THE DOMINION PARLIAMENT

BUSINESS DESPATCHED IN THE HOUSE YESTERDAY.

Sir Richard Cartwright's Many Questions—Sir John Thompson Says Wait for the Report of the Commission—Mr. Maclean Makes His Maiden Speech in Favor of Lower Railway Fares.

OTTAWA, June 15.—For exactly one hour and ten minutes this afternoon Sir Richard Cartwright occupied the time of the House in putting 31 questions to the Government with reference to the letters, receipts, etc., which have appeared recently in The Toronto Globe. At the end of the first long question, Sir John Thompson gravely replied: "The members of the Government who receive The Globe are aware of the publications referred to." This reply was made to the first seven questions, after which Sir John contented himself with saying, "Same answer." After these preliminary questions Sir Richard asked the first of his series of ten es to what the Government intended to do. It was as follows: "Whether the Government have observed that the said documents, if authentic, prove that a very large fund was created and placed in the hands of the said Hon. Thomas McGreevy for the purpose of influencing the election in the several constituencies referred to and that the said fund was regularly distributed in accordance with a careful preconcerted arrangement." To this Sir John Thompson made the following reply, which fully covers the position taken by the Government with respect to this attempt on the part of Sir Richard to re-open the Caron matter.

Sir John Thompson's Reply.

"The publication of the statements and documents quoted in the preceding questions, referring as they do to expenditures alleged to have been made in the year 1887 in the elections for the Parliament whose term expired in 1891, was evidently made in pursuance of the charges which were preferred in this House by the hon. member for West Ontario, and which were interpreted by that gentleman and two or three members of this House in opposition to the Government as charges that the Postmaster had diverted by subsidies from the purpose for which they were granted by receiving for election purposes large sums of money out of such subsidies and out of moneys raised on the credit of such subsidies, and so forth, as stated in the resolution of this House passed on May 4, 1892. This House on that day resolved that it was expedient that inquiry should be made as to the truth or falsity of the allegations and charges, and that the evidence relating to the same should be taken by commissioners under the statute which provides for such inquiries being made by commissioners, and that the evidence when taken should be laid before this House. Two eminent judges have been selected to be such commissioners, and their appointment has been approved by the House without any dissent being expressed as to their fitness and impartiality. Ample powers are being conferred on the commissioners, and when their labors are concluded the result of such labors will be laid before the House for such action as may seem proper under the circumstances. The Government do not intend to ask the House to interfere with that investigation, or to substitute for it a method of investigation which would be less complete and less impartial, nor do they propose in the meantime to express any opinion on the questions which that inquiry will involve or on the facts which are to be proved or disproved before the commissioners."

Sir Richard's next question received a similar reply, but to the enquiry whether His Excellency's attention had been called to the publication of these letters Sir John Thompson replied that such communication had been had with His Excellency, and such advice given him as the Government considered it was its duty to give—a statement which was received with applause from the Government side of the House, which was renewed when Sir John stated in reply to another question that the Postmaster-General had made a statement to his colleagues with reference to the matter.

The last question was whether the Government intended to cause a committee of the House to investigate the matter and Sir John replied that the Government proposed to await the report of the commission already appointed with respect to these matters.

The Redistribution Bill.

The House then went into committee on the Redistribution Bill, when Mr. Mills moved an amendment to the second clause to the effect that the constituencies should be fixed on the old county boundaries, subdivided. The debate was continued by Mr. McMullen up to recess.

When the House was in committee on the Midland Railway Bill to-night, Mr. Maclean (East York) moved an amendment to the effect that the maximum rate for travel on the road be two cents per mile, as the initial step towards extending the principle to other roads. For 30 years the passenger rates on railways in Canada remained the same. It was time that it was now reduced. He promised his constituents during his election that he would move in this direction and now he was doing so, and would continue to do so until a statutory enactment was passed to that effect. Instead of diminishing the receipts of the roads it would increase them. The adoption of the system in England satisfactorily proved this, although Old Country railway companies were first opposed to the idea.

Hon. Mr. Haggart said that if the member for East York would withdraw the motion he would have a chance of moving it when the bill to amend the general railway act came up.

Mr. Maclean: "Will the Minister of Railways give me the promise that that bill will be pressed this session?"

Mr. Haggart gave his promise.

Mr. Sproule seconded the amendment in a brief speech.

Mr. Tisdale thought it was too late to press the matter this session.

Mr. Mills (Bothwell) suggested to Mr. Maclean to move for a special committee so as to have an opportunity to examine railway men and others. This would best attain Mr. Maclean's object and railroad interests would be protected in this way.

Mr. Sutherland supported the amendment.

Mr. Maclean said he was willing to withdraw it and take the suggestion of Mr. Mills into consideration, but he intended to educate the House—[hear, hear]—and the House could stand to be educated on this matter—[hear, hear]—until such time as the law was changed.

The bill passed.

New Members Introduced.

Two new Conservative members were introduced this evening. Immediately after recess Mr. Calvin, the newly-elected member for Frontenac, was introduced by Sir John Thompson and Hon. Mr. Bowell, amid considerable applause. Almost exactly at midnight and just before adjournment Mr. Jeannette, who was elected by acclamation on Saturday for l'Assomption, was introduced by Hon. Mr. Chapleau and Hon. Mr. Ouimet.

Changes In the Bill.

The announcement made by Sir John Thompson to-night that no change would be made in the county of Russell, and that Clarence township will remain in the same electoral division of Russell instead of being placed in Prescott, was received with such bad grace by the Opposition as to make it doubtful whether the rumor which is afloat to-night that it is also intended to leave the city of London unchanged and to divide the county of Ottawa East and West instead of North and South, may not be incorrect. The rumor is that the Government has decided to make these two changes in the Redistribution Bill in addition to the one announced to-night and by so doing eliminating every feature of the bill to which objection could be taken. If these changes are made the effect should be to quickly shorten the debate.

The whole of the evening session was taken up discussing Mr. Mills' amendment to the second clause of the Redistribution Bill, the only marked feature of the debate being a little difference of opinion between Hon. Mr. Haggart and Mr. D'Alton McCarthy.

The Judge's Report.

On motion of Sir John Thompson to-day, the report of the trial judge in the Chicoutimi and Saguenay election was laid on the table. In this case it will be remembered that the judge reported extensive corrupt practices, which prevents the issue of a writ without action by the House. Sir John announced that he would move that the writ be issued.

The House adjourned at 12.10 until Friday.

CORNELL-PENNA. BOAT RACE.

Cornell an Easy Victor by Five Boat Lengths.

ITHACA, N.Y., June 15.—The Cornell-Pennsylvania boat race took place at 5.30 o'clock this afternoon. Both crews seemed in the pink of condition as they rested on their oars at the starting point.

Cornell got the best of the start, and at the quarter both crews, pulling at 42, Cornell led by a length. When the half was reached Cornell had gained three-quarters of a length, pulling at 36, Pennsylvania at 38. The race then became interesting, as Pennsylvania spurted and gained half a length at the three-quarters. Cornell pulled stronger, and when the mile was reached Cornell led by 2½ lengths, pulling 36. At the 1½ miles Cornell was 2½ lengths ahead. Pennsylvania was still in the race, pulling 36 strong, but Cornell's stroke told, and at two miles Cornell was three lengths ahead. At the 2¾ mile mark Cornell had gained one-half a length, both pulling at 36. Then came the finish, and to everybody's surprise neither crew raised the stroke. Cornell passed the line an easy winner by 5 lengths in 17 min. 26 sec., Pennsylvania 17 min. 46½ sec.

The course was three miles straightaway.

THAWPLED TO DEATH.

Sad Fate of a Galt Man Who Tried to Stop a Runaway Horse.

GALT, June 15.—John Chater, an employe in Goldie & McCulloch's Safe Works, aged about 60 years, while on his way back to work during the noon hour, attempted to stop a runaway horse, and was run over and almost instantly killed. The horse, which belonged to Mr. James Anderson, veterinary surgeon, was left tied in front of the Queen's Hotel. The escaping of steam from a Grant Trunk engine in the vicinity frightened the horse, which broke loose. Deceased was an Englishman by birth. He leaves a widow and grown-up family.

Married in a Cemetery.

BALTIMORE, Md., June 15.—One of the strangest marriage ceremonies ever witnessed was performed yesterday morning in Greenmound Cemetery. The groom was Col. Hendrick von Stamp, ex-Minister of Denmark to the United States and a Knight of the Order of the Danenborg, and the bride was Miss Mildred Hammond, daughter of the late General Hammond of this city. The ceremony was performed while the two contracting parties stood upon the graves of the bride's parents. The selection of such a place for the service was due to the sentiment of the bride and her devotion to the memory of her father and mother, who died 20 years ago.

Romulus and Remus sat upon the wall.
Watching mighty meteors thro' the ether fall.
Tho' the vestal virgins tailored for the twins
Very little clothing decked their manly shins.
Scanty styles prevailed in those early moons,
Kilts were not in favor, nor were pantaloons.
This is a digression, just a hint out-thrown,
That the current costume was but flesh and bone.
Here and there a feather and a stroke of paint
Showed the native Latin in an aspect quaint.
Here and there the nobles, like the kingly pair,
Decked themselves in sunshades when they took the air.
Rapt in contemplation gazed they on the stars—
Remus gaped at Venus, Romulus at Mars.
"Hither bring the vates, prophet of the clan,"
Thus the noble Remus suddenly began.
"Romulus, my brother, scest thou up there
Stars of purest lustre, two beyond compare?"
Straight the royal hero to his knees uprose,
'Gainst his brother's finger placed his Roman nose,
Gazed to where he pointed in the azure vault,
Lost his kingly balance, turned a somersault.
Ere he had arisen in his grief and shame,
To the dual presence, lo! the vates came.
"Welcome," then said Remus. "May your fame redound,
Yonder stars that glitter, are they to be found
In your Book of Wisdom?" Sire, the prophet said,
"May all earthly triumphs rest upon your head.
Yonder stars that glitter in their magic sheen
Are the mighty brothers, Sidera Dineen;
In the distant ages shall their triumph be
Clothing heads of mortals most resplendently,
Hats of every color, hats of every size,
That the heart can gladden, that—the prophet lies!"
Thus exclaimed the monarch, in fierce ecstasy:
"One was meant for Romny, t'other one for me!"
Picture the commotion, reader, if you can,
How the brothers chastened! How the prophet ran!

Rev. Dr. Wild.

The genial face of the Doctor was seen in the streets yesterday. He had just returned from the meeting of the Congregational Union at Montreal. The Doctor preached on Sunday evening in Emmanuel Congregational Church with great acceptation and all his customary fire. The large church was packed and many were unable to gain admittance. Rev. Mr. Pulsford has resigned the pastorate of this church, and such was the favorable impression created on Sunday that many of the members at once hit upon Toronto's Polymath as the very man for the vacant pulpit. The World hopes that the Bond-street Prophet will not be enticed away from Toronto, but according to a despatch from Montreal it looks very much as if he will have the refusal of the position. It would be Montreal's gain and Toronto's loss.

Sons of Canada.

The proceedings of the closing session of the Sons of Canada were open ed yesterday by the receiving of reports from the Finance and Legislation Committees, which were thoroughly discussed and adopted. During the afternoon the officers-elect were installed by Bro. P. P. Saunders. A vote of thanks was passed to the newspapers for their daily reports. The next annual session of the superior lodge will be held in Port Perry in June of 1893.

Mr. Wiman Not In It.

"There is no possibility of Mr. Erastus Wiman representing the Toronto Board of Trade at the London Conference of British and Colonia Chambers of Commerce," remarked a gentleman well posted in Board of Trade matters to The World, "his views on our trade policy not being in accord with the pronounced policy of the board."

IT STIRS ALL THEIR HEARTS.

THE INVITATION BY THE IRISH LEADERS TO MR. BLAKE.

It was the Universal Topic Yesterday—What People Think About It—It is Generally Regarded with Feelings of Pride by All Classes—Ald. Hallam Gives His Views.

The invitation of the Irish leaders to Hon. Edward Blake was the big topic for discussion everywhere yesterday. Home Rulers of all shades of opinion were in transports of delight, this feeling being shared as well by Conservatives as by Reformers. The latter were of course particularly proud that such a vast career seemed to be opening up for the great Canadian Commoner. Young Canadians, too, spoke glowingly of the possibilities that were thus put in the way of the first of Canadians. There is a general feeling that the time in which a decision must be arrived at is very short. Mr. Blake is not the man to take so serious a step without knowing the ground upon which he is about to stand, and to arrive at this understanding may consume a great deal of time. There can be no doubt, however, that Mr. Blake's acceptance of a seat in the Imperial Parliament would be a source of peculiar pride to all Canadians. The following letter from Ald. Hallam explains itself:

Canada is Honored.

Editor World: I see in this morning's papers that Edward Blake has been invited to stand for a constituency in Ireland by the Irish Home Rulers.

This is a great compliment to the honorable gentleman, and I hope he will accept and be returned triumphantly, as there is no man in Canada understands the principles of Home Rule better than Mr. Blake. He would be a great help in formulating a scheme of Home Rule that would be just to all parties in Ireland.

England has tried to rule Ireland for the last 700 years in various ways; coercion, castle rule, keeping a large number of soldiers, also a large and expensive constabulary. Everything yet has failed to conciliate the majority of the Irish people. I think the time has arrived when some other plan should be tried, and it seems to me that a measure of Home Rule and a good system of municipal government would be the best scheme to adopt.

The honorable gentleman's opinions are well known on this subject and need no commendation from me, and I am sure that he would not be a party to loosen the ties which bind Ireland and the British Empire together.

It will be a great honor to Canada if Mr. Blake accepts and is returned as a member of the British Parliament.

I am of the opinion that he would not suffer financially by doing so, as his extensive knowledge of Canadian affairs, both politically and commercially, would be invaluable to the Colonial Office, and the many cases that come before the Supreme Court of England that affect Canadian interests would readily secure him employment.

Wishing him every success I remain,
Toronto, June 15. JOHN HALLAM.

Other Local Opinions.

Mr. Robert Jaffray: "I would be sorry to see Mr. Blake out of Canadian politics for good, but it is a splendid opportunity. He would be a great figure in the Imperial Parliament and he should accept the offer, an offer that would give free scope to his splendid abilities."

Mr. George A. Cox: "If Edward Blake enters the Imperial Parliament I believe that he will be Gladstone's successor."

Opinions at Ottawa.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 15.—There has been much discussion to-day of the announcement respecting Mr. Blake. The general opinion is that the late leader of the Opposition will wait until Mr. Gladstone requests him to join his ranks. Should the leader of the Liberals do this, there is no doubt in the mind of the majority of the membership that Mr. Blake will accept a place in St. Stephen's.

How Mr. Laurier Views It.

Said Mr. Laurier, when asked his opinion: "To the Irish Parliamentary party he will prove a tower of strength. His experience in Federal Governments will be most valuable to the Home Rulers, and, in fact, will be useful to the whole Imperial Parliament. While his accession will be most valuable to the Home Rulers Canada's loss will be great. I think his return to our own Parliament was only a matter of time."

Sir Richard Cartwright said: "I think Mr. Blake will almost immediately become the leader of the party which he will join. While his statesmanship will be of value to the Home Rulers, his knowledge of constitutional law and his experience in Federal Government will make him one of the most prominent figures in imperial politics. Canada will be a gainer, inasmuch as the mere fact of this country being called upon to send a man to aid an imperial party will say much for Canada."

Hon. David Mills: "I think Mr. Blake will accept the offer, and if Gladstone ever more assumes power you will probably see Mr. Blake Secretary of State for Ireland. That he will within a short time become leader of the Irish party is a certainty."

WILLIAM O'BRIEN SPEAKS.

The Anti-Parnellites Will Make No Concession.

DUBLIN, June 15.—William O'Brien, M.P., spoke at Cork yesterday. He said that the proposals for an armistice offered by Mr. Harrington were not intended to be accepted; they were merely intended for consumption in America. It was less important, he said, to avoid petty election squabbles than to allow Ireland to speak with no uncertain voice.

This is regarded as an indication that the anti-Parnellites will make no concession, and will go into the general election separately and without regard for the Parnellites.

THE IRISH EDUCATION BILL.

Concessions to the Nationalists—State Aid for Catholic Schools.

LONDON, June 15.—In the House of Commons to-day the Irish Education Bill was under discussion. Mr. Balfour accepted all the amendments offered by Mr. Sexton of Belfast on the subject of public aid to the schools managed by the Christian Brothers. The Government consented to a compromise, whereby the schools in question should be enabled to receive state subsidies. The Irish members thereupon withdrew their opposition to the bill and it will doubtless pass. This compromise is certain to arouse vehement criticism in certain quarters that strongly oppose state aid to any schools managed by Christian bodies.

Home Rule and Unity.

LONDON, June 15.—The National League of Great Britain, Pierce Mahony, president, has issued an address to Irishmen in America, saying:

In view of the fact that Mr. Redmond is among you, we, your fellow-exiles, appeal for your aid and sympathy, which will be able to do much to restore the solidarity and influence which the party held under Mr. Parnell's leadership, without which Home Rule will be postponed indefinitely. The refusal of Mr. Harrington's terms will lead to a repetition of the regrettable contests in Kilkenny and Cork, will result in a loss of Gladstonian seats in England and will reduce Mr. Gladstone's chance of producing an effective bill.

The bride's gown was of grey crepon, with hat to match, while the bridesmaids wore white Bedford cord costumes, with white hats trimmed with yellow, and each carried a bouquet of yellow roses. The bride carried a bouquet of white roses. The groomsman was Mr. C. G. Boalt of Painesville, Ohio. PRINCE MICHAEL THE IMPOSTOR.

Efforts to Suppress the Evidence Being Made Public.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., June 15.—The trial of Prince Michael was begun here to-day before Judge Kinne. The moral and godly residents regard it as a great injustice that so sensational a case should be tried in their midst. Several clergymen have done all in their power to have the public excluded and a publication of the proceedings forbidden, but their attempts have been unsuccessful. Judge Kinne at first refused the motion of counsel for the defence that their witnesses on the case be subpœnaed at the expense of the county, on the ground that if the prisoner could afford to employ high-priced attorneys to defend him he could pay his own witnesses. But the counsel for the defence took the witness box and swore that his services were donated, and that he had also been compelled to pay "Lucifer's" fare to Ann Arbor. He had discovered that all the property in Michael's name was held in trust for the colony. The judge then ordered that the witnesses be sent for at the expense of the county. A number of these witnesses are from Toronto and the neighborhood.

HURLED TO DEATH.

Two Reckless Boatmen Tried to Shoot a Dam.

BELLEVILLE, June 15.—From additional particulars of the drowning accident at Burnell's dam, it appears that John Walterhouse and Edmund Huddleston, both young men, actually attempted to shoot the dam in their punt. The descent of the river is very rapid at this point and the boat fairly flew over the dam, accompanied by a drive of Rathbun's logs which had been started down the river. The fall stunned the young men. Walterhouse succeeded in getting on a log and this saved his life. Huddleston was just in the act of pulling himself out of the water when a passing log struck him with great force and he was thrown back and hurled to death on the rocks.

Farewelled for England.

PETERBORO, June 15.—Ensign and Mrs. Steele, who for the past ten months have commanded the Salvation Army corps in Peterboro, were last night tendered a grand farewell banquet by the local warriors. There was a parade and open air service, after which a large crowd assembled in the Simcoe-street barracks, where the farewell meeting was conducted. Brigadier Philpott of Toronto led the services. He spoke very feelingly of the work accomplished by Ensign Steele during his seven years' residence in Canada. The brigadier performed the impressive ceremony of dedicating the young son of Ensign and Mrs. Steele. Ensign Steele has had command of over 20 corps since his conversion in London eleven years ago. Among his other stations were No. 1 corps, Toronto; No. 1 corps, Montreal; and Quebec. The Ensign and Mrs. Steele will leave for England.

Their situation was desperate in the extreme.

Amber and Gold.

The annual report of the Department of the Interior contains a good deal of interesting information with regard to the resources and prospects of our great territories in the west. Among the new matter in this blue book is Mr. Otto J. Klotz's investigation of the shores of Cedar Lake, a small body of water about 400 miles down the Saskatchewan from Prince Albert. On the shores of this remote lake a deposit of amber was discovered some years ago, and Mr. Klotz was instructed by the Minister of the Interior to investigate and make a report on the subject. He has done so and appears to take a very cautious view of the commercial value of the deposit. The amber of commerce has been obtained from the southeastern shores of the Baltic Sea for two thousand years. The amber varies in size from grains the size of a pea to pieces as large as a hand. The value of the amber depends largely on the size of the pieces, for example a pound consisting of four pieces is valued at $15, while the same weight consisting of 160 pieces is worth but 90 cents, while refuse amber is made into varnish stock. Mr. Klotz reports with regard to the amber field on Cedar Lake that the material is so small that it could only be converted into varnish stock. He concludes that there is undoubtedly somewhere beds where larger pieces are deposited from which these Cedar Lake deposits are mere driftings. It becomes a question, therefore, whether it would pay to work these driftings. The only way this could be made commercially profitable, in Mr. Klotz's opinion, is by giving one company the monopoly of working the deposit under a royalty.

In the same blue book there is a considerable amount of information in regard to the gold deposits in the East Kootenay mining district, part of which was traversed last year by W. S. Drewry, an officer of the department. Mr. Drewry says that the actual mineral wealth is an unknown factor, but sufficient has been ascertained to make a great development probable in the next few years. At the present time but one mine is being actively operated. The difficulties are great and capital is wanted. The improvement in the means of treating ore with a small percentage of gold will do a great deal for the district, for this is the character of the quartz throughout the mountains. Mining engineers and experts affirm that the surface prospects of the Spillamacheen country are extremely good and that if the promise held forth is realized it will become one of the richest quartz-mining areas known.

The Bank of Toronto.

The condition of the Bank of Toronto revealed by the 88th annual report presented at yesterday's meeting is no doubt gratifying to the public and doubly so to the shareholders. The past year was not altogether favorable to banking, but by means of a largely increased volume of business the Bank of Toronto has been able to maintain its profits. This speaks volumes for the efficiency of the management. A pleasing feature of the year's business is the fact that $50,000 has been recovered from debts written off in previous years. The customary 10 per cent. dividend, aggregating $200,000, has been paid, $100,000 added to the reserve fund and nearly $39,000 carried forward. The rest now amounts to $1,700,000, or in proportion to the capital 85 per cent. The Bank of Toronto well sustains its reputation.

Success of the Imperial Bank.

Where enterprise, capability and conservatism is combined success is concomitant. The Imperial Bank is an illustration of this. In spite of disadvantageous outside circumstances the business year which ended with May 31, 1892, was one which may well be termed creditable. The net profits for the year aggregated nearly $222,000, a sum which some of the older banking houses may well envy. Besides an 8 per cent. dividend the shareholders have been paid a bonus of 1 per cent. and $50,000 has been added to the reserve, bringing that fund up to nearly a million and a quarter—a tidy little sheet anchor, indeed.

THE BEREAN CHURCH.

The Alleged Improper Conduct at Its Meetings Scouted by the Pastor.

The attention of the public for the last few days has been drawn by newspaper reports to the alleged improper actions of converts and members of the Berean Methodist Church, at present holding a camp meeting in a large tent erected near their new edifice in Crawford-street.

A World reporter visited the meeting last night, but could not see anything which would warrant a report as published by some of the newspapers. The praying of those engaged in the work was earnest and there was nothing rebelling in the actions of the worshippers. Pastor Kerr, who is foremost in these meetings, is a young man and did good work at the People's Church in King-street east, building up a large membership.

The pastor, in referring to the report that a certain member of his congregation had become insane, stated that such a report was false and handed the following letter for publication:

TORONTO, WEDNESDAY, June 15.

Editor World: The man who was reported today as being insane is Mr. Charles B. Taylor of 190 Shaw-street, Toronto. Mr. Taylor came in connection with my church during our services in Murray Hall. I have known him during these few months as a steady, devoted, honest Christian man. But for nearly four weeks he has been in ill-health, out of work and a small family of four children dependant upon him. I am fully satisfied that his affliction is the cause of his insanity. He has only been in our camp-meeting services a few times and then did not remain but a few minutes each time, with the exception of last Sabbath morning. I am very sorry that any person should attempt to tack this on to the work of God. J. McD. KERR.

The directors of the Bank of Toronto have pleasure in presenting to the shareholders the 36th annual report, together with a statement of the accounts, as on May 31 last.

The net profits realized compare favorably with former years, and the bank continues to show an increase in all the departments of its business.

Your directors are pleased to report that they have been able to place $50,000 to the credit of profit and loss account, representing amounts recovered from debts which had been written off in previous years.

An office of the Bank has been recently opened in the Point St. Charles District, in the City of Montreal, and your Directors believe it will prove to be of service to the Bank.

The Directors have to refer with deep regret to the loss the Bank has sustained in the decease of their late colleague, Mr. John Leys. His tenure of office was a short one, but he rendered the Bank essential service, and his counsels were highly valued. The vacancy thus caused was filled by the election of Mr. Robert Reford of Montreal.

The Directors have pleasure in testifying to the satisfactory manner in which the officers of the Bank have performed their respective duties.

The whole respectfully submitted.

(Signed) GEORGE GOODERHAM, President.

The above having been read, the President, George Gooderham, Esq., addressed the meeting as follows:

GENTLEMEN,—In moving the adoption of the report which has just been read, I would take the opportunity of very briefly calling your attention to some of the subjects referred to therein.

Speaking of the past year generally, the most conspicuous feature in the financial situation throughout the world has been the continual accumulation of unemployed money, which has been accompanied by a state of heaviness in general business, and an absence of new outlets for capital. In the United States the extraordinary production and export of breadstuffs, cotton and other products, together with the steadily increasing amount of silver notes issued against purchases of silver made by the Treasury under the Act of 1890, caused a plethora of available bank funds in that country, while the steady decline in the gold surplus and the uncertainty as to the future effect of the silver laws produced a state of inactivity and distrust. Other causes, into which it is not necessary for me to enter, have affected other financial centres, and in this country the general features to which I have before referred have markedly characterized the business situation, producing a state of affairs which has not been favorable to banking operations generally. Under these circumstances it is gratifying to be able to report that we do not show any decrease in our net profits.

As regards the progress of the Bank, you may remember last year that I presented to you some figures showing the increase in the business of the Bank, taken from our reports at intervals of ten years. A comparison of the figures of this year will show that we have again to report an advance in every department, our circulation having reached a point within $60,000 of the maximum permitted under our charter, while the volume of our transactions has been greatly in excess of anything we have as yet experienced. The competition which now prevails affects both the rate paid for deposits and the rates obtained upon loans, rendering it difficult to increase the earnings, and it is largely on account of increased business that we have been enabled to maintain our profits.

Referring to other items in the report, I have to call your attention to the sum recovered from debts that had been written off as bad and doubtful. We have always tried to act on the safe side in estimating the results of our yearly business, and in cases where we have felt uncertain as to the future of any of our loans have sought to make ample provision, but we by no means lose sight of anything we write off, and care is taken to nurse these debts back into strength, and to avail ourselves of every opportunity to make the best of them. These old matters are kept constantly before us, and we have the pleasure of placing back amongst our assets proceeds of such debts when realized. From this source we have this year given our profit and loss account credit for $50,000, which, together with the surplus profits after payment of $200,000 in dividends, has enabled us to add $100,000 to our rest, and to bring forward the substantial balance of $38,983.95 to next year.

The rest now amounts to $1,700,000, and it is customary to compare the proportion this fund bears in relation to the capital. Upon this basis our proportion is eighty-five per cent. I prefer, however, to call your attention to the proportion which our rest bears to our loans and discounts, since it is as a provision against possible losses arising from that source that a Rest should be maintained. Based, therefore, upon nearly $11,000,000 outstanding in loans, we have a Rest fund of 15½ per cent. Viewed in this way the margin provided as a reserve is by no means too large, and I consider that this fund should continue to maintain a reasonable ratio to our increase in business. I feel that I have but to call your attention to this view of the Rest to secure your approval of our action in strengthening it, and I have to say further that the shareholders are now reaping great benefit from the policy which has been pursued in the past with regard to this fund.

A branch of the Bank at Point St. Charles, in the city of Montreal, was opened very recently, and we have reason to believe it will prove to be of advantage to many of our customers and lead to increased business for the Bank.

The report refers to the loss the Bank has sustained in the death of our late colleague, Mr. John Leys. He had been a member of the Board for a short time only, but rendered valued assistance and gave promise of being a very useful director. To fill the vacancy thus caused, the Directors, acting under the powers conferred upon them, elected Mr. Robert Reford of Montreal, a well-known and highly-valued customer of the Bank, it being deemed desirable to have on the Board a representative from that commercial centre, where the Bank's interests are steadily increasing in importance.

I have again pleasure in bearing testimony to the zeal and efficiency with which the General Manager and the other members of the staff continue to discharge their respective duties.

With these remarks, gentlemen, I beg leave to move, seconded by the vice-president, that the report now read be received and adopted.

In seconding the adoption of the report Mr. W. H. Beatty referred to the change that had been made in Mr. Coulson's duties on his being appointed general manager, by which he had been relieved of the management of the Toronto office, which has been placed in charge of Mr. W. R. Wadsworth, formerly manager at London, Ont. He said that this change was decidedly in the bank's interests, the proof of which was seen in the report which had been presented to the shareholders yesterday. He also referred to the increase that had taken place in the business of the bank since Mr. George Gooderham assumed the presidency, and he had been appointed vice-president, and by comparing the statements at the time when they took office with those presented to-day he showed that the business had doubled. He concluded with a very feeling reference to the present severe illness of Mr. Fulton, an esteemed Director of the Bank.

The report was adopted and the thanks of the Stockholders were tendered to the President and Vice-President and Directors for their care and attention to the interests of the Bank during the past year.

The following named gentlemen were elected directors for the year:

GEO. GOODERHAM, ALEX. T. FULTON,
WM. H. BEATTY, HENRY COVERT,
HENRY CAWTHRA, WM. GEO. GOODERHAM.
ROBERT REFORD.

The new Board met the same afternoon, when George Gooderham, Esq., was unanimously re-elected President and William H. Beatty, Esq., Vice-President.

The Seventeenth Annual General meeting of the Imperial Bank of Canada was held, in pursuance of the terms of the charter, at the Banking House of the institution, 15th June, 1892. There were present:

Messrs. H. S. Howland, T. R. Merritt (St. Catharines), T. R. Wadsworth (Weston), Robert Jaffray, Hugh Ryan, Rev. E. B. Lawler, George Robinson, R. S. Cassels, Wm. Ramsay of Bowland, Scotland; T. Sutherland Stayner, Joseph Whitehead, Quebec; W. B. Hamilton, John Stewart, David Kidd, Hamilton; Robert Beaty, R. L. Benson, Peterboro; H. S. Northrop, J. H. Patterson, R. Thompson, John Balu, Q.C., J. J. Gould, Uxbridge; R. H. Ramsay, S. Nordheimer, Dr. Thorburn, J. K. Fiskin, D. R. Wilkie, etc., etc.

The chair was taken by the President, Mr. H. S. Howland, and Mr. D. R. Wilkie was requested to act as secretary.

The Secretary, at the request of the Chairman, read the Report of the Directors and the statement of affairs.

The Report.

The Directors have much pleasure in meeting the Shareholders and beg to submit the Seventeenth Annual Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss Account of the Bank for the year ending 31st May, 1892.

Out of the profits for the year and balance of Profit and Loss Account carried forward from last year:

(a) Dividends have been paid at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, and in addition thereto, a bonus of one per cent., amounting in all to $171,622.80.

(b) Rest Account has been increased by $50,000.

(c) Bank Premises Account has been credited with $6276.63.

(d) The Fund to cover Rebate on bills discounted current has been supplemented by an appropriation of $3643.74.

The allotment to shareholders of $500,000 new stock has been taken up to the extent of $463,600. The disposition to be made of the unsubscribed shares, within the provisions of the Bank Act, is a matter for future consideration on the part of your Directors.

The deposits and note circulation of the Bank have increased during the year in the sum of $1,326,723.

Keeping pace, in a measure, with railway development in the Northwest Territories, a branch of the Bank has been opened during the year at Edmonton, Alberta.

The new premises at Brandon, Manitoba, the property of the Bank, have been in occupation since 13th March, and meet, in every respect, the requirements of the Bank.

The necessity of providing suitable accommodation at Calgary for the business of the Bank has induced your Directors to purchase premises, at a reasonable cost, on the corner of Stephen-avenue and McTavish-street, which is is expected will be at an early date ready for occupation.

The scarcity of idle capital in the Northwest seeking investment necessitates the ownership by the Bank of banking premises at several points; care has, however, been taken from time to time to reduce below cost, by appropriations from profit and loss account, the value at which these and other banking premises are held as assets.

You will be asked to approve of and to aid in the establishment of an Officers' and Employes' Mutual Guarantee Fund; which fund your Directors believe will not only be an economical and otherwise excellent substitute for the system of Officers' Guarantees now in force, but will tend to community of interests on the part of the officials themselves.

The policy of maintaining ample Cash Reserves and of investing a considerable portion of the funds of the Bank in first-class readily-convertible securities, although curtailing immediate profits, enables the Bank to avail itself from time to time of any good business that offers, and ensures the full and continued confidence of the public and of Shareholders.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

H. S. HOWLAND, President.

THE GREAT FIRE SALE AT JAMES EATON'S FAIR

THE DRESS GOODS.

The most gigantic bargains in Dress Goods ever offered to the buying public. Thousands of yards must be sold. Hardly a yard in the store but was more or less damaged by smoke, and we have therefore decided to clear the whole lot out—no thought whatever of the loss.

8500 yards of Dress Goods, wool and cotton, all to be cleared out at 5c a yd.

2000 yards of Pacific Delaines, fast colors, worth 10c, to be sold at 5c a yd.

1500 yards of light shade Tweeds, fawns and greys, double width, regular 20c goods, all will be reduced to 12½c a yard.

THE STAPLES.

The greatest sale of Sateens ever held in Toronto commenced here on Monday morning. We made a purchase last week close on 10,000 yards of the Finest French Sateens, all at one straight price; every yard is worth 20c and some worth 25 to 30c. We are enabled to announce the sale of these at 10 and 12½c yard. You never saw the like before.

25c Table Linens reduced to 15c yard.

All Linen Towels were 12½c and 15c, reduced to 8c each, slightly damaged.

White Marseilles Quilts were from $2.50 to $4, reduced to $1.69, slightly damaged.

Victoria Lawns, 40-inch, were 20, 18 and 15c, all at 10c yd.

10c Indigo Print to be sold at 5c yd.

UNDERWEAR.

Here, under this heading in this department, we can preach till the sound reaches from the Atlantic to the Pacific Oceans. No person ever saw Ladies' White Underwear retailed at such prices before. One of the reasons was that these white garments were more easily soiled by smoke. Monday morning we brought forward the reserves and placed them on the counters.

1st lot—Damaged Drawers, Chemise, Gowns, were $1.25 to $2, all to be sold at 75c.

A whole counter filled with the soiled and damaged goods, all marked in plain figures, reductions nearly 50 per cent.

Table of Children's White and Colored Dresses at four prices, 85c, $1.25, $1.50 and $2, just half price.

Table of Gowns, Blouses, Chemise, etc., all at $1, half price.

A RAILWAY ITEM.

MR. H. M. LOCKWOOD, of Lindsay, Ont., whose portrait follows, is a well-known Railway employee, and has lived in Lindsay for the past three years.

Mr. Lockwood was born and brought up in Hastings County, where his kindly disposition and sterling qualities have made for him a large circle of warm friends.

The incidents which are related by Mr. Lockwood are vouched for by numerous friends in Lindsay who are acquainted with all the facts.

MR. H. M. LOCKWOOD.

Mr. Lockwood writes as follows:

"I was terribly afflicted with boils, having no less than 53 in eight months, during that time I tried many remedies without relief, Doctors' medicine did not relieve me, in fact I could not get rid of them at all until I began using B.B.B. It completely cured me, and I have not had a boil since taking the first bottle. I write this to induce those afflicted with boils to try B.B.B. and get cured, for I am confident that but for Burdock Blood Bitters I would still have had those terrible boils, which shows plainly the complete blood cleansing properties of this medicine, because everything else that I tried failed.

"A friend of mine who also suffered from boils, took one bottle by my advice and thanks to B.B.B. his boils all disappeared."

As a perfect blood purifier, cleanser and tonic, Burdock Blood Bitters excels all others. In addition to this it has properties not possessed by any other remedy; it regulates the bowels, thus curing constipation; it tones the liver and removes biliousness; it strengthens the stomach and cures dyspepsia. In a word it regulates, tones and strengthens every organ of the body in a natural and effective manner and thus restores perfect health.

THE DEHORNING QUESTION.

Its Pros and Cons Threshed Out Before the Commission.

The Cattle Dehorning Commission resumed work yesterday under the chairmanship of Hon. Charles Drury. Commissioners present were: Mr. H. Glendenning of Manilla, Dr. Andrew Smith of Toronto, Mr. James Macpherson of Lancaster, Mr. Richard Gibson of Delaware, and Secretary J. J. Kelso. The time was principally occupied in examining witnesses concerning the merits and demerits of dehorning.

The first called was John Mallon, butcher of St. Lawrence Market, and he expressed himself in favor of dehorning cattle, owing to the damage they effected by "hooking" with their horns.

William Booth, butcher, also testified in favor of dehorning. He considered that from 8 to 10 per cent. of cattle suffered damage by "hooking" one another, and that 3 per cent. were positively injured thereby.

Sylvester Halligan also adduced evidence in favor of the cutting off process. He is a whole-sale buyer and shipper.

Ald. John Hallam spoke rather vehemently against the operation, as being unnecessary and cruel, also against the practice of cutting off lambs' tails. A laugh or two ensued during the counter-questioning, which relieved the sterile monotony of the proceedings.

David Walker, caretaker of the market, said he was not in a position to speak with authority on the point at issue, but from what he had seen of the damage effected by horns he was in favor of removing them. William Kelly, butcher, also favored dehorning.

William Mole, V.S., of Hamilton endured a long cross-examination, but remained firm in his belief that the means did not justify the end—in other words, that the pain of dehorning was greater than that which it sought to alleviate.

Constable Willis, special officer for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was opposed to the operation on humanitarian grounds, but could not speak with authority on the actual pain caused by the process.

Ed. Thompson, Inspector of Hides, testified that of the 50,000 hides which passed under his notice during a year, damage to the amount of $250 was caused by "hooking."

At this point the meeting was adjourned, but will be reopened to-morrow at 10 a.m., when a number of wholesale exporters will be examined.

ISOLATION HOSPITAL SITE FIXED.

But Only After a Wordy Warfare Between the Mayor and Ald. Graham.

The site for the Isolation Hospital has at last been fixed upon. It will be right inside the jail wall where the stable now stands. The Mayor, Ald. Graham, Burns and Lamb, Dr. Allen, ex-Ald. Macdonald and Solicitor Greer visited the park behind the jail on Tuesday and fixed upon that site.

Before a conclusion had been arrived at the Mayor expressed many doubts as to the possibility of the Government allowing the city to use this site.

Ald. Graham, as chairman of the Board of Health, was anxious that the building should be begun as soon as possible. He assured the Mayor that Sir Oliver Mowat had given his word that the Government would enter no objection on account of the proximity to the jail. But still His Worship continued to play the doubting Thomas. Ald. Graham had long ago become convinced that the Mayor was an obstructionist, and he told him so rather forcibly. The Mayor denied this, but Ald. Graham had more to say for his benefit. He believed that the Mayor had opposed the northern site because the property of a certain Mr. R. J. Fleming was in the neighborhood.

The air got warm about this time and loud words were answered by louder words, while His Worship received very questionable compliments from the doughty chairman of the Local Board of Health. Perhaps something stronger than wind would have followed had not the genial Ald. Lamb interposed.

THE GATES MUST BE ERECTED

But the Council Does Not Wish to Pay Too Much.

The York County Council resumed its meetings yesterday at 10 a.m., Warden Forster in the chair, the members looking none the worse for Tuesday's excursion. The morning session was light, the main work done being the appointment of Messrs. Tyrrell, Evans, Stephenson, Pegg, Pugsley, Richardson, Humberstone, Stokes and the Warden as a committee to look after the county's interests in the matter of the railway crossings at Dufferin and Bathurst-streets before the Railway Committee of the Privy Council, the members thinking that the county should not be asked to pay for the gates. Later on Mr. Evans moved that Mr. McFarlane be instructed to make a diagram of a part of the Lake Shore Road west of the G.T.R. crossing at Sunnyside, showing the position of the telephone poles on the road. This was carried, and the council adjourned until 3 p.m.

In the afternoon the township of King received $46, and the village of Woodbridge $46.65, to assist in transporting indigent persons to England. Permission was given for the incorporation of the Toronto and Scarboro Electric Railroad. Some other business of a miscellaneous character was done, and the council adjourned at 4.30 p.m.

The Congregational Union.

At the closing meeting the address on "Social Reform" by Rev. John Burton of Toronto was the principal topic of discussion. Rev. Charles Duff of Toronto approved of the address as a whole and held with Major Bond that the point at which the long-hoped-for Christian unity would be materialized was the practical application of the golden rule to the social and moral questions of the world. Mr. Burton asserted that love as a mere emotion was not fulfilment of Christian ethics. The Christian love that has been termed "gush" would accomplish nothing. The practical application of charity and justice was needed. Rev. Dr. Wild of Toronto opposed the placing of the paper in the Year Book on the ground that it contained fallacies. It practically advocated connection between church and state to enforce the principles taught by the church. As a result the paper was adopted with the understanding that it should not appear in the Year Book. The name of Rev. J. F. Gerrie of Toronto was suggested as that of secretary for 1892-93. He was unanimously elected amid loud applause. Rev. J. T. Daley was elected statistical secretary. Rev. Mr. McGregor of Forest, late of Toronto, presided at the farewell meeting.

The Quality of Milk We Get.

During May 50 samples were collected from wholesale wagons or at Union Station as supplied to city vendors as tested by Dr. A. R. Fyne, analyst. Thirty of said samples, upon analysis, were found to contain 12 per cent. or over of solids and 3 per cent. B fat. The names and address of these producers are as follows: J. Kerton, R. Purdie, W. Purdie, two samples, and I. and T. Brennan of Malvern or Woburn; J. Hawkins, M. Winn, W. Pallett, A. McPherson, George Thompson and H. Pallett of Islington; W. Fisher, Burlington; W. J. Carter and McNeill, Oakville; W. G. Peacock, Bronte; C. Newhouse, Edmunton; T. Mitchell, S. Coxworth, W. Scott, I. W. Covis and W. Coxworth, Claremont; A. B. Haines and W. Phillips, Aurora; T. H. Pearen, Summerhill; George McKenzie, Bolton; Hugh Clark, Shaw Station; George Steggall, Springfield; M. McDougall, Beatty. In all cases the retail dealers have received a copy of report of analysis informing them of the quality of the milk they received and when the sample was deficient a report was also sent to producer informing him that unless a better quality were produced he would not be permitted to deliver milk in city.

The Dog Didn't Like Policemen.

In the Police Court yesterday afternoon Mrs. Sopith Choptia, who resides at 22 Wellington-place, was summoned to answer the charge of keeping a vicious dog. She did not appear in person, Dr. Campbell presenting a doctor's certificate as to her illness, and asking to be allowed to enter a plea for her. Mr. Baxter agreed to go on with the case and the doctor pleaded not guilty. Two policemen and two civilians, one of whom was deaf and dumb, testified that the dog, which is a large Newfoundland, attacked them on various occasions. Two boys were called as witnesses for the defence; but their evidence practically substantiated the charge, and Mr. Baxter imposed a fine of $5 and costs or ten days. The sentence will not be enforced should the dog be delivered up to the police within 24 hours.

West End Improvements.

A large representative meeting of Queen-street west property-owners took place Tuesday evening at Mr. John Laxton's office, Parkdale. The dangerous condition of the Lake Shore-road, owing to the Mimico Electric Company laying down their rails and also a similar danger likely to take place at the subway, it was thought, would have the effect of diverting traffic from Queen-street unless immediate steps were taken by the council to rebuild the subway and open up at once the Queen-street entrance to High Park. A committee was formed to interview the owners of land specially interested in the subway, in order to get them to waive all claims for damages so the work may go on this summer.

Parmelee's Vegetable Pills contain Mandrake and Dandelion; they cure Liver and Kidney Complaints with unerring certainty. They also contain Roots and Herbs which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels. Mr. E. A. Cairncross, Shakespeare, writes: "I consider Parmelee's Pills an excellent remedy for Biliousness and Derangement of the Liver, having used them myself for some time."

A Shop License Transferred.

The license commissioners have granted the transference of the shop license of George Forbes from Caer-Howell and William-streets to Queen-street, opposite Dunn-avenue. Petitions against the transfer were presented, but as some people had signed both the petitions for and against they had little weight with the commissioners.

"August Flower"

Perhaps you do not believe these statements concerning Green's August Flower. Well, we can't make you. We can't force conviction into your head or medicine into your throat. We don't want to. The money is yours, and the misery is yours; and until you are willing to believe, and spend the one for the relief of the other, they will stay so. John H. Foster, 1122 Brown Street, Philadelphia, says: "My wife is a little Scotch woman, thirty years of age and of a naturally delicate disposition. For five or six years past she has been suffering from Dyspepsia. She became so bad at last that she could not sit down to a meal but she had to vomit it as soon as she had eaten it. Two bottles of your August Flower have cured her, after many doctors failed. She can now eat anything, and enjoy it; and as for Dyspepsia, she does not know that she ever had it."

Gossip From Chicago.

Kennett, Hopkins & Co. to R. Cochran: Covering by shorts and a sensational Russian despatch stating crop prospects for that country to be worse than last year saved the market to-day. Few really take any stock in the Russian news, but it forced in a few shorts. Exports were light, receipts at primary markets large, good crop reports and weak foreign markets were to-day's features. Fake news may have a temporary effect, but will not improve the situation for holders. Corn and oats—The old bull clique is at work in corn, milking the market and forcing in shorts, in spite of the big receipts and fine corn weather, with a fair quality of no grade corn selling in the sample crowd at 33c. They bid July up to 47c, because contract stocks render manipulation possible. It is believed that a week or two of dry weather will greatly improve the grading. Provisions steady to firm, with but little doing.

Walker & Co. to John J. Dixon & Co.: Wheat opened weak and lower on weak cables, fine weather, big receipts and rumor that Senate has passed the Hatch Bill. Longs sold freely and the bears had friendly feeling to the short side again and sold. What little outside trade there was came in and took the offerings, causing slight reaction and steadying prices. Along middle of the session cables were received saying that Russian crop would be smaller than last year, and the crowd tried to cover and an advance of ¼c was quickly made. New York denied it later, and prices gradually sagged off, closing steady at ⅝c over the opening price. We cannot see very much to bull the market on without damage does occur on the Continent. Corn receipts were big, but prices have been firm, shorts feeling as if times to cover up with present weather. Don't see much to bull on. Although grain was weak, provisions opened firm and have made some advance. It shows that the provision market is steadily growing and that confidence in higher prices is becoming more general. There is nothing in the situation to indicate any serious decline, and we say once more buy before the market gets too far away.

Guff From Gotham.

Henry Allen & Co. to John J. Dixon & Co.: The stock market, continuing to reflect natural conditions, advanced again to-day. In the afternoon there was something of a reaction, but the changes of the day were generally on the side of advances. There is no questioning the general change in the sentiment of the street. Interests which were almost without hope a fortnight ago are now ready to engage earnestly on the bull side. After an advance of two or three days there have, of course, been realizing sales to-day. The short interest is hardly diminished. St. Paul, Rock Island and other Granger stocks are sure of further advances unless some very serious obstacle intervenes. Until the coal stocks Reading was down in point and the others have hesitated somewhat, but the realization sales to-day are likely to be preliminary only to re-purchases to-morrow, or some other day soon. All the strongest interests of the street are on the bull side. The nomination of General Harrison by the Republican convention and the anticipated nomination of Mr. Cleveland by the Democrats removes all threats of debasing the currency, and as a result conservative financial interests are much encouraged.
