Putting on the Screws in N.Y. State.

ALBANY, N.Y., May 26.—Assemblyman Perkins' bill withdrawing the Percy Gray law exemption from personal liability of directors of racing associations for violations of the anti-gambling laws was passed by the senate to-day. The bill now goes to Gov. Hughes.

A similar bill by Senator Agnew had previously passed the senate, but has been held up in the committee on rules in the assembly, and in order to pass the Perkins' measure Senator Agnew had the senate rules suspended, and the senate codes committee discharged from further consideration of the bill.

The Agnew bill prohibiting the publication of betting odds on horse races is still in the committee on rules, and has little or no chance of passing.
