FOR THE WHIST CONGRESS.

Committee Has Already Received Many Entries, Including Several Noted Experts.

The committee in charge of the third Canadian Whist Congress held a meeting last evening at the Athenaeum Club, with the president, Mr. Walter Read, in the chair. Owing to the indications of a very large entry list, the meeting added the following to the Management Committee: John Crerar, Q. C. and G. H. Levy of Hamilton and O. Heron and Grant Forsyth of the Toronto Athletic Club, and C. H. Fuller of the Athenaeum Club.

Judge Lawson, professor of contract and international law of the University of Missouri, who is at present in the city, has accepted the committee's invitation to act as umpire, and if his partner arrives he will enter the pair competition.

The entries already received include the Rideau Club of Ottawa (G H Peally and Fred W Avery); the Lindsay Club four (J H Hopkins, J D Flavelle, S Knowson and Hugh O'Leary); the Athenaeum Club, Toronto, two teams of four (JM Verrall, J C Frazer, W Cox, W Mannison, E Corlett, C H Fuller, T D Richardson and H J Coleman); the Victoria Club, Toronto, two teams of four (J C Biggar, Vic Armstrong, A H Baines, Hy F Gall, Walter Read, V C Brown, E T Lightbourn and C Swabey); the Canoe Club, Toronto (Ed Beeton, T D Ellis, A L Young and J S Wallace). As the entries do not close until Monday, July 18, the list is very satisfactory; and, with the American experts, who have written that they will be here after the Boston Congress, which ends on Saturday, July 16, whist enthusiasts will have a rare opportunity to settle the question who are the better players and which the best system.

The Toronto Athletic Club rooms will afford splendid, cool accommodation, and players will not suffer from the heat, no matter how warm it may be.

The following are a few of the American experts who have written that they will be here: F J Tormey of San Francisco; Mark Forrest, editor of Whist, Milwaukee; Leonard Leigh, editor Whist Opinion, Baltimore; Walter H Barney, Providence; L G Parker, Toledo; Robert H Weems, Brooklyn, and B L Richards, Rock Rapids. The above players represent pairs and fours, so they may be taken as five or six club teams, and will include the best experts in America. Players may not again have such a favorable opportunity, and should make arrangements to contest for the numerous matches taking place during the three days' play.

Full details will be supplied by writing the secretary, W. A. Hunter, 235 Yonge-street, Toronto.

Lacrosse Points.

Stratford played Mitchell at Stratford yesterday a championship game, intermediate series, C.L.A., Huron District, resulting in favor of Stratford by 2 goals to 1.

The second match between the Capitals and Shamrocks for a cup will be played in Quebec on Saturday. On May 24 the Capitals defeated the Shamrocks in the first match for the trophy.

At Oakville yesterday the Midland District Junior C.L.A. match between Uxbridge and Bradford-Newmarket lacrosse teams, did not take place, Uxbridge having dropped out of the contest.

OTTAWA IN LEAGUE BASEBALL

Transfer of the Rochester Franchise Completed.

Syracuse Will Open the Capital Season on Friday — Buffalo Beat Toronto in the Orangemen's Game at the Island — The New Canadian League Schedule.

Messrs. Irwin and Frankland, proprietors of the Toronto and Buffalo clubs, were the least concerned men in the world yesterday. They sat on the bench together at the Island, and took nothing but pleasure out of the game. Both are quite satisfied with the turn of affairs in the Eastern, and they are certain the league will finish up all right. Everyone concedes that Ottawa's admission was a good move. There are 1000 civil servants who relinquish duties daily at 4 o'clock, and the great majority will take in every game. In the Canadian capital a splendid attendance is assured, and that city is likely in the game to stay.

Games to-day: Toronto at Springfield, Buffalo at Wilkes-Barre, Ottawa at Syracuse, Montreal at Providence.

Played Orange Baseball.

A splendid exhibition of mechanical baseball was given at the Island yesterday afternoon before 2000 Orangemen and their friends. The Irwinites and Bisons made a flying visit to fill the bill. They started at 2.30, and lost no time in superfluities. There was no regular umpire, and Chummy Gray of Buffalo, the only extra man on the grounds, officiated. He worked well, and no one kicked. Everything was taken good-naturedly and for granted, and the only extra play the crowd got for their money was furnished by Aid. Frankland, who was on the bench in a particularly merry mood, and he coached both sides without any delay.

The Bisons won by virtue of their double-plays and Doc Amole's perfect control, backed up by correct fielding. The Toronto hits hit the offener and the harder, and in three innings, including the ninth, were set back by fast double-plays. Williams only allowed one man to walk, and he scored the first run. Three hits and two errors followed for the bunch of tallies. Two hits and as many errors produced the two in the fifth.

Two singles and a double gave Toronto the brace of runs in the second, and Casey's hit and stolen base and a single yielded one in the third, which proved to be the last. Reisling satisfied the crowd with his clean first-base play. A high sky and bright sun caused several flies to fall safely. Contrary to custom, the Torontos sent the Bisons first to bat. Score:

Buck Fires Bill Eagan.

Syracuse, July 12.—Proprietor Kuntzsch's proposition to the Stars, which they at first accepted, has been declined. Meanwhile Kuntzsch retains his ownership of the team, and asserts that he will finish the season.

As a first step towards economy Bill Eagan was released last night. Lawrence has been called in from Utica and will play left field. Lush going to second. By the release of Lake, Eagan and Blackburn there is a saving of $375 a month. Three players have accepted reductions in salaries, the others must. The men who refuse will be kept until cheaper men can be had in their places, and then turned adrift. The salary list will within a week be less than $1800. A week ago it was $2500. The reduction in players means a saving of hundreds of dollars in railroad fares for the season.

George Bone of Pawtucket, shortstop, was signed last night, and will come on at once. He is a fast man and leads Pawtucket's batting list. He will be played at short and O'Brien sent to the outfield, or, if he doesn't accept the cut in salaries, released.

Ottawa is Baseball Crazy.

Ottawa, July 12.—Ottawa has a team in the Eastern Baseball League.

To-day the Rochester franchise was bought in by a syndicate headed by Mr. Alex. Graham, chairman of the O.A.A.C. Bowling Committee, and the season will open here on Friday, when the Ottawa team plays Syracuse.

Mr. P. T. Powers, president of the Eastern League, has agreed to the transfer to Ottawa, and this morning all papers were signed.

The town is baseball crazy, and undoubtedly the Ottawa team will draw big crowds.

There are yet 33 home games to be played, and 22 abroad. All the old players are transferred to Ottawa, and at the end of the season the club should be at least among the first three. Twenty-eight hundred dollars was paid for the franchise.

The first game in Ottawa on Friday afternoon should bring out not only the old time baseballists, but every lover of good scientific sport.

The Ottawa team will be composed of the following players: Boyd, Gunson, Kelly, Bonner, Keister, Bean, Walters, McHale and Clymer. Boyd and Gunson are catchers and Horton and Herndon pitchers.

Canadian League Starts To-Day.

St. Thomas, July 12.—London again took the locals into camp here to-day in an exhibition game. The home team had the game well in their grasp in the sixth innings, when Sutthoff got wild and passed several men on balls. This, mingled with a few good hits, placed the visitors in the lead. The new Canadian League opens here to-morrow with the London aggregation. The score:

										R.	H.	E.
St. Thomas	1	0	1	3	3	2	0	0	—10	10	1
London	0	2	0	0	1	4	0	5	*—12	11	9

Batteries—Sutthoff and Reid; Crowe and Roening. Umpire—Beal. Attendance—500.

The old International League constitution was amended to suit the new conditions, and each club was required to put up a guarantee deposit of $150, to be forfeited by any club that fails to complete the season. The race of the day was between Our Johnny and Lanky Bob, in the fifth. Lanky Bob was an odds-on favorite in the books, but the local pickers were down on Our Johnny. Rosebud Raa and Dropped Dead.

New York, July 12.—The sensation of the day at Brighton Beach was the death of Bromley's Rosebud from heart disease after winning the second race, in which he was the good thing. He staggered against the gate of the paddock and dropped on the track as if he had been shot. The Flight Handicap brought out a good field of starters, with Handsel as the favorite and Isidor second choice. Handsel took the lead and held it until they came into the stretch, when Isidor and Swiftmas passed him in a drive and finished in that order. Summary:
