ENGLAND AND ONTARIO.

FIRST DAY OF THE INTERNATIONAL CRICKET MATCH.

The Canadians Compelled to Follow on—Toronto's Burlesque Baseball Team—Utica Again Takes Into Camp by Rochester—Racing at Prospect Park.

Great hopes were expressed that the Englishmen would have more than their match in the Ontario team, but they have been rudely scattered to the winds. The wicket was a poor one, but the cricket, such as was noticeable, was very good, but one Ontario man—Harley—shone brighter than any one. At 11.45 the Englishmen, having won the toss, elected to take the bat, sending in Bainbridge and Hine-Haycock to the bowling of Gillespie and Ferrie. Gillespie delivered the first ball to Bainbridge, which resulted in a maiden, as also did Ferrie's. Bainbridge cut Gillespie's second ball nicely for a couple. In Ferrie's second over with his first ball he clean bowled Hine-Haycock. (1 for 2.) Key then faced Ferrie, and in Gillespie's third over he clean bowled the Cambridge captain for two. (2 for 2.) Turner then joined Key, and he drove Gillespie to the on for a single. In Ferrie's next over he sent him to leg for three. In Gillespie's following over Turner sent him for a couple, which only ought to have been one had it been properly fielded. Ferrie then sent down a maiden. In the next over of Gillespie Turner gave a very hot chance to Guthrie at mid off, who just touched it with his right hand, and resulted in three runs. The next over of Ferrie's resulted in two singles being made. In following over of Gillespie, Key tried to hit him and was easily caught in the long field by Hamilton, (3 for 13). Roller (the captain) was the next man in. Turner then drove the Hamiltonian for a single. In Gillespies next over Roller gave a chance to Allan high up at mid off which was not accepted. Ferrie then sent down a maiden. Off Gillespie's second ball Turner was finely caught by Hamilton in the long field for 11 (4 for 15). Cobb then joined Roller. In Ferrie's next over Cobb put Ferrie to leg for 2, with his next ball he put him nicely to square leg for the same amount. In Ferrie's following over Cobb put him away nicely for a couple. Gillespie's first ball Roller hit for two and served him the same trick with his last ball for a like amount. Cobb then hit Ferrie's first ball to the ropes finely for four. Cobb in Gillespie's over got him to leg nicely for two. Ferrie was now replaced by Simpson (very fast round arm) who sent Roller to maiden over to Roller. In the next over Cobb just escaped being caught and bowled by Gillespie; Simpson then sent down a second maiden over; in Gillespie's next over Cobb sent him finely for 3. Simpson then sent down a third maiden over. Then Simpson, who had been bowling well, clean bowled Cobb with a shooter for 16. (5 for 35.) Buckland was Roller's next partner. In Gillespie's next over Roller was caught at point with one hand by Ferrie from a bumping one (6 for 39). The Parson then joined Buckland. In Simpson's following over Buckland got a single Gillespie then sent down a maiden. In Simpson's next over he hit him to the on for a couple. In Simpson's next over Buckland placed him very prettily to the on for a couple. In Gillespie's next over the Parson hit him nicely to leg for a single, thanks to the fielding of the younger Allan. Buckland sent him to leg (boundary hit) for 4, and the next ball he sent the same bowler to the off for 2. Fortescue, in Simpson's following over, sent him prettily to leg for 4. A. C. Allan then took the ball from Gillespie. Buckland cut the last ball of his over for 2. Two runs was the result of Simpson's next over. In Allan's second over Buckland snicked him through the slips to the boundary for 4, and on his third ball sent him to the off for 2, and on the very next ball he was nearly caught by Guthrie at mid off. Ferrie now relieved Simpson, and he sent down a maiden over. With Allan's first ball of his next over Buckland hit a full pitch of his to the off for 4. Gillespie now took the ball from Allan. Buckland hit his first ball to the on for a couple, who with the second ball of the over he placed to leg to the boundary for 4. The third ball he snicked him through the slips to the boundary for a like amount. Gillespie's over had for a result 11 runs. Ferrie then sent down a maiden. In Gillespie's next over he was driven nicely for 3. Wilson now replaced Ferrie and the latter was put on at the other end. Wilson's first over brought in 2 runs and 2 byes and in Wilson's second over Buckland hit him splendidly to the boundary for 4. In Ferrie's next over Fortescue sent him to leg for a single, which was well picked up by the younger Allan and in Wilson's third over Fortescue sent him to the boundary two successive balls for 4 each. In Ferrie's next over the Parson hit him to leg for four and the next ball he hit him to the on for three. Simpson replaced Wilson, who had been punished very badly. The result of the over was only 1 run. In Ferrie's next over Buckland hit him finely for 3. Harley (fast round arm) took the ball from Ferrie, and his over resulted in a maiden. In Simpson's next over Buckland hit him to the boundary for 4, which only ought to have been 1, owing to a bad piece of fielding on the part of Ferrie. The very next ball he was easily taken at the wicket by Vickers for 6 grand innings of 54, which included 6 fours, 3 threes, 5 couples and 8 singles, for which he was was loudly applauded, (7 for 111). Cottrell then partnered Fortescue. In Simpson's next over Fortescue hit him for two and the next battle he sent to the boundary for 4. Ferrie now took the ball from Simpson, the first ball Fortescue sent him to leg for a single and his third ball Cottrell hit to the on for 3, and Fortescue placed his next ball nicely to leg for a single. Harley then bowled a maiden, as also did Ferrie in his next. Another maiden was the result of Harley's next over. The first ball of Ferrie's next over Cottrell hit him finely to the boundary for four. In Harley over Cottrell in trying to hit one of his was easily taken at mid off by Guthrie (8 for 126. Gillespie commenced the bowling from the north end with a maiden and in Harley's over Fortescue got a single and Rotherham made a single on the last ball of the over. Then Gillespie bowled a maiden. Harley's over was good for a single. Gillespie then bowled a maiden. Rotherham got a single off the next over. Two overs later on Fortescue drove Gillespie grandly to the on for four and the next ball resulted in a single, Ferrie replaced Harley and his first ball Fortescue drove to the off for a couple. Two byes were the result of this first ball. Then Rotherham was caught by Guthrie off Ferrie at mid off. (9 for 153)—Welman brought up the rear—then Fortescue drove Gillespie grandly to the on for four, and the next ball he served him likewise. Wilson now went on in the place of Ferrie, at the south end and Welman cut him for three. Objections were raised against Ferrie bowling again and the English captain was sustained. He had been changed from end to end beyond the limit prescribed by the regulations. Simpson was tried again. Fortescue got 3 through a bad piece of fielding by Harley off Simpson. Wilson finely bowled Welman when the score was at 169. Fortescue's innings was faultless and comprised 7 fours, 2 threes, 3 twos and 13 singles. His total score was 58. The fielding of the Ontarians was very fair but could be improved upon.

The Ontario innings was commenced a few minutes before 4. Harley played a grand innings, hitting the bowlers in great style. He got 40 of the 47 scored whilst he was in. M. Hamilton did excellent service, playing very patiently for his 13 runs. The total was 72. Welman's wicket-keeping was truly magnificent. This necessitates a follow on to-day. A new match will be started on the conclusion of the present one.

Burlesque Baseball.

"Leaders of the league, were they!" said a stranger at the baseball match yesterday, referring to the Torontos. "I was here," he added, last year when you were roasting Harry Spence, but he never gave such an exhibition as that." "That's all right," was the reply, "but this team can play ball if they like." "Then why don't they? The management must surely be lax." The reporter didn't say another word, but his thoughts spoke volumes to himself. The fact is the Toronto Baseball Club has been mismanaged almost from the start. A good team was got together at the commencement but license not liberty killed it. The result is seen to-day. From bad they have gone to worse, until it is doubtful if any paid team with any pretence to play could have done so badly as they did yesterday. It is easily understood that a team can have one or two off days, but when it comes to a third and fourth if the club is composed of good men and true they will put their teeth together and try to wipe out the stain of what has gone before. Not so the Torontos. They have gone from bad to worse, until to-day, if the truth must be told, the name they bear has become a byword and the game little better than a jest. As The World said yesterday, if the shareholders of the Toronto Baseball Association are satisfied the public should be, in so far as nobody is compelled to make the pilgrimage over the Don. It is, however, a great pity that when the prospects at the start were so bright the ending should be so dismal. But so it is, and the wilful blindness of the management is alone to blame. Saturday's game was bad, Monday's was worse, and yesterday's was simply disgraceful. Emslie's pitching was undoubtedly miserable, but his support in the field was no better. Faatz and McGuckin alone coming through without errors. If the members of the team and the directorate are desirous of ruining baseball in this city the course they are pursuing, and have pursued for a month or two back, is well calculated to effect their object. Yesterday's game was entirely devoid of interest, being from the beginning in the hands of a team that instead of winning should have been beaten out of sight, taking reputation and past performances as the criterion.

And Toronto Could Beat Rochester.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—At Rochester the Rochesters tied the lead with Utica in an errorless game. Sorad was hit effectively in the fifth, when, by botched hits and one error, six runs were scored. The visitors scored in the last inning on hits by T. Griffin and Hengle and M. Griffin. The home club played perfect ball. Attendance 4000.

Fair Balls.

Don't forget the Smith benefit game to-day.

Wonder who was fined for rank play yesterday.

The terms of suspension are past, but the black list still prevails.

The black mascot was bad enough, but the influence of the white is far worse and more direct.

When the Binghamtons visited here in June they were sport for the Torontos. Yesterday the Torontos were sport for them. Thus wags the world.

James McKinley has been reinstated by the New England League and signed by the Torontos. He will probably pitch to-morrow against the Guelph Maple Leafs.

A game will be played on the Toronto baseball grounds Saturday, Sept. 11th, between John Richardson & Co., leaders of the Commercial League, and Knox, Morgan & Co., champions of Hamilton.

When Dave Sullivan, the Binghamton manager, was at Bradford, Pa., a week or two ago he was offered $300 to throw the game. His answer was a lesson in ball, such as his team administered to the Torontos yesterday.

A bricklayer came into The World office yesterday to give information about a coming baseball match. "It will be," said he, "no such game as you saw to-day. We couldn't play ranker, and I'll give you a pointer on that."

G. G. C., Chicago—You lose your bet. It is comforting to Torontonians just now to know that not one of the league balls from Toronto and that Humphries, Faatz, Emslie, Morrison and honest old Charley Maddocks are the only signed Canadians.

Hanlan in Town.

Edward Hanlan, bronzed and strong, called in The World office last night. He said he was hail and hearty and had accomplished his purpose in going away from home. He had thoroughly regained his health, had proved himself a minute faster in three miles than he ever was before in his life and had secured freedom from worry. This (Wednesday) afternoon he starts for New York on his way to England, where he will try hard to get on a race with Beach. He did not go over earlier in the season because he was not fit to go and desired to give his legion of admirers there a race for their money. He was now in prime condition. He weighed 170 pounds, and would row at 158 pounds, having found that with increasing years to preserve his strength he must increase his weight. His backer, Mr. Peter Duryea, had offered Beach every inducement to come to America but he declined. Only yesterday he (Hanlan) received the following telegram:

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.

EDWARD HANLAN, Toronto: Beach refuses to row for $10,000 offered by me. Will row you only in Australia.

P. DURYEA.

"Beach," said Hanlan, "is a coward. He won't take big money and come and announces that if I go to England it will be no avail, as he will only row me on the Paramatta in Australia. I was a fool, I know, to peddle the championship from door to door until I disposed of it, or rather was robbed of it. Yes, robbed of it. The steamer Tomki robbed me of the first race and as regards the second the climate and worry so enervated me that I was anything but myself. Further, Beach and his friends availed themselves of every advantage. They publicly said they would give me nothing and didn't. They named the course, date and hour. I had nothing to say. What I want now is a fair field and no favor and I will prove to the people of Canada they are wrong when they think my energies are spent. I want to row on the Tyne, as a better and clearer course can be got there. Barges, steamboats, and small boats make the Thames as undesirable for a race as Toronto Bay. But I will row Beach on any water in England for good money. By searching for a conqueror I found one. I am searching for another but under different circumstances and the man I seek says that having waited six months he will wait no longer. I waited seven months for him in his own country and was beaten. I found no favor and sought none. I seek none now, but if Beach is not a coward when I arrive in England he will hasten to row me. Anyhow I will get on some race there, you can depend on it."

Relative to his fast times made on Lake Quinsigamond, they were absolutely correct in every particular, and he had a number of affidavits to that effect. When he reached New York to-morrow he would have all the evidence complete.

James A. Ten Eyck, he said, would accompany him to England. "During the summer," Hanlan added, "I have spent $700 in boats, oars, etc., and was never better equipped than now. I will take a Davis, a Ruddock and a Hickle boat to England with me. To show how much stronger I am than formerly, I need only mention that I use seven-inch blades now. The old six-inch blades would snap in my hands like pipe stems."

Racing on Coney Island.

SHEEPSHEAD BAY, Sept. 7.—First race, ⅞ mile—Little Minch won, Princess second, Bay Rebel third; time 1.15. Second race, 1 mile—Becky B won, Shamrock second, Frank Ward third; time 1.44. Third race, ⅞ mile—Connemara won, Almy second, Fenelon third; time 1.34. Fourth race, 1½ miles—Jim Douglass won, Una B second, Elgin third; time 1.55¼. Fifth race, 1⅛ miles—Lucky B won, Exile second, Louisette third; time 2.00. Sixth race, 1½ miles on the turf, Verona won, Elizabeth second, Ernest third; time 1.58¼.

General Notes.

The Grand Circuit trotting meeting opened at Springfield, Mass., yesterday. Lady Whitefoot won the 2.33 trot; best time 2.26. Charles Hilton captured the 2.21 race in three straight; best time 2.22¼.

The three days' regatta at Erie, Pa., opened yesterday at Massassauga Point with flattering prospects. A three miles single clinker race was won by John Roth of Buffalo, who defeated W. J. Noonan of Buffalo; time 26.48. The four-oared race between the Queen City and West End crews of Buffalo was won by the former by thirty lengths; time 18.30.

The New York Yacht Club has decided to accept the offer made by a number of prominent citizens of New York to provide a handsome cup for a race off that city in which the Galatea will be invited to take part. The cup will be an absolute gift to the winner. There has been no discussion as to the advisability of accepting the challenge for a race to Bermuda and return with the Galatea.

The Victoria Football Club will resume their fall practice every Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, at 6 a.m. sharp, on the Jarvis-street lacrosse grounds, commencing Friday morning, September 10. As arrangements for a number of first-class matches are now under way, a good attendance is requested at every practice.

Amusement Briefs.

"Nancy & Co." has taken the comedy-loving people of Toronto by storm. A large audience enjoyed the play at the Grand last night. It is brimful of fun and amusing situations.

Gus Williams gave a change of bill at the Toronto last night, appearing in "Oh! What a Night." His German dialect, drolleries and humor, to say nothing of his songs, constitute an enjoyable entertainment, in which he is well assisted by his company. "Oh! What a Night" is the bill for this afternoon's matinee, and "One of the Finest" for to-night. "Wages of Sin" by Charles Maubury's company next week.

The Templeton opera singers repeated Gilbert & Sullivan's "Dream," a clever composition by Mr. J. W. Bengough at the Gardens last night. The "Mikado" is announced for the balance of the week.

The Kennedys delighted another large audience at Shaftesbury Hall last night. If anyone wishes to know and hear the pith and humor of Scottish song they should attend one of the talented family's entertainments.

Performances of "Uncle Josh" are given by R. H. Baird's company at the Yonge-street Opera House every afternoon and night.

A Conservatory of Music for Toronto.

Toronto will soon be able to count among her educational institutions a conservatory of music, established on a broad scale, with a solid financial basis, and starting out with the determination to keep abreast with the times in every respect. The proposed conservatory is to have a joint-stock capital of $50,000, nearly one half of which is already subscribed through the efforts of Mr. Edward Fisher, conductor of the Toronto Choral Society. It goes into active operation one year from this time, the interim being occupied in perfecting details, such as leasing of building, fitting up suitable premises, selecting the staff of teachers, issuing prospectus, etc. The conservatory will embrace the following departments of instruction: Pianoforte, organ, voice, violin, orchestral instruments, military band instruments, orchestral and ensemble playing, church music and oratorio, sight singing and oratorio practice, tonic sol-fa method, musical theory, harmony, counterpoint and composition, elocution and dramatic action, languages, especially Italian, German and French, history and literature of music. There will be both amateur and professional courses of instruction, and diplomas will be granted to pupils on passing a satisfactory examination at the completion of their studies. Considering the fact that no such educational institution now exists in Canada, it is highly probable that Mr. Fisher's project will be heartily supported.

The balance of our stock of last season's straw and felt hats, worth from $1.25 to $2.75, selling now at 75 cents at Petley's. 123

Toronto Presbytery Affairs.

The Toronto Presbytery yesterday elected Rev. Peter Nicol moderator for the ensuing term. Rev. R. P. McKay reported moderating in a call from the congregation of Knox Church Scarboro, in favor of Rev. John McKay, probationer. The call was sustained, and Rev. Mr. McKay declared his acceptance of it. His ordination and induction were fixed for October 14. Rev. Dr. Reid read a letter from Rev. T. G. Thompson of Vancouver, B.C., telling of the loss of his books and furniture by the recent fire. Dr. Reid said he would gladly receive contributions for Mr. Thompson. Rev. James Cumberland, Kingston, introduced a scheme for restoring the old church of Rev. Robert McDowall, on the Bay of Quinte. Mr. McDowall was the pioneer Presbyterian minister in Upper Canada and his church, which was now almost in ruins, was about the first erected in this province. Its restoration as a memorial to Rev. Robert McDowall, and as a place of worship, would cost $1200. The Presbytery passed a resolution commending the scheme to the churches of the Presbytery for their support. A portion of the requisite amount has already been received. Permission was given the session of the College-street Church to establish a Sabbath school and mission in Seaton Village.

Nobby felt hats in all the newest shapes, worth from $1.50 to $3.50, selling at $1, $1.50, $2 and $2.50 at Petley's. 123

The Loyalist Delegates.

A large meeting of the Loyal and Patriotic Union of Toronto was held last evening in the Arcade to complete arrangements for the reception of the loyalist deputation, Rev. Dr. Kaneof Belfast and G. Hill Smith of Armagh, who will reach the city from Montreal by to-night's train, and who will address a mass meeting of loyalists in Mutual-street Rink to-morrow night. The delegates will be the guests of the local committee. On Friday and Saturday they will be escorted to places of interest in and about Toronto. It is expected that the Rev. Dr. Kane will occupy the pulpit of St. James' Cathedral Sunday next. The delegates will address a mass meeting in Hamilton on Monday night.

Dominion Organ and Piano Company.

The exhibit of this company is now all safely housed in their Pavilion. Visitors to the grounds yesterday were attracted more by this company's display than any other feature of the Exhibition. Several gentlemen, who had just returned from London, England, were emphatic in their praises, stating that this display of pianos and organs far surpasses anything of the kind at the Intercolonial Exhibition. One piano, made of Brazilian THUYA wood, particularly attracted our attention. Their fancy wood pianos taken altogether we believe will prove to be the most attractive feature of the entire Exhibition. x

Card of Thanks to our Patrons.

GENTLEMEN,—Now that our busy season is over, we are able to review with pleasure the success we have had in our endeavor to meet with your approval. We have also to thank you for your kind consideration of the difficulties we were surrounded with. We hope by the way we have tried to meet your every want that you will have confidence in the Reliable Tailors, Gibson & Coulter. Anticipating your taste we have bought a large and well assorted stock of fall and winter Overcoatings, also Trouserings in all shades and designs, to suit each and every one. Our stock will be second to none in Toronto, and being bought at very close prices we will be able to sell at small margins. In closing we will again tender you our thanks, hoping that we will meet again.

Your Obedient Servants,

WALKER

STILL WITH US.

He Rises to Remark

"Now, by my Halidom," quoth Walker
"As sure as eggs are eggs,
At these hard times I'll have a whack
And lower down the pegs.
I'll hang no circus posters out,
I'll never beat a drum,
But folks shall know what I'm about—
Its prices makes things hum.
"Here, Julius Cæsar Ponto Brown,
Just sharpen up my ax;
Once more I'll cut the figures down,
My folks can't stand the tax;
The times are hard—the workingman
Can comforts ill afford,
But give him my instalment plan
He will not need to board.
Amazement well may pale each cheek,
Will may all dealers groan,
For such small payments week by week
Before were never known.
The long, long busy day is done,
Night's curtain settles down,
Walker's beacons flame up one by one,
His prices rouse the town.
Men, women, children—how they flock
To this marvellous sale;
Walker never had so large a stock—
But prices tell the tale.
And who is there so foolish still
To board out daily pay,
When weekly, if you pay the bill,
You get so nice a home.

Who, indeed! Surely all people yearn for a home of their own, from the cradle to the grave. This one want animates alike rich and poor. The rich can buy a home when they please, and so can the poorest man or woman with weekly instalments by going to
