Poetry.

FORGIVENESS.

Oh, wring the black drop from your heart
Before you kneel in prayer:
You do but mock the Mercy-seat
If hatred linger there.

How can you ask offended Heaven
To clear your soul's deep debt,
If 'neath your hate lies brother man—
Forgive, if not forget.

Remember sons of earth are born
To sorrow and to sin;
The poor and rich to dust return,
A few brief years within.

For guests that crowd round life's strange board,
Joy's cups are thinly set;
To poison them were fearful shame—
Forgive, if not forget.

In error, or in guiltness,
If men have wrought thee wrong,
From ways of wrath thy steps restrain,
In patience pass along,

Should retribution be thy right,
He will avenge thee yet,
Who mortal ill repayeth still—
Forgive, if not forget,

How pleasant when our orisons
We breathe at even tide,
To feel the heart untenanted
By anger or by pride.

Oh, blessed are the merciful,
Whose hopes on high are set;
Like them release thy soul in peace—
Forgive, and thou'lt forget.

A FAIR DEMAND.—The Constitutionnel (Paris) tells a story of an American young lady who has just been married to a captain in the navy. The bridegroom having been ordered to join his ship, the bride wrote to the Secretary of the Navy, and referred him to the 5th verse of the 24th chapter of Deuteronomy, which says—"When a man hath taken a new wife, he shall not go out to war, neither shall he be charged with any business; but he shall be free one year, and shall cheer up his wife which he hath taken."

A sailor having lost his cap while looking out of a carriage on the Great Western Railway, leaped the window while the train was going at the rate of thirty miles an hour: he rolled down an embankment and escaped with a cut face and a bruised arm. Had he fallen on level ground, the leap might have been his last. In explanation of his conduct, he said he was sailing so steadily, that he imagined the ship was making scarcely five knots an hour.

LORD WESTMINSTER has just received Mr. HOLLOWAY'S Medicine, for which he returns him his best thanks.

Eaton Hall, Cheshire, Feb. 12, 1842.

This inestimable Medicine being composed entirely of medicinal Herbs, does not contain any mercurial, mineral, or deleterious substances. Benign to the tender infant, or to the weakest constitution, prompt and sure in eradicating disease from the most robust frame, it is perfectly harmless in its operations and effects, while it searches out and removes Complaints of every character, and at every stage, however long standing or deeply rooted.

Of the Thousands cured by its agency, many who were on the verge of the grave for a considerable period (by persevering in its use) have been RESTORED TO HEALTH AND STRENGTH, after every other means failed.

All Diseases (and whatever may be their symptoms, however they may declare themselves, yet one cause is common to them all, viz., a want of purity in the blood and fluids) are cured by this wonderful Medicine, which cleanses the stomach and bowels, while its Balsamic qualities clear the blood, give tone and energy to the nerves and muscles, invigorate the system, and strength to bone and sinew.

The Afflicted need not give himself up to despair, as one without hope, but let him make a proper trial of the Mighty Powers of this astonishing Medicine, and he will soon be restored to the blessings of Health.

These should not be lost in taking this Remedy for any of the following Diseases:—

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF

Buchan's Hungarian Balsam of Life,

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY FOR

Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Consumption.

THE most celebrated and infallible remedy for Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and every form of Pulmonary Consumption, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by the celebrated medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great Pulmonary Remedy."

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britain and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within seven years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada to Wisconsin, and its effects are every where alike astonishing and triumphant.

As a preventive medicine, and an antidote to the consumptive tendencies of the climate, it is invaluable. As a remedy for severe and obstinate coughs, Inflammation of the Lungs, Croup, &c. it is unrivalled. But the Proprietors are confident of the merit of this great remedy, in the words forced by consumption, that he prefers to have it used by the DYING INVALID, rather than by persons afflicted with some simple and less dangerous disorder of the throat and lungs:—this may seem strong language, but it is the result of experience in thousands of cases, sustained by the most intelligent and unimpeachable testimony. It is not pronounced an infallible remedy in all cases, but it is THE MOST INFALLIBLE remedy known to the civilized world. It is the best preventive of hereditary consumption—it is the best defender against the influences of climate—it is the best remedy for incipient consumption—and it is the great and only remedy for that fearful softening of the lungs—inflammation of the membrane, and tuberculous decay, which are the last effects of that dreadful scourge, and which are erroneously supposed to be beyond the reach of medical aid:—the agent of proprietors of other and further beyond the reach of hope.

Such is not the case with the Hungarian Balsam. It is always salutary in its effects—never injurious. It is not an opiate—it is not a tonic—it is not a mere expectorant. It is not intended to lull the invalid into a fatal security. It is a great remedy, a grand healing and curative compound; the great and only remedy which medical science and skill has yet produced for the treatment of this hitherto unconquerable malady. It is in fact the best remedy in the world!

[From the John Bull, newspaper, London.]

There is certainly some mysterious and occult virtue in the famous "Hungarian Balsam of Life which the medical faculty are unable to discover or Dr. Buchan would not be permitted for so many years to enjoy the magnificent monopoly of the treatment and cure of Consumption in Great Britain. No satisfactory analysis of this famous compound has ever, to our knowledge, been offered to the public.
