DOUBTLESS

Some day, Somebody, Somewhere, will make a better piano than what you can find in the warerooms of Gourlay, Winter & Leeming. Up to this year of grace, 1896, nobody has done so.

Gourlay, Winter & Leeming offer their pianos under no false pretences, but on their merits, under closest scrutiny. What everybody wants in a piano is an artistic case, a full, rich tone, responsive action and certainty as to durability and continuous satisfaction. All this and more Gourlay, Winter & Leeming offer, along with areasonable price and moderate terms.

OUR ADDRESS IS—
188 Yonge-st., Toronto.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN CANADA.

The Twenty-Second Annual Meeting Opened Last Evening in Toronto Under Gratifying Surroundings—Eloquent Deliverance in Central Church by the Retiring Moderator, Rev. Dr. Robertson—Rev. Dr. Gordon of Halifax the New Moderator.

There was a large attendance of ministers and a sufficient number of laymen and ladies to crowd the Central Presbyterian Church when the Presbyterian General Assembly convened last night. The retiring Moderator, Rev. Dr. Robertson of Winnipeg, conducted the services and delivered a powerful sermon on home missions, basing his remarks on this text:

"But ye shall receive power when the Holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be my witnesses, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea, and Samaria, and unto the uttermost parts of the earth."—Acts 1., 8

The Church's Charter.

The words of his text, the preacher said, formed the theme of which the Book of Acts was the expansion and illustration, and constituted the charter under which the church was instituted and extended. The Apostles were thus qualified and commissioned. Their field was the world—from Jerusalem to the uttermost parts of the earth. The church of every age and country was represented when the Apostles were commissioned, and the church's interest in the commission was not speculative nor historic, but practical and personal. The promise of the Father was to the church as well as to the Apostles.

It would seem that the first duty of Canada was to plant religious institutions among newcomers settling in the provinces. No such settlement was taking place in British Columbia, and, with her hands free, it seemed that she should devote herself to the evangelization of Africa, India and China, but the earth was not to be covered any the sooner by skipping Jerusalem and Judea.

The preacher referred to the numerous committees under which Presbyterian mission work in Canada was being done, and said it was by no means assured that in the multitude of counsellors was either wisdom, safety or economy. It was rather apt to breed anomalies in administration, inequalities in salary and overlapping in work. Appealing to the same constituency for funds, there was room for misunderstanding and even friction. This should not be. The committees, he thought, could be unified to advantage, and the day was coming, doubtless, when this would be done.

Subject of the Work.

Home Mission work, Dr. Robertson continued, was twofold—first, to help weak congregations and maintain ordinances; and, second, to care for new or neglected settlements. In some parts of Canada French and Germans were displacing English-speaking people, in others population was declining, and from all parts people were removing to the other side and western Canada. These changes must be watched if the church was not to lose her people. Canada was yet young and settlement was proceeding in almost every province. It was incumbent on the church to follow the new settlers with the Gospel.

Hitherto settlement had been disappointingly slow; the causes, in part at least, were artificial, and it was the business of statesmen to discover remedies. But better—far better—that the progress of settlement should be slow, and that the church should keep pace, than that settlement should outpace the church and spiritual and moral decay ensue. The west was the most important mission field.

The difficulties attending home mission work arose from several causes. The vast extent of the field, sparseness of population, and the presence of two or three denominations doing mission work, with the variety of nationality and language, were serious difficulties.

The Bane of Separate Schools.

The home missionaries of the church were preaching in seven different languages, and it was impossible to prevent some overlapping. The evils would, however, be gradually cured if the bane of Separate schools were not fastened on the west by outside interference. Foreigners loved their own language, but they were anxious to learn ours, and many of the rising generation would never know any other. The lack of suitable missionaries had also been a serious hindrance.

The necessity of prosecuting home mission work was evident. Settlements left without the Gospel soon showed signs of decay in spiritual life and moral tone. Several instances were given where lack of ordinances had resulted in sad defection from religion. West of the Kansas line only 7.3 of the adult males belonged to a Protestant church. This had induced a condition of things that render municipal government difficult and human life cheap. Last year 10,500 persons were murdered, and over 44,000 during the past seven years. Were homicides as frequent among us according to population Ontario last year would have had 300 and Toronto from 25 to 30.

To Save Canada.

If our country was to be saved from sinking into a similar condition it would be by cultivating the religious life of the people, not in select sections, but from ocean to ocean.

A number of instances of good results from mission work were given, the conclusion being drawn that the prospects for home mission work were most cheering; there was encouragement in the wide field with its promise of growth and people. The theatre was roomy and the outlook bright.

In closing, the preacher bore testimony to the valuable home mission work done by other denominations, the Methodist and the Anglican churches being especially mentioned as having been most active.

"Some of our sons," said the doctor, "will undoubtedly find a home on the frontier, as the problem of living for many in the cities is becoming more difficult of solution. Shall we not help to make their future place of residence clean and sober?

A Promising Field.

"If the object of mission work is to save souls here and hereafter, where is there a field that promises larger returns, if effectually worked, or that threatens more lamentable ruin if neglected, than this same frontier, where now so many religiously trained in youth are to be found?

"And if the church is to gather strength for work at home and abroad let her not neglect new settlements. In neglect not writ large over the whole of eastern Canada, from Cape North to Port Arthur? Do we need to write it once more over the fair west?

"And when the Chinese and Japanese come from across the sea they must not be obliged to search for a Christian with a lantern. The influence of our Christianity should be so clear and strong that he who runs may read. So we shall speed the day when the kingdoms of the East shall become the kingdoms of Our Lord and of His Christ.

"For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest until the righteousness thereof go forth as brightness and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth. And the Gentiles shall see Thy righteousness and all kings Thy glory."

The New Moderator.

In accordance with the report of the Nominating Committee, Rev. Dr. D. M. Gordon of Halifax, was elected to the Moderator's chair. The routine work of the Assembly will commence this morning in the Central Church, where committees will meet and public meetings will be held.

THE EVIDENCE ALL IN.

Counsel Will Complete the Accused's Defence This Morning

The evidence in the Hawkesworth-Griffin case was all in at 4.20 yesterday afternoon, and Mr. Smythe's address to the jury on behalf of Griffin and that of Mr. Dewart for the Crown finished when the court adjourned.

Daniel T. Ames, the New York expert on writing, testified that the entry of "W. J. Daken's" name on the Palmer House register, April 15, 1893, and the signatures of "S. Fawkes" and "W. J. Daken" to an agreement alleged to have been made on Feb. 28, 1893, were all in the handwriting of the prisoner Hawkesworth.

Mr. DuVernet for Hawkesworth will address the jury this morning.

The Wabash Railroad.

The Wabash Railway, with its superb and magnificent train service, is now acknowledged by travelers to be the most perfect railway system on this continent; all its cars are of the latest and best designs. New daily sleeping car line between Detroit, Indianapolis and Louisville, via the Wabash-Pennsylvania short line. Study our map and ask any ticket agent for folders and tickets of this great railway, or J. A. Richardson, Canadian Passenger Agent, northeast corner King and Yonge-streets, Toronto. 246

Music in the Parks.

By permission of Lieut.-Col. Mason and officers the Royal Grenadiers Band, under the direction of Mr. Waldron, will play the following program at Clarence-square this evening, from 8 to 10: March, "Our Leader," Ashton; valse, "Salvadora," Gomez; selection, "Lucrezia Borgia," Donizetti; barn dance, "Salute My Bicycle," Le Brun; overture, "Zampa," Herold; piccolo solo, "The Humming Bird" (Mr. Pratt), Damare; popular fantasia, "Odds and Ends," J. Waldron; mazurka elegante, "Marianka," A. W. Hughes; polka, "Gentleman Joe," Finck.

Weekly Trips to Rochester.

On Saturday next, June 13th, the Str. Empress of India will commence her regular Saturday night trips to Rochester, leaving Geddes' Wharf at 11 p.m.

These trips have become so well known that it is not necessary to draw attention to them, beyond saying that increased accommodation is being provided on steamer and that nothing will be left undone to make these trips even more popular than before.

At Charlotte the Empress connects with the fine Str. Alexandria for all points on Bay of Quinte and River St. Lawrence, to Montreal.

Through tickets to all these points may be obtained from the Empress' Agents and at head office on wharf.

This is a delightful trip for those visiting Montreal or Eastern points.

Jim Metcalfe Gets His Job.

Kingston, June 10.—James H. Metcalfe, ex-M.P., received this morning the official document appointing him warden of Kingston Penitentiary. The new warden will assume office immediately. His salary will be $2000.

GOLDWIN SMITH'S DEGREE

THE PROPOSAL HAS EXCITED SPIRITED ACTION.

The Petition of Eleven Graduates of Toronto University—Reasons Why They Protest Against the Proposal—What Members of the Senate Say on the Question—Some Pertinent Letters.

The following petition was prepared and signed on the afternoon of Monday last, when it became known that the Senate of the University of Toronto was to meet that evening, and to state further that there was no time to give other graduates an opportunity of signing it:

"To the Honorable the Senate of the University of Toronto:

"The petition of the undersigned graduates of the University of Toronto respectfully showeth:

"1. Your petitioners are graduates of the University and take deep interest in its welfare and position as a great national university, the fame of which has spread through the educational world, as was shown by the interest taken and the substantial assistance rendered at the time when not long since the University was overtaken by a great calamity.

"2. Your petitioners are informed that it is intended by your honorable body to confer upon Mr. Goldwin Smith of the city of Toronto the degree of LL.D., pro honoris causa.

"3. Your petitioners are aware that, so far as educational attainments are concerned, no person could be better entitled to that honor than Mr. Goldwin Smith, who, in his earlier years, received from the universities of the older countries such honors that the addition of this, if it were considered as merely an academic degree, could hardly be deemed a matter of moment to him.

"4. Your petitioners submit that this degree is not regarded by the world as purely academic, but rather as the recognition of great public service rendered the State, or of the very high regard in which the recipient is held by the community at large.

"5. Mr. Smith is one who, as president of the society known as the 'Continental Union Society,' and otherwise has busied himself for many years to bring about such a state of opinion, as would, if effectual, inevitably result in the severance of Canada from the rest of the British Empire.

"6. Owing to the short notice your petitioners have received of the intention of the Senate, it has not been possible, as your petitioners would have desired to summon a meeting of convocation, or to circulate this petition, which would, your petitioners doubt not, have been widely signed, and the time allowed, but your petitioners trust and believe that your honorable body will find in this petition sufficient ground for altering its intention."

June 8, 1896.

(Signed), Nicol Kingsmill, H. A. Reesor, John T. Small, John A. Paterson, Henry J. Wright, A. C. Galt, R. E. Kingsford, M.A., LL.B., C. A. Moss, Thomas C. Patteson, Edmund Bristol, T. D. Delamere.

Has Dr Smith Read It?

Editor World: I desire in a few lines to say that the conferring a degree on this gentleman is practically endorsing his writings and his opinions on Canada and the Empire. Now, sir, no writer, in my opinion, has so persistently and without foundation belittled Canada and the Empire. Nay, more than that, he has uttered principles which, if written in other days and under other circumstances, might have cost him his imprisonment for high treason. If he will take my advice, which is contained in my poem, "Alexandrina," he will go back to his Harvard school and there preach his opinions. If, after he has read "Alexandrina," he does not do so the people of Canada will rise en masse and escort him over the border. In relation to "Alexandrina" I might say it is a historical poem on the reign of Queen Victoria, dealing also with Canada and the public and literary men of Canada, Goldwin Smith among the number. It will shortly be placed in the publishers' hands, and Mr. Goldwin Smith can then answer the matters contained concerning himself. J. CREIGHTON.

Short on Loyalty.

Editor World: I noticed a few days since in your columns a letter from Mr. David Blain on the subject of the honorary degree of LL.D. conferred on the most eminent scholar in Canada, Mr. Goldwin Smith. The letter struck me at the time as one of the smallest and most bigoted acts ever brought to my notice, but it did not occur to me that it was worthy of remark. I find, however, in this morning's paper a letter of the same calibre from no less a person than Mr. Justice Falconbridge, which, coming from such a high source, prompts me as a native-born Canadian of the "Canada first" persuasion and of unmixed English descent, to ask, is it not time to seriously consider a change in the method of appointing our High Court Judges and the adoption of some system whereby the bench, at least, may be kept free of the taint of 16th century bigotry, intolerance and jingoism?

W. THOMAS NEWMAN.

What Senate Members Say.

Principal Galbraith of the School of Practical Science refused to make any statement regarding the degree.

Rev. Father Ryan said he approved of the degree being conferred. He thought the Senate considered Goldwin Smith as a man of letters and not in the light of his political views. As to the action of Judge Falconbridge and Col. Denison, Father Ryan would say nothing.

Mr. Justice Maclennan observed: "I most cordially concurred in the conferring of the degree."

Asked if he had anything to say regarding the action of Mr. Justice Falconbridge, Col. Denison and others, he said: "No; these gentlemen are entitled to hold their own opinions."

Conferred as a Scholar.

Prof. Hume did not think the Senate, when it conferred the degree on Dr. Smith, took into consideration his religious or political views. Although it was doubtful whether there were many who agreed with Dr. Smith's political views, still, as the honors were conferred on account of his being such a distinguished scholar, these other issues should not be brought in.

Prof. McCallum declined to express any opinion on the subject. He thought under present circumstances and in his position a man would be a fool to do so.

Charles Moss, Q.C., said that as Judge Falconbridge is his brother-in-law he must be excused from expressing any opinion on the question or the letters of the Judge and Police Magistrate.

Father Guinane would uphold the action of the Senate, though he thought it best to avoid any appearance of political leaning in a university body.

Father Teefy said he was an old schoolmate of Judge Falconbridge and preferred not expressing any opinion.

General Manager Walker.

Mr. B. E. Walker said he was strongly opposed to the introduction of politics into the question, and was surprised and ashamed to think that such an unreasonable objection had been raised against so generous and inoffensive a citizen. The professor was looked upon by the world as the foremost literary man of America, whose historical works, and the translations of the classics, had won him a lasting name.

Drs. Cameron and Wright were interviewed, but declined to commit themselves.

"I was not at the meeting of the senate when the protests were received," said Mr. J. M. Clark, who represents the LL.B.'s. "I am thoroughly opposed to Goldwin Smith on political issues, particularly on the question of Canada's future, but my view is that such a body as the University senate should not take cognizance of a man's political opinions."

UNIVERSITY RETURNS.

CHASING "DR." JEBB.

The Oculist is a Graduate of Toronto University, But Mr. Wasson Objects

Kingston, June 10.—Two charges of infraction of the Ontario Medical Act were preferred at the Police Court by James McLaughlin to-day against J. B. Jebb, accused of practising medicine without possessing the requisite legal qualification and with using the title "Dr." without having the right to do so. Mr. Whiting asked for an adjournment till Monday to secure the attendance of Detective Wasson of the Medical Council, under whom McLaughlin is acting. Mr. Shaw said his client was compelled to leave town tonight. Similar charges were brought against him and failed at Barrie and other places. An adjournment was granted. Dr. Jebb is a graduate of Toronto University.

I.O.F. Outing.

On Friday, the 19th inst., the Independent Order of Foresters will have a grand re-union at Foresters' Island Park, on an island in the Bay of Quinte, owned by Dr. Oronhyatekha, the Supreme Chief Ranger, opposite Deseronto. The features of the day will be speeches, picnic, regatta and games. Members of the order in all the cities and towns within a radius of 50 miles of Deseronto have arranged excursions on that day, and, besides, special excursions have been arranged for by the American members in the cities of Rochester, Oswego, Watertown, Clayton, etc., so that beyond doubt there will be an immense gathering of Foresters. Many distinguished members of the order will be present. Mr. Edward Hanlan, the champion oarsman, will referee the aquatic sports, and he and Mr. James Rice, also of Toronto, will row a race or one and a half miles for $200.

On Sunday, the 21st, at the Island, Rev. W. J. McCaughan of Belfast, Ireland, will preach, as will the Venerable Archdeacon Davis of London, one preaching in the forenoon and the other in the afternoon.

A special fast excursion train will leave the Union Station by Grand Trunk Railway at 12.05 noon Friday, arriving at Deseronto in time for the excursionists to take part in the demonstration. Fare for the round trip $1.75. Children under 12 years, 80c. Tickets good to return on any regular train up to and including Monday, the 22nd. Hotel accommodation on the island and at Deseronto.

W.C.T.U. at the Conference.

Mrs. Rutherford, President of the Dominion W.C.T.U., and members of the District Union will speak at the Toronto Methodist Conference this evening in Trinity Methodist Church. Special music by the choir of the church, a solo by Miss Clara Rothwell and White Ribbon Music will enliven the proceedings.

The Liberal Meeting.

Sir Richard Cartwright arrived in the city at a late hour last night, and an effort will be made to secure him to speak at Mr. Laurier's meeting. Another possible speaker to-morrow night is Mr. William Paterson of Brant. The committee on speakers has not yet, however, settled its program, and one or two of the party leaders will be secured if they can cancel engagements already made.

AYER'S PILLS

"Having been subject, for years, to constipation, without being able to find much relief, I at last tried Ayer's Pills, and testify that I have derived great benefit from their use. For over two years past I have taken one of these pills every night."—G. W. Bowman, 26 East Main St., Carlisle, Pa.

CURE CONSTIPATION.

GATHERED UP IN HAMILTON.

An Indian Run Down and Killed by a Train—What is the Mysterious Priest Doing?—General Gossip.

Hamilton, June 10.—(Special.)—This morning the engineer on the newspaper train arriving here at 6.30 found the body of an Indian lying on the track. He brought the body to the city, and at noon it was identified as Charles Silversmith, who had been employed to pick strawberries by Thomas Lemmon at Waterdown. He left the farm yesterday afternoon without saying where he was going. At the Hospital a gash on the back of the head and several bruises were discovered, indicating that he had been killed by a train, and his nephew was of the opinion that he had gone to Burlington yesterday afternoon, and had met with the accident while returning. Evidence will be taken at an inquest next Monday.

A Mysterious Priest.

A couple of weeks ago or more Rev. Father Coffey, a Catholic priest from Washington, D.C., arrived in the city and has been in seclusion at the St. Nicholas Hotel ever since. Word came to the city from Ottawa and Toronto that a priest named Coffey had gone to Hamilton to try to swing the Catholic vote of this city into line for Candidate Barker, having been employed by Sir Charles Tupper. Hon. J. M. Gibson and several other prominent Reformers interviewed the priest, but he refused to give them any satisfactory information. He said he was a Grit and always had been one. To a reporter he said he had been shadowed ever since he came to the city by people who thought he was here on political business, but affirmed that he was in the city purely on private affairs and was waiting for the arrival of a friend. He is a brother of T. J. Coffey, registrar of Carleton County.

At the Sessions.

Charles Lappin was this morning arraigned at the Sessions on a charge of pocket picking, but pleaded not guilty, and will conduct his own case. The action of W. H. Brooking against the T., H. & B. Company for damages was settled, the plaintiff getting $100.

The grand jury returned a true bill against John McGraw, charged with housebreaking.

J. T. Seetzel, Q.C., who completed Bracey Bros.' contract on the Brantford end of the T., H. & B., was paid $13,000 this morning and $44,000 will be paid to-morrow, making a total of $57,000.

The track for the Hamilton Radial Electric Railway is laid along the Beach as far as Dynes'.

James G. McLean, who was arrested in Toronto on a charge of theft, was remanded this morning till Saturday.

Victoria Park.

Yesterday was children's day at Victoria Park, its green slope and groves being full of the merriest groups, who played games and rode donkeys and they were tired and were gathered in for tea. Among the picnics were those of the Washington Methodist Church and Christ Church, Scarboro, the choir of the Church of the Redeemer and the inmates of the Children's Home, 23 in number, under the kindly care of Superintendent Walton and Matron Chapman. The Toronto Street Railway generously placed a private car at the disposal of Mr. Walton, and it is said will repeat the experiment.
