COMMERCIAL.

Local Market.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Saturday, Sept. 29.

We had a real old time market today. There was lots of stuff and lots of people to buy it. Some difficulty was experienced in finding buyers for hay, potatoes and beef, but this is not to be wondered at, as these lines have for some months been much higher than are other markets near by. Sellers found it necessary to reduce the price, and when that was done the movement became general, and at going to press nearly everything of anything like good quality had found purchasers. Wheat came forward freely; the quality of offering was much improved. Buying was general. The wheat market was quite a satisfaction to both the selling and buying side. London today, for the first time, gave something like the volume the prices paid for the last month deserve. Wheat values were: Hard red, such as Manchester, Golden Cross, Scott and Mediterranean sold at 85c to 87c; soft wheats, Rogers and Clawson, sold at 83c to 85c; whites brought 87c to 91c. Over 90c was seldom paid, and only for extra clean, pure, bright samples. Oats opened strong at 82c to 84c, with a strong preference for white. Lower advices from outside made millers and shippers hold off early, as they found as those figures they could not realize profits. Receipts increased considerably towards 9:30 o'clock, and a sharp break of 2c occurred in the general market. Of course some loads sold at the old price to private parties, and in cases where buyers were running each other, but the bulk and main sales were at the close being made at 80c and 82c, with whites still leading. Barley receipts were heavier, but did not increase in proportion with other stuff. A few loads were sold somewhere between 80c and 85c, both the buyers and sellers not being inclined to state the actual price. We heard 80c and 81c bid for feeding and 83c for malting samples. Peas steady at 80c to 85c for ordinary stock; 87c to 90c was paid for sound lines, no rye offered. Corn quotations are about a week old. American corn is about 5c a bu lower since last sales here; it is likely this will effect future sales. Beans were offered in private deals and bids of 10c made; one lot sold at that price in the open market. Eggs still continue to climb the ladder, and today's sales show an exceedingly strong feeling; large lots sold at 14c to 16c per dozen, according to the quantity; retail sales were made at 16c to 19c. Butter was steady and if anything a little easier; crocks, 20c to 22c; pound rolls, 22c to 24c. Chickens, ducks and geese contributed a good share of today's receipts. The prices were about the same as on Thursday. There was a bountiful supply of meat, and much better sales, as far as the volume is concerned, but not quite so good when prices are considered. The general price of beef was 5c by the carcass, but some sold at 4½c, and the quality was almost equal to the best. Veal and lamb unchanged. Dressed hogs firm at $6 to $6 75. Trade in hides and skins steady; sales at 1c, 2c and 3c, according to quality. Grapes were easier, selling at 2c for Worden and Concord; 2½c and 3c for Niagara and Catawba. Peaches were steady at 45c to 70c. None of the really choice lots of extras reached the market. The supply was considerably heavier. There was a good inquiry and the stuff went off pretty well. Apples steady and unchanged. Fall sold at 30c to 60c per bag; winters, $1 to $1 50 per barrel. All the vegetable list was unchanged, with the exception of potatoes. Early sales of them were made at 70c to 75c. Receipts were too heavy for consumption, and at going to press many lots had not found purchasers and prices had reduced about 10c per bag, closing at 60c to 70c per bag. Tomatoes were a shade up at 30c to 40c. Hay opened at $9, but before 9 a.m. the receipts came down in the market from all quarters, and there was a regular deluge of it. At noon everything was pretty well cleared up, but at the low price of $8. Quotations:

The Cheese Situation.

The market has entered a quiet phase, with sales at about ⅛c to ¼c under those of last week, which was to be expected after the long and unbroken advance from 9c up to 11c. During the past two weeks several large quantities have changed hands, among which that of the Allan Grove combination stands out preeminent, amounting to about 20,000 boxes of August, September and October cheese, and footing up $100,000 in value. The figures paid were not made public, but it is believed they ranged from 10⅜c to 10¾c at the factories, has not yet been sold. Sales of several thousand boxes have been made in this market during the week at 10¼c to 10½c for fine to finest Quebec and 10⅛c to 10⅜c for fine to finest Ontario. Under grades have sold at 8½c to 10c.—[Bulletin

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE.

It pays to advertise, and no place of its size has as good advertising facilities as London to offer merchants. London has always been "newspapered" in advance of the size of the city. For instance, six complete newspapers are issued from this city:

The Daily Morning ADVERTISER.
The Daily Evening ADVERTISER.
The Weekly ADVERTISER.
The Daily Morning Free Press.
The Daily Evening Free Press.
The Weekly Free Press.

It may not be generally known, that apart from the two evening newspapers mentioned, London is the only place in Ontario, outside of Toronto, in which early morning newspapers are published, which speaks something for the determination of London publishers to keep well in advance of the needs of the community.

As to the ADVERTISER, its relations with the general public were never more harmonious and satisfactory than at this moment, though it is our intention within a few weeks to add additional facilities which will still further assist our advertising patrons.

It is no part of the ADVERTISER'S methods to underrate the advertising value of any of its contemporaries throughout the Province, sufficient to say that the ADVERTISER'S circle of attached readers present a body of purchasers well worthy the attention of wide-awake business men, and that that circle is extending from year to year.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

Our friends the public will please remember that for all sorts of casual advertising, such as Help Wanted, Houses to Let, Amusements, Specific Articles for Sale, etc., etc., the ADVERTISER is an unsurpassed medium.

—The Partlow flour mill that was burned recently at Dorchester Station is being rebuilt.

—On Tuesday next Rev. Prof. Antliff, formerly of this city, will deliver the inaugural address at the Wesleyan Theological College in Montreal.

—Mr. James Stephenson, superintendent of the Grand Trunk, and Mrs. Stephenson have returned from Europe. Mr. Stephenson is fully restored in health.

—Herrmann has quite a large advance sale for tonight at the Grand. His feast this year are stronger and more fascinating than ever. London audiences always appreciate Herrmann.

—The market today was the largest in two years. It was principally of the garden truck variety.

—Mr. Harry Dell leaves on Monday for Montreal to resume his studies in comparative medicine at McGill University.

—Messrs. Louis Dawson, A. J. Wyckoff, Wm. Westland, Harry Silk and George H. Kennedy, leave on Monday to attend the Royal College of Dental Surgeons, Toronto.

—Mr. T. Arthur Miller, organist of the Church of the Ascension, Toronto, is here on a visit to his uncle, Mr. Thomas McMullen, of the stores department of the G. T. R., East London.

—Mr. S. P. Reynolds, principal of St. George's school, was yesterday presented with an address and a complete set of dental tools by his pupils. He leaves to study in the Ontario Dental College.

—George Stanley, one of the old Union School boys of 30 to 40 years ago, is in town for a day or two, after many wanderings. One of the first persons he looked up was Nicholas Wilson, his old teacher, by whom he was at once recognized.

—There were four drunks at the Police Court today. The first three were let down easy, but when the fourth declared that his exhilaration was due to cider the magistrate promptly fined him $10 or twenty days.

—Master Charles Hyman, son of Mr. C. S. Hyman, M.P., has been seriously ill in England. The many friends of the family will be pleased to learn that a cable received today states that there is daily a slight improvement in his condition.

—By mistake the name of J. Robb Coleman was omitted from the list of successful matriculants at the recent examination. He obtained, along with a first-class certificate, a matriculation certificate, with first class honors in mathematics, English, French and German.

—J. A. Rollins, of Exeter, Ont., has two elk that he is willing to sell to the park commission. Detroit Free Press. Ald. Coo has a picture of these elk. They are beauties. The alderman is trying, by private subscription, to purchase the animals for the waterworks park. They will be sold cheap.

—The Sodality of the B. V. M. (represented by its officers) surprised their director, Rev. M. J. Tiernan, yesterday, by waiting on him at his residence and asking his acceptance of a silver-headed, silk umbrella, as a slight token of the esteem in which the reverend father is held by that society, and also on account of his many acts of kindness to them. Father Tiernan warmly thanked the ladies for their good will and their forethought in assiting him to provide for a rainy day.

—The Stevens & Burns foundry is again in operation. Mr. Burns has retired, and the firm will be known as the Stevens Manufacturing Company. It is understood that Messrs. John Labatt, F. A. Fitzgerald and J. D. Fallows are the purchasers of the plant. An order for the examination of Mrs. James Burns has been made at the instance of James Wright & Co., who had a $9,000 account against the late firm of Stevens & Burns. The examination concerns the ownership of three brick houses on Craig street.
