

Mr. John H. Brown, the well known local jeweler, who was married yesterday in Pictou to Miss Winnifred Grattan, of that town, was presented with a handsome piece of furniture by the junior members of the Knights of Columbus. Hon. F. J. Sweeney, K. C., made the presentation at Mr. Brown's home on Monday evening.

Miss Hazel Edgett, who has been visiting in the city, has returned to her home in St. John, accompanied by her friend, Miss Winnifred Lockhart, who will be her guest for a few days.

Mrs. Theal, of Shediac, is spending a few weeks in the city the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bell.

Mrs. A. S. Rogers, wife of Rev. Mr. Rogers and little son, of Halifax, are the guests of Mrs. Rogers' parents, Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Rice. The Rev. J. M. and Mrs. Rice, of Sumerside, were also recent guests of Rev. S. H. and Mrs. Rice.

Mrs. M. S. Trider and Miss Winnifred Trider have returned from Amherst, where they have been visiting friends.

Miss Jean Fitzpatrick, of Port Elgin, is spending a week at the Wesley Memorial parsonage, the guest of her brother, P. A. Fitzpatrick and Mrs. Fitzpatrick.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wood, of Chatham, are the guests of Mr. Wood's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wood, and will be in the city for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Forbes and Mr. and Mrs. George Proud have returned from an auto trip to different points in New Brunswick.

Miss Katherine Delay has returned from Boston, where she has been spending her vacation.

Miss Nora McLeod, of Albert, is the guest of friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Peck and the Misses Bertha and Gertrude Peck, of Albert, spent part of