RECORD CROWD AT BENNINGS

The Fields Were Small, Owing to the Numerous Scratches—Burns' Good Riding.

SOME BIG FIELDS AT MEMPHIS.

Sevoy Won Handicap at Good Odds —Favorites and Second Choices at Tanforan.

Washington, April 12.—The last but one day of the spring meeting of the Washington Jockey Club witnessed almost a record-breaking crowd at the Bennings track this afternoon. The sport, while good, lacked vim, as the fields in nearly all the races were very small, as a result of numerous scratches. The talent recouped themselves somewhat, four favorites crossing under the wire first. Moor and Scorpio were coupled in the betting in the first race, and the former captured the prize. Passaic, at 25 to 1, was victorious in the second, readily winning from a field of seven starters. With three competitors, The Rhymer, the favorite, took the third, and Astery, the favorite in the fourth, won by a length and a half. Rough Rider, an odds-on favorite in the fifth, came out first, and in the last Jockey T. Burns, who again to-day rode four winners, piloted Specimen ahead of the field and won by a length. Scurry, backed to win, finishing last.

First race, handicap, 5½ furlongs—Moor, 110 (Landry), 7 to 10, 1; Lexington Pirate, 126 (T. Burns), 8 to 5, 2; Scott, 110 (J. Slack), 9 to 1, 3. Time 1.09 3-5. Scorpio also ran. Moor and Scorpio coupled in the straight betting.

Second race, selling, 7 furlongs—Passaic, 111 (J. Slack), 25 to 1, 1; Monmouth Boy, 106 (Landry), 7 to 1, 2; Charles Estes, 102 (Miles), 7 to 1, 3. Time 1.29. Spurs, By George, King's Favorite, Tony Licalzi also ran.

Third race, 6 furlongs—The Rhymer, 106 (T. Burns), even, 1; Robert Waddell, 100 (Seaton), 6 to 5, 2; Imperialist, 117 (Landry), 7 to 1, 3. Time 1.15 1-5. Palatial also ran.

Fourth race, maiden 2-year-olds, ½ mile—Astery, 109 (Burns), 9 to 10, 1; The Steward, 109 (Seaton), 40 to 1, 2; Mars, 106 (Landry), 9 to 5, 3. Time 51 1-5. Tea Varre, Ski Runner and Erne also ran.

Fifth race, maidens, 7 furlongs—Rough Rider, 98 (T. Burns), 2 to 5, 1; Imiscara, 91 (Seaton), 8 to 1, 2; Street Boy, 93 (Fitzgerald), 8 to 1, 3. Time 1.30 2-5. Micou, Penny, Albert Edward also ran.

Sixth race, selling, mile and 50 yards—Speedmas, 110 (T. Burns), 3 to 1, 1; Althea, 105 (Landry), 5 to 1, 2; Alard, 95 (Seaton), 6 to 1, 3. Time 1.47 1-5. Matt Simpson and Scurry also ran.

A Good Day at Memphis.

For the Horse Show.

Secretary Henry Wade has been busy at the Parliament Buildings in receiving entries for the Canadian Horse Show. This year Americans are represented in a number of events by J. B. B. Vandergrift of Pittsburg, Pa. The quality of the entries promises to be very fine, as there will be several strings from Boston coming to Toronto. Yesterday morning Mr. George Pepper shipped a string of fifteen saddle horses and hunters. Crow & Murray will also be represented by a very large contingent, and an exhibitor who has come to the front in late years than the Canadian Horse Show is Mr. A. Yeager of Simcoe, who has also a large string of horses. The entry list is not yet completed, owing to the large number coming in by mail, but many well-known exhibitors who are already represented are as follows:

Messrs. Adam Beck, London; George Pepper, Crow & Murray, Toronto; William Hendrie, Hamilton; A. Yeager, Simcoe; Joseph B. Vandergrift, Pittsburg, Pa.; Mrs. W. Woodruff, St. Catharines; Mrs. F. M. SECOND NIGHT IN THE RINK

Ten Boxing Bouts and One Wrestling Contest Decided in Championship Tourney.

TWO LIGHT WEIGHTS KNOCKED OUT.

Another Big Crowd in Attendance—Argonauts' Final Program for To-Night.

About 1200 attended the second night's championship events in the Mutual-street Rink, and were rewarded by several skilful bouts and some slugging contests. Capt. Barker made an ideal announcer.

Godwin and Rowe made a fast and clever bout, the beautiful ducking of Rowe winning round after round of applause. Godwin was the aggressor most of the time, and got the decision, which was not popular with the crowd, which showed its disapproval by hissing and hooting uproariously.

Babe Hewitt was the favorite in the second bout, and easily demonstrated his superiority over the Ottawa man, who evidently depended on the knockout which did not come. Hewitt, after the first round, did the leading, and blocked and ducked all the attempts of his opponent, getting the decision by a large margin.

McCarthy and Harrison treated the crowd to the first slugging match of the evening. Harrison rushed from the sound of the gong and had McCarthy tired in the second round. Harrison continued to rush in the third, and had McCarthy all but out in the round. Altho beaten, Mack came back every time, and was applauded by the crowd for his gameness.

Alshthorpe and Ramsay, both members of the Toronto Boxing Club, furnished the fourth contest of the evening. Alsthorpe was the stronger and aggressor thruout. Ramsay used a beautiful left jab, which kept his opponent bleeding from the start of the contest. Alsthorpe got the decision.

Hern made short work of Hare in the fifth bout, and had him beaten to a standstill in the first round, when the referee sent them to their corners. Hare responded for the second round, but only lasted about 15 seconds.

Vivian Austin jabbed his left to Bremner's face a couple of times in the sixth bout by way of introduction, and then crossed his right over on the jaw, putting his opponent completely out.

Thompson of Hamilton and Jansen put up a fierce go in the seventh bout. Thompson was the aggressor thruout, but Jansen was the stronger of the two at the finish and the crowd thought he should have had the decision, but the judges thought otherwise, and Thompson's style put him into the final.

The feature of the eighth bout was Paddy Holland's smile. He smiled when he landed on Starrs of Ottawa. He smiled when Starrs landed on him, but the smile he used when the referee announced the decision in his favor surpassed anything ever seen in Mutual-street Rink. Holland got the verdict, which was popular with the majority of the crowd.

Nolan was too strong for Henderson, and got the decision in the next slugging match. He had Henderson very tired at the finish.

The only bout in the 158 class was between McDonogh of Peterboro and Smith of the Argo Club. The judges decided that Smith was the better man of the bout.

Carroll of Peterboro and Strike failed to appear, and Hodson of the Apollo A.C. also dropped out. Somerville of the Night Owl Club and T. Moylan of the Riverside Club go into the finals without a preliminary contest.

McGraw dropped out of the 158-pound class, and McBriarty meets Smith to-night.

In the only wrestling bout of the evening Meyer of Rochester forced the work at the start, and secured a catch-as-catch-can hold and forced the American champion to the mat.

Boxing, 105 lbs.—C. Godwin, B Bicycle Club, beat J. Rowe, Waverley A.C.; A. L. Hewitt, Toronto L.C., beat J. Horan, Ottawa A.A.C.

115 lbs.—W. Harrison, R.C.B.C., beat Thomas McCarthy, Ontario A.C.; Claude Alsthorpe beat R. L. Ramsay, Toronto B.C.

125 lbs.—Carroll, Peterboro, and Strike, Montreal, failed to show up.

135 lbs.—J. Hern, Parkdale A.C., beat T. C. Hare, Parkdale Hockey Club, knockout second round; Vivian Austin, Capital A.C. of Ottawa, beat H. Bremner, Argyle A.C., knockout first round.

145 lbs.—S. B. Thompson, Hamilton F.B.C., beat J. Jansen, Argyle A.C.; P. Holland, Toronto O.C., beat W. Starrs, Capital A.C., Ottawa; J. Nolan, Shamrock A.C., Montreal, beat W. Henderson, B Bicycle Club.

158 lbs.—J. J. Smith, Argyle A.C., beat J. McDonogh, Peterboro B.B.C.

Wrestling, 145 lbs.—F. Nelison, West End Y.M.C.A., beat W. J. Meyer, Rochester A.C. R. N. Harrison refereed and was given a splendid reception.

Finals on To-Night's Card.

The finals to-night are sure to draw a big crowd. Nolan will be seen in the 145-pound boxing; all the others will decide the championships. Owing to the fine one wrestling made last night, an additional bout on the mat may be arranged for the 115-pound championship between local aspirants for fame. The program:

Boxing: 105 lbs.—C. Godwin, "B" Bicycle Club, v. A. L. Hewitt, Toronto L.C.

158 lbs.—J. J. Smith, Argyle A.C., v. J. McBriarty, Shamrocks, Montreal.

115 lbs.—William Harrison, R.C.B.C., v. Vivian Austin, Capital A.C., Ottawa.

125 lbs.—R. Somerville, Night Owls B. B.C., v. E. Moylan, Riverside A.C.

135 lbs.—J. Hern, Parkdale Hockey Club, v. Vivian Austin, Ottawa A.A.C.

145 lbs.—S. B. Thompson, Hamilton Football Club; P. Holland, Toronto Boxing Club; J. Nolan, Shamrocks, Montreal. Men will draw at ringside for the bye.

ONTARIO CURLING ASSOCIATION.

Representatives Hold Semi-Annual Meeting Next Tuesday.

The semi-annual meeting of the representatives of the Ontario Curling Association will be held on Tuesday next at 1.30 p.m. in the Walker House, and a large and interesting meeting is sure to be.

The work of the past season will be fully reported on by the zone committees who look after the important departments committed to their charge, and the discussion will be as frank and hearty as is usual with the lads who are accustomed to the friendly rivalry which obtains on the level ice floor.

The prizes won in the many contests of the season now ended will also be distributed, and the fortunate winners will receive with glad hearts the emblems of victories they won during the last reign of King John Frost.

Cricket League in the East.

Montreal, April 12.—At a meeting held here this afternoon it was decided to form a new Cricket League, to be composed of Ottawa, Montreal and McGill clubs. A series of return matches will be played during the season.

There will be an open bluerock shoot at McDowall's shooting grounds this afternoon.

Harry Vardon met James Braid Yesterday on the links at Eltham, in a 36-hole match. Both played brilliant golf, and a splendid contest was the result. Vardon won by two holes up and one to play.

DRAG

The old style fibre coaster brake has a grave fault. The fibre collects oil and dirt and gets out-of-true. When a fibre braked wheel is led, the pedals turn, showing that all the dirt in the brake creates friction. This friction is holding the rider back when he is coasting. Now, my New Departure Coaster Brake has no friction. The parts in it are steel. No oil can collect in the wearing surface. The Brake has to be put in operation to bring the w
