Dr. Ullathorne. He says, instead of being converts to Romanism, they are all now candidates for ordination in the Church of England, or already ordained. If our "old friend" is correct, we can only say, that we regret that the fact is so. That twenty young men who were lately training for the Romish Priesthood should be suddenly ordained, or admitted as candidates for ordination in the Church of England, is an event to be gravely pondered; but our correspondent must excuse us if, giving him credit for the best intentions, we pause for further information in the matter.

Thirdly—he objects to our extract in regard to Dr. Hook—but this paragraph, just as we gave it, was inserted in several of the English journals, Dr. Hook has corrected some of its statements.—No sooner did we see his letter, and this was prior to the receipt of our friend's communication, than we marked it for insertion in our paper. We intend to give it "in toto." It is in many respects a valuable document. Our friend quotes one passage from it in which the Dr. speaks of some who are now among the Romanizers as having been formerly "ultra Protestants" or German Rationalists, or Puritans: but he overlooks the fact that to whichever of these classes they belonged they had to pass through the Tractarian school, before they got to Rome. They might have been wrong before: they are certainly wrong now: but Tractarianism was the transition state. These men were the writers of "the earlier volumes of the Tracts for the Times," and then, Dr. Hook admits that he "rejoiced in their alliance": but what are they now? Hear the Doctor's own description of them—"I now find them," he says, "calumniators of the Church of England, and vindicators of the Church of Rome, palliating the vices of the Romish system, and magnifying the deficiencies of the Church of England—sneering at every thing Anglican and admiring every thing Romish—students of the Breviary and Missal, disciples of the school men, converts to Mediavalism, insinuating Romish sentiments, circulating and republishing Romish works, introducing Romish practices in their private, and infusing a Romish tone in their public, devotions—introducing the Romish confessional, enjoining Romish penances, adopting Romish prostrations, recommending Romish Litanies, muttering Romish Shibboleth, and rejoicing in the cant of Romish fanaticism—assuming sometimes the garb of Romish Priesthood, and venerating without imitating their celibacy—defending Romish miracles, and receiving as true, the lying legends of Rome—almost adoring Romish saints, and complaining that we have had no saints in England since we purified our Church—explaining away the idolatory, and pining for the Mariolatry of the Church of Rome—vituperating the English Reformation, and receiving for the truth the false doctrines of the Council of Trent." Such is the Doctor's forcible description. No wonder with such examples before him, he should call upon High Church-men and Low Church-men to combine to resist the aggression of Romanizers on the one side, and Rationalists on the other, and keenly feel, that "the only bond of union that can be found, is that which rests on the principles of the English Reformation, and the Doctrine of Justification by Faith only."

A fourth offence appears to consist in the statement that the Bishop of Manchester is appointed the Preceptor of the Prince of Wales. This our Correspondent says is not true. We are sorry for it. He might be in worse hands. But after all, does not the climax of our crime consist in the quotation we gave from the Bishop of Manchester's remarks upon Clerical duties? Our correspondent gives us another quotation from the Bishop of Manchester, which he seems to prefer, in which the Bishop recommends the introduction of "Protestant Sisters of Mercy. Really we are compelled to agree with the Bishop, and our correspondent too, that truly Protestant Sisters of Mercy, that is, associations of pious females to attend to the spiritual as well as temporal wants of the poor and destitute, are admirable auxiliaries to the cause of christianity. All we take exception to is the name—we do not think "Sisters of Mercy" the best title for such associations. And all we wonder at is, that either the Bishop, or our correspondent should be ignorant of the fact that such associations already exist within our Church, only under different appellations from that which he would give to them. But why should our correspondent prefer a quotation from the Bishop of Manchester in which the term "Sisters of Mercy" happens to be employed, a title, which has hitherto been peculiar to members of the Church of Rome? and, at the same time, seem offended at another quotation from the same source, in which the good Bishop says—"If I find my incumbents preferring their wretched memorial of a past time, to the vital essence of christianity—if I find men dwelling upon a dress in the Church, instead of the spirit in which the doctrines of that Church should be taught, clinging to the Surplice of ministration, instead of the word and vital truths of God—and telling me (for unfortunately I am not speaking of imaginary cases) that they must cling to these antiquated follies, or that they must become infidels—then, or there, I will not bestow your bounty?" Surely there is something ominous in our "old friends" disliking this extract and preferring another, which happens to have a Romish phrase embodied in it.

Our fifth, and last offence appears to be that Bishop Hopkins has said in the Charge which we have given "in extenso," that the second opinion extends the benefits of infant regeneration in all cases where the Sacrament is rightly administered to a complete spiritual renovating of nature—and in consequence of this, our friend challenges both Bishop Hopkins and ourselves to produce a respectable authority to shew that any party in the Church of England, high or low, maintain such a view.—Now a challenge is always an appalling thing, and we have not much fancy for accepting one to fight other men's battles. As we did not compose the charge which Bishop Hopkins delivered, but have merely printed it, we think it is the Bishop's duty rather than ours to take up the gauntlet.—Still, as the challenge may not immediately meet the learned Prelate's eye, we would say in the mean time, one or two words in mitigation of his offence. Possibly our correspondent does not clearly understand the Bishop. He affixes a meaning to his language which the Bishop did not intend to convey. He supposes the terms "complete spiritual renovation of nature" to preclude the idea of progressive renovation, which is not the case. A renovation may be complete, as involving an entire alteration of the principles which govern a man, and yet the triumph of those principles over the corruption of a fallen nature, may not have reached its consummation. The Bishop may speak of its completeness in the former sense, and affirm that such a renovation is connected by one class of Divines with the right administration of Baptism, and yet not deviate from the truth. Of this we apprehend there is ample proof; and we doubt not that the Bishop of Vermont, whenever he thinks fit to take up the challenge of our "Old friend," will have sufficient learning to adduce it. In the meantime we suggest for our friends consideration a single extract, for the veracity of which we can vouch, and the authority of which we presume he will admit to be respectable. "By this doctine (Baptismal regeneration) is meant, first, that the Sacrament of Baptism is not a mere sign or promise, but actually a means of grace, an instrument by which, when rightly received, the soul is admitted to the benefits of Christ's atonement, such as the forgiveness of sin, original, and actual, reconciliation to God, a new nature, adoption, and the inheritance of heaven,—in a word, Regeneration.—And next, Baptism is considered to be rightly received when there is no positive obstacle or hindrance to the reception in the recipient, such as impenitence or unbelief would be in the case of an adult; so that infants are necessarily right recipients of it as not being yet capable of actual sin. So much as these two positions, is certainly held by every one of the authors of the following passages, though it is impossible to bring out their full meaning in such brief extracts, however carefully selected." (Tract No. 76)—If this language does not extend the benefits of infant regeneration in all cases where the Sacrament is rightly administered, to "a complete spiritual renovation of nature," we candidly confess we know not what language can do so—But we leave this point for our friend and the Bishop to settle.

The House of Assembly are progressing in the business of the Country in the the most quiet manner and without the usual amount of speech-making. On Friday the House was in committee on a bill granting bounties on the tonnage of vessels engaged in the Fisheries, and Lord Grey and his arbitrary Despatch were pretty freely spoken of. There appears to be a very correct determination on the part of the Assembly not to submit to interposition in the expenditure of the local revenue, which doubtless will terminate in Mr. Grey's discomfiture.

RAIL ROAD MEETING IN KING'S COUNTY.

A large and influential Meeting was held in King's County, on Friday the 22d inst., to take into consideration the necessity of forwarding a Petition to the Legislature on the subject of the Saint John and Shediac Railway.

JOHN BARNARDIE, Esquire, having been called to the Chair, and Doctor VAIL appointed Secretary, the following Resolutions were passed unanimously:—

1. Moved by A. C. Evanson, Esq., and seconded by Mr. John King—

Resolved, That this Meeting are convinced of the necessity of some comprehensive and beneficial measures being sanctioned by the Provincial Legislature, to establish confidence and encourage industry; and that it is our conviction that if a Rail Road were constructed between the City of Saint John and the Town of Shediac, it would not only allay discontent, but infuse new life and vigor, and serve to develope the resources of the Province generally.

2. Moved by Mr. Isaac Foshay, and seconded by Nelson Morton—

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Meeting, that the construction of a Railway from St. John to Shediac, would be of paramount importance to the Commercial, Agricultural, and Manufacturing interests of the Province, and that we cannot too forcibly urge upon the Legislature the adoption of such measures as will ensure the commencement this season of so very desirable an undertaking.

3. Moved by Mr. Matthew McLeod, and seconded by Mr. Charles Leonard—

Resolved, That the City and County of Saint John, the Counties King's and Westmorland, through which the contemplated Railway would pass, besides the adjacent County of Albert, contain at least one third of the population of the whole Province; and that it is most desirable that their interests should not be overlooked from any sectional or party considerations.

4. Moved by Mr. John Ruel, and seconded by the Rev. Mr. McGhee.

Resolved, That a Petition be prepared forthwith, embodying the substance of the foregoing Resolutions; that it be signed by those present, who are favorable to the measure; that Mr. Isaac Foshay be requested to procure signatures to the same: and that it be forwarded by the Chairman to one of the Members for this County, at Fredericton, to be presented to the Legislature, at an early day.

The thanks of the Meeting was then given to the Chairman, for his conduct in the Chair, and the Meeting then separated fully impressed with the hope that the Provincial Parliament now in session will take the matter into their favorable consideration, before closing its deliberations.

G. A. VAIL, Secretary.

King's County, 23d March, 1850.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.—We have received several lengthy communications on various topics, but find it quite impossible to comply with the request of their different writers, for insertion in the present number.

"Veritas," Nos. 2 and 3 will receive attention.

"Observer" came too late for this paper. He can have the manuscript if he thinks next week will be too late a period for its insertion. In the meantime we wish to have an interview with the author.

"Johann" is under consideration.

"More" and another communication without signature, each in answer to A. B. C. in the Morning News, are received; but we decline correspondence through our columns both with writers so vile and the source from which A. B. C. emanates.

CARLETON UNION, No 767, (on the Registry of England,) will meet in Masonic Hall, on Thursday evening next, 7 o'clock. R. N. By order of W. M.

To the Electors of Queen's Ward.

GENTLEMEN—Having had the honor of representing you in Common Council for several years past, and of receiving on several occasions the warmest expressions of your confidence, I feel the more concerned in announcing to you that, I am denied the privilege of again appearing as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching Election, by the operation of the twenty-third section of the Act in "amendment" of the "City Charter." The circumstance that has forced this decision, I have no desire to conceal, but frankly, and without hesitation avow it, feeling assured it will be understood and duly considered by you, and that I justly owe it to you to make this public announcement.

In retiring now from Office, I beg that you will accept my most sincere thanks for the very liberal and kind support you have extended towards me; and, permit me at the same time to entertain the hope, that the confidence you have reposed in me may be continued, and, I trust, renewed on some future occasion.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient Servant,

W. H. A KEANS.

St. John, March 29, 1850.

To the Electors of Queen's Ward.

GENTLEMEN,—

IN once more tendering my services as a Candidate for the Office of ALDERMAN for the ensuing year, I would appeal to my past conduct as a pledge for the future. Having had the honor of filling the Office for six years, during which time I have endeavored to promote every good measure, and not failed to denounce and condemn every bad one, I need not enquire of you as to my "fitness for the office." Should you feel disposed once more to honor me with your suffrages, I will continue to pursue the same honest, upright course, which I have reason to believe has hitherto met your approbation. With great respect,

I am, Gentlemen,

Your most obedient servant,

March 22, 1850. WM. O. SMITH.

To the Electors of Queen's Ward.

GENTLEMEN,—On the first Tuesday in April I shall, at the request of a large number of Electors of the Ward, appear before you at the Hustings, as a Candidate for the office of Alderman.

In giving public notice of my intentions at this early day, I do so for the purpose of affording you a sufficiency of time to judge of my fitness for the office, and should you think my humble abilities such as will warrant you to give me your support and vote on that day, I can only promise to do all that I can for the benefit of the Ward, and the City generally.—I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant,

March 22 S. K. FOSTER.

To the Electors of King's Ward.

GENTLEMEN,—As the Annual Election for the Common Council is drawing near, I beg to announce my intention of offering for the situation of Alderman for King's Ward. Although this is the first instance in which I have sought the honor of being a public servant, I believe you all know me well enough to judge of my fitness for the situation. If, indeed, the office were a political one, I should think it right to declare my political sentiments, and tell you whether I am a Liberal or a Conservative; though, even then, I should not think a mere name of much importance. Because a man chooses to call himself a Liberal, it does not therefore follow that he is not a Tyrant. A true Liberal is not one who is merely liberal of the rights of others, but one whose natural benevolence and love of justice make him wish to see those who are in authority dispensing equal justice to all; although he may not, at the same time, believe "too much love of change" the surest path to national prosperity. There is one sentiment however, which I think it proper to avow on this occasion: whoever accepts a public situation, is thereby bound faithfully to discharge the duties of that situation. He is the servant of the public, not their master; and if he will not discharge the duties or will accept any other office or employment inconsistent with the efficient discharge of those duties, let him resign the situation. Public offices are established for the good of the people, and their interests are to be looked to, not those of the occupants of those offices. I may add, moreover, that it is the especial duty of those holding public situations to look after the interests of the poor, and to endeavour to promote peace and good-will among all classes. Whether these sentiments are tory or radical I will not undertake to say; but with these sentiments I intend to solicit your support at the coming election.—I am, Gentlemen, your obedient servant, J. H. HARTT.

St John, March 5, 1850.

To the Electors of Brooks' Ward.

GENTLEMEN,—As the time of the City Election is drawing near, and silence on my part might be taken for retirement from office, I beg to say, I shall, at the request of a large number of respectable Freemen and Freeholders of the Ward, again appear at the Hustings as a Candidate for the office of Alderman. I have served you to the best of my ability for the last twenty four years, and as not a single individual has requested me to retire, I cannot suppose it to be your wish that I should serve you no longer. If again honoured with your confidence, I will discharge my public duty fearlessly, faithfully and impartially.

I am, Gentlemen,

Very sincerely, Yours,

GEORGE BOND.

Carleton, 22d March, 1850.

CARD.

To the Electors of Brooks' Ward.—

GENTLEMEN.—On the first Tuesday in April next, at the request of a number of the Electors of Brooks' Ward, I shall offer myself at the Hustings for the office of Alderman. Should you gentlemen think me competent to serve you in that capacity, and honor me with a majority of your votes, I pledge myself to do so, faithfully, fearlessly and impartially. If elected it shall be my study to promote the interests of the Poor, and create good will among all classes of society.

I am,

Gentlemen,

Your Obedient Servant,

OLIVER B. COUGLE.
