MICHIGAN'S CROPS.

Lansing, Mich., July 10.—The July crop report estimates the average yield of wheat per acre as 12.44 bushels. The average is 2.56 higher than July 1, 1895, and it is thought there is an increased acreage of 15 per cent. Wheat never ripened so early before. In some places harvesting began June 16, and the cutting was about completed by July 4. Many correspondents report wheat shrunken. Corn averages 97 per cent. of an average crop; oats, 100. The acreage planted to potatoes is estimated at 11 per cent. less than average years. Last year the acreage exceeded the average six per cent. The condition is 98 per cent.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

—Sheriff Cameron, of this city, is in Sarnia.

—Sheriff Brown, of Elgin county, was in the city this morning on business.

—Mr. Harold Jarvis, Canada's favorite tenor, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Woods, 151 Maple street.

—The choir of St. Andrew's Church, under Mr. Charles Wheeler, picnicked at Port Stanley yesterday, and had a most enjoyable time.

—Judge Edward Elliott held a short session of the first division court this morning. The proceedings were only of an hour's duration.

—The steamer Cuba, which left Port Stanley yesterday for Montreal, had a large party of Cleveland passengers on board bound for Montreal.

—The committee in charge of the Irishmen's picnic went to Port Stanley this afternoon to look over the ground. Mr. Wm. Fraser had it in charge.

—Mr. T. H. Rothwell, representing the Dominion Cold Storage Company, of Montreal, is in town. The company is taking steps to build a branch warehouse here.

—Lachlan Fraser, the man arrested on June 26 for vagrancy, was further remanded until July 17 by Squire J. B. Smyth this morning. The prisoner appears to be of unsound mind.

—The choir of St. James' Church, South London, have ordered an enclosed private street car for 7:45 this evening. They will take a trip round the city.

—Active preparations are being made for the great Scottish demonstration at Port Stanley on Tuesday, July 21. The general committee meets to make further arrangements at J. W. Jones' rooms this evening.

—The Sunday school scholars of Knox Church, South London, are picnicking at Springbank today. Two private excursions, one from St. James' Church, and the other from Dundas Center, will be conducted tonight.

—Mr. Fred. Quinn, of the C. P. R. Telegraph Company, city, while wheeling yesterday on Dundas street, near Maitland, had the misfortune to break his wheel, which caused him to be thrown heavily to the ground. No bones were broken.

—Miss Robiyn and Miss Brown, of Dundas Street Center Methodist choir, will entertain their choir friends tonight to a trip around the city in a private car. The car will be lighted with colored lights, and will leave the church at 8 o'clock.

—Ten more young men have been summoned to appear before Magistrate Parke for non-payment of statute labor tax. It is the intention of the city authorities to prosecute with rigor all remaining delinquents, whom they advise to pay up without further notice.

—The concert in Victoria Park last night by the Musical Society Band was very well attended until the rain caused the crowd to scatter. The rendition of the descriptive piece, "A Country Fair," was well received. It will doubtless be repeated on another occasion.

—In case of a serious fire the water commissioners have arranged for a supply of water. For about $6 a pipe leading from the well to the river can be enlarged, and by turning a valve river water can be forced through the mains as long as a fire renders it necessary.

—A great crop of rank, unsightly weeds that disfigured a King street building lot has been pretty effectually hidden from view by a big billboard. The structure is ten feet high, extending along the entire frontage of the lot, which is situated in one of the choice residential sections of the city.

—The friends of Conductor Empy, late of the Lake Erie and Detroit River run between London and Port Stanley, take exception to a statement which has been published to the effect that he was discharged because he held a train at Port Stanley recently for the arrival of the Cleveland boat. Every conductor has to obey orders, and Mr. Empy simply did this. As for his discharge, no investigation has been held, and no reason given. Mr. Empy is one of the most popular railroad men in town.

G. T. R. CHANGES.

A dispatch from Toronto today says that Mr. Fitzhugh, assistant general manager of the G. T. R., is likely to be made manager of the transportation department, with headquarters at Toronto. This will make Toronto the headquarters of the line in Ontario, and will result in a reduction of the staffs at London and Allendale.

MAY CROSS THE BRIDGE.

Manager Carr, of the street railway Company, returned from Toronto last evening and met the special committee appointed by the County Council to deal with the Dundas street bridge matter. This committee consisted of James Gilmour, M.P.-elect (chairman), Samuel McLeod, Robt. Dreaney, Henry Hardy, C. C. Hodgins, Warden Corbett and Engineer Talbot. As a result of the meeting the committee granted the company permission to go ahead and build the bridge. The question of satisfactory approaches affects three municipalities—London, London West and Middlesex county. The cost of these approaches will have to be borne jointly, and this is the only matter that remains to be adjusted.

Women With Wheels.

Complaints That the Fair Riders Break the Law With Greater Frequency Than Men.

Chief of Police Williams has been compelled from time to time to issue summonses for breaches of the bylaw governing the riding of bicycles. These, so far this season, have totalled up to 67, and have been entirely confined to men and boys, but a change of programme is in store unless the lady cyclists pay more attention to the law. Complaints have been laid by a number of citizens from time to time of the way the ladies are allowed to ride on the sidewalks, and the scorching they do in the park. A member of the London Club this morning thought there were many fair riders, of course, not affiliated with the club, who traveled at a rate in the park exceeding the lawful time by some ten miles. The police authorities do not intend that these facts shall go unnoticed in the future, and that the public may not be in the least surprised to find a score of dainty riders at the Carling street justice works to answer for these violations. The police say that the costumes, big sleeves, etc., worn by these fair scorchers, make the sidewalk impassable when they get on to steer clear of a pool of water.

A NEW MATRON

For the Convalescent Home—Miss Dyke of Hamilton.

The management of the Home for Incurables have placed Miss S. Dyke, of Hamilton, in charge of the new quarters at 708 Dundas street. The new matron is a genial little woman, devoted to her work, and pre-eminently fitted for the position. Her professional career began at the Guelph General Hospital, where she graduated as a trained nurse. For some time she was in charge of the Women's Home, Winnipeg, and also assistant in the general hospital there. Although she has been in charge only one week, she already holds a large share in the affections of all in the institute.

There are at present nine inmates, and four applications were received this week. As this is the only institution in Ontario west of Toronto, its progress will be watched with a great deal of interest. A number of much-needed improvements are being made to the home and grounds, and it is the intention of the management to make the institution second to none in Canada. A brother of the new matron was formerly pastor of the Hamilton Road Methodist Church.

It might be mentioned that Miss Dyke's connection with the London institution was brought about through an advertisement in the "Advertiser," sent to her by a friend in this city.

Hon. Mr. Laurier Confers With the Governor-General.

His New Government Said to be In Readiness to Take Office.

Special to the "Advertiser," per C.P.R.

Ottawa, July 10.—Hon. Mr. Laurier left the Russell House for Rideau Hall at eleven o'clock today, to have an interview with the Governor-General. Mr. Laurier was asked by his Excellency to form a Ministry, and undertook the task. It is generally understood that the new Premier's slate is completed, and will likely be given to the public without delay. In addition to Dr. Borden, James Sutherland, Sidney Fisher, Mr. Tarte and Mr. Domville, M.P.s, who accompanied Mr. Laurier from Montreal, Sir Richard Cartwright arrived this morning. Hon. David Mills came along with Sir Richard. Their presence here would go to show that they are to be in the Cabinet. Wm. Paterson (Brant), is also here, and pretty certain to be one of those selected.

Besides the above, J. K. Kerr, Toronto; James Conmee, Mr. Anglin (son of the late T. W. Anglin), Alex. Smith (Liberal organizer), Major Walsh (of Brockville), and other prominent politicians are in the city.

LATER.

Mr. Laurier returned from Rideau Hall at one o'clock. To your correspondent, he said that he had an interview with his Excellency, and undertook the task of forming a Government.

On the First and Second Ballots in the Democratic Convention.

Summary of the Vote—Bryan Second.

Chicago, July 10.—An hour later than scheduled, the convention met this morning for the sole and express purpose of nominating the Presidential ticket. Chairman White called the delegates to order at 11 a.m. The gold men took their seats sullenly and bitterly, and with little heart in the proceedings. To the surprise of many, Senator Hill did not appear, and a hurried conference was held among the New Yorkers whether they would best bolt in a body, or each to his own liking. Finally, it was agreed to send a committee to Hill, asking him to come to the convention. Although last night had been devoted to nomination speeches, almost without number, until it seemed as if everybody who stood any show had been placed among the starters, there was another candidate to be named this morning, George Pattison, of Pennsylvania, whose name was presented by Wm. Harrity, National chairman. Miller, of Oregon, also presented another nominee—Governor Pennoyer, of his State. Then when Mattingly, of the District of Columbia, had seconded the nomination of John McLean, the speech-making took a let-up. Balloting was called for. It had been decided that two-thirds of the number cast would be considered sufficient; not two-thirds of the total number of votes privileged to be cast, which cleared a doubt in the minds of many what would be the effect if three hundred gold men should refuse to vote. There are 930 votes in the convention.

THE ANCIENTS ABROAD.

They Visit the Prince of Wales Residence—An Ovation.

London, July 10.—The visiting members of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts mustered at the Hotel Cecil after 2 o'clock, and later they took up a position on the Thames embankment, where they were received by the guard of honor of the Honorable Artillery Company of London, preparatory to marching to Marlborough House. The march to the latter place began at 3:20 p.m. The route was along the embankment to Westminster, up White Hall, to the Horse Guards, where the guard turned out and saluted; across the Horse Guards' parade, and through St. James' Park to Marlborough House. The Americans were headed by the Honorable Artillery Company band and the band of the Salen cadets, and were loudly cheered by the crowds who gathered on the embankment and elsewhere between that place and the Prince of Wales' residence. The cheering commenced when the Ancients first came in view, and it lasted until they had disappeared in the grounds of Marlborough House. About that place an immense crowd had assembled, and a great number of the Englishmen raised their hats as the Stars and Stripes passed. After the guard of honor had marched into the grounds of Marlborough House, at the sound of the drum tap, ladies of the American party arrived in a number of private omnibuses. When the Ancients, with band playing and flags flying, entered the gardens of Marlborough House, they found a distinguished company waiting to receive them. On a raised terrace near St. James' Park stood the ladies accompanying the party, and many English officers.

Every day the Thames scoops out of its banks 1,500 tons of matter, or half a million tons a year. All the rivers of the world are doing similar work, the Mississippi at the rate of 300,000,000 tons a year.

The "tree of a thousand images," which grows in Thibet, has leaves which have their centers marked with images of men, animals, birds, faces, etc. Some authorities claimed that some are marked with letters and figures.
