A Strong Combination.

The three best in Canada are

"BELL,"
"KING," and
"SLATER."

The recognized standard of Ladies' Fine Shoes is the

"BELL."

For medium Fine Shoes the

"KING"

takes the lead.

In Men's the

for Style, Fit, Finish and Wearing Qualities is easily ahead.

The committee of the Board of Trade is making good progress in the improvement to the old cemetery and the grounds already begin to present a creditable appearance. Drive ways have been laid out, the stones straightened and the ground levelled so far as possible. When the work is completed the cemetery will no longer be a disgrace, but rather a credit to the town.

The People's Shoe Store carries a full line of the Amherst Boot and Shoe Mfg. Co's. Goods.

On Wednesday morning a quiet marriage took place in Wolfville the particulars of which are recorded in another column. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home after which the happy couple drove to Port Williams station and took the train. Miss Evans' many friends in Wolfville will follow her to her new home with best wishes for a happy life, in which the ACADIAN heartily joins.

The birthday social recently held here was a most enjoyable affair. The church was very tastefully decorated, and the refreshments would have done credit to Delmonico. The choice musical and literary programme which was rendered received hearty encores. Our thanks are due to Miss Crandall and Mr Headley Fuller, who kindly assisted. The neat sum of $17.00 was realized, which will be used to repair the church.

Considerable work has been done on the new dyke, under the supervision of the commissioners of Grand Pre dyke. This will reclaim a large area of land from the sea and also drain the creek and add to the charms of this place.

American tourists have commenced to arrive, and a large influx is anticipated this season.

It is to be regretted that Mr Patriquin has decided not to build a hotel here this spring, although he contemplates making many improvements at Evangeline Beach.

The Falling Asleep of Miss Clara Bell Godfrey.

Last Sunday, the 22nd inst., at high noon, Miss Clara Bell Godfrey, daughter of Mr and Mrs John Godfrey, entered into rest. Miss Godfrey was born in Windsor, and came to Wolfville with her parents and the rest of the family twelve years ago. Not long after coming here her health failed, and for ten years she has been confined to her bed with a disease of the bones so serious that during those years she has been virtually confined to the same posture. This has meant not only a sore trial for herself, but a heavy care for the household. It has been, however, for all of them, the "Refiner's fire." The sick one herself had become like finest gold. Her gentleness, patience, submission and trust had become most beautiful to see; her chamber was the shekinah of the household. Visitors came away wondering at the perfect discipline to which the spirit had been brought, and feeling that they had been face to face with God's immediate work. The devotion of the family to their sick charge was unwearying, and the house will seem empty for many a day. The last few days were days of great suffering, and the longing to go was eager. The final day brought quietness to the body and great peace to the soul. Absent from the body this chastened spirit, to whom Christ had become inexpressibly precious, is surely present with the Lord. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved family. That they sorrow not, however, as those who have no hope, and may smile through their tears, is abundantly assured. If the vanished one could speak to them we could imagine her repeating the following words which, quoted at her bedside a few days before her death, elicited a delighted reponse,—

"On that wonderful day,
When I am still on the bed,
Smile through your weeping and say,
'Gone by the upland way.'
Do not say I am dead.

Say I am free from the fires
Heated seven times red,
Hunger of vain desires,
Heart that vainly aspires,
Do not say I am dead."

The funeral took place on Wednesday, the 25th inst., the service being conducted by the pastor of the Baptist church, assisted by former pastors. T. T.

A Great Mistake.

We find that ladies of this county are under the impression that we do nothing but ladies tailoring. We wish to say that we not only do ladies dressmaking but we make a specialty of this line, and Miss McLellen, our dressmaker, is an artist in ladies' dressmaking and cannot be excelled in any city on the continent. Give us a call, our prices are right, our work is the best.
