Fishing Permits.

With a view to the more efficient protection of game fish, and the prevention of abuses by foreigners angling in the inland waters of the Dominion of Canada, the following fishery regulations have been adopted:

1. No person other than a British subject, shall angle for, fish or take any bass, maskinonge, pike, perch (pickerel) or trout in Canadian waters, without having first obtained therefor an angler's permit, issued by the local fishery officer in each district under the authority of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

2. Each person, not a British subject, shall pay for such angler's permit a fee of $5, for a period of three months, or a fee of $10 for a period of six months.

3. One angler's permit only shall be issued to each applicant. Such permit shall not be transferable, and can be legally used only by the person whose name appears thereon. Each holder of an angler's permit shall be required to produce and exhibit hispermit when called upon to do so by any fishery officer.

4. No person shall use, under an angler's permit, more than one fishing line, provided with not more than three hooks.

5. No person shall, under an angler's permit, take, catch or kill in one day, more than twelve bass or pike, perch (pickerel), twenty trout or four maskinonge.

6. No bass or pike, perch (pickerel shall be retained or kept out of the water which shall measure less than ten inches in length, and no trout shall be retained or kept out of the water under six inches in length, but every person who takes or catches any of the fish mentioned, of a less size than the minimum measurement named, shall immediately return such undersized fish to the water from which they were taken, and shall, if possible, liberate such fish alive.

7. No person holding an angler's permit shall export, sell or offer for sale, any fish caught with hook and line.

8. Any person or persons violating any of the above regulations shall be liable to the fines and penalties provided by the "Fisheries Act," chap. 95 of the Revised Statutes of Canada.

9. Nothing in the regulations shall affect the rights of any person or persons holding leases of fishing rights from either Federal or Provincial authorities.

0. Foreigners, when temporarily domiciled in Canada, and employing Canadian boats and boatmen, shall be exempt from the regulations requiring permits.
