BREAKING UP OF A RAFT IN THE GEORGIAN BAY WITH NINETEEN MEN ON IT.—Last Monday night Mr. Coatsworth of this city and 18 of his men had a narrow and almost miraculous escape from destruction by the breaking up of a raft on which they were floating, on the Georgian Bay. The raft, which contained between 5,000 and 6,000 feet of timber, was to have started from the mouth of the Nottawasaga by early on the morning of Monday; but the wind was too [illegible] to admit of the raft being floated off till about two o'clock, when, with the men upon it, the temporary structure was committed to the angry elements. They hoped to reach Collingwood Harbour before dark; the distance being about twelve miles. But night stole upon them long before they had reached their destination; snow began to fall, and an increased wind added to the commotion of the waters. Without compass or lights, and not knowing which way they were being driven, the perils of their situation may be imagined. Some of the men were sent ashore to make lights which should serve as a guide for them to steer by. But amid the storm of snow and the agitation of the waters, they soon lost sight of their special beacon fires. They were now hopelessly tossed about by the storm till three o'clock in the morning, when the raft went to pieces! The largest portion that remained was about 20 feet square; and upon this the 19 remaining men succeeded in placing themselves. They had but two boats; and these very small. Upon this fragment of the raft they remained till daylight, when it became manifest that it could hold together but a few minutes longer. Now the great danger was of crowding nineteen persons into two small boats, by no means fit to carry them with any certainty of safety. However they resolved all to get into the boats; taking this form of joint risk of the lives of the parties. At this time they were about four miles from shore. Their danger of being swamped in a heavy sea may be imagined. However, fortunately, they succeed in overcoming the perils of their situation, and reached here about nine o'clock in the morning, some ten miles west of Collingwood harbor.—Leader.

SAD ACCIDENT.—On Friday a fire broke out in the dwelling house of Mr. John Street, Streetsville, which was speedily subdued before any material damage had been done. Mr. Robert Leslie, experienced a serious hurt on the occasion. He had been on the top of the building exerting himself to extinguish the flames, when he missed his footing and was precipitated to the ground. Medical aid being promptly procured, it was found that Mr. Leslie had sustained internal injuries of a very dangerous nature.—Review.

BURGLARY ATTEMPTED.—On Tuesday night about twelve o'clock, an attempt was made to force open the store occupied by Mr. Ricaby, on King street, Dundas, Mr. Ricaby and his brother sleeping upon the premises, on hearing the threatening of the three assailants to enter them, they went away, but returned in about an hour and made another attempt to burst open the door, when Mr. Ricaby, who was watching them, fired a revolver at them. They then decamped.—Warder.

SHOP ROBBED.—On the night of the 8th. inst., Mr. Bucklar, Jeweller and Watchmaker at Bowmanville had a light broken from the window of his shop and five watches filched by a villian, who escaped unnaught. Mr Bucklar was absent only a few minutes to his tea when the deed was done.—Oshawa Vindicator.

THE LATE FIRE AT KINGSTON.—The fire broke out between 2 and 3 o'clock on Saturday morning, Scobell's large wharf store. It is not known where it originated, as no fire was used in the building and the store had been closed about 6 o'clock the previous evening. Fanned by a strong lake wind, the flames soon enveloped this large building, extended to Mr. Scobell's cooperage, thence on to the warehouse and wharf of the Hon. Hamilton, and some small buildings adjoining. Once to the large warehouse of Macpherson & Cane, and so on until their progress was by the vigorous and well directed efforts of the fire brigade, of the military (who were out in strong force under the immediate direction of Col. Young, Savage, and other officers) and of a number of citizens, arrested at Queen street. Looking at the great extent of the fire at this time, and the [illegible] of the gale, it is really surprising that the progress of the flames should have been stayed at a point short of the shore of the lower bay and the fact that they were thus checked, marks in no longest light the vigor with which the firemen, military and others combatted the devouring element.

At the time of the breaking out of the fire, a considerable number of steamers, schooners, and boats were moored along side the wharves between Brock and Barrack streets, especially in the occupied by Messrs Macpherson & Cane, a heavy sea, driven into the harbor by a S.S. wind rendered it impossible to move without aid of steam, while the progress of the flames so rapid that barely sufficient time was given to get it up; this was done, however, on behalf of New England "Canada," and the "Dominion," and these steamers were at once employed in towing out schooners and barges to [illegible] service which was effectively performed. But one schooner, as we have already [illegible] received damage by fire, and a wood [illegible] was destroyed.

[illegible] fire was more destructive than any [illegible] Kingston has been visited since 1840, [illegible] now the loss at a greater figure [illegible] £20,000 will probably more than [illegible] the insurance.

[illegible] of one of the worst scenes of the fire [illegible] a power for explosion—was spared us, [illegible] by the prompt action and intrepidity [illegible] gentlemen, who on hearing that about [illegible] kegs of powder were in Messrs Macpherson [illegible], where it was awaiting shipment, [illegible] out and threw it all into the river. [illegible] was an abundant supply of water to the [illegible] and complaints were made of the inferiority in quantity and quality of the hose. [illegible] matter which should be looked to by our Fathers, in a spirit wise enough and liberal enough to permit a just municipal spirit to govern [illegible] of fire using the material for the purpose.—News.

We have received a communication, in which [illegible] proved conclusively that there is nothing [illegible] the rules of the Latin grammar in the [illegible] on the Seal of McGill College; after [illegible] the writer makes the following [illegible]—

We may observe that on reading the Seal for [illegible] we seem to refer to the adjuration Regio, [illegible] for the simple reason [illegible] given in a light other as he [illegible] of which in some there are in [illegible] France. The name of Montreal, as [illegible] owns owners in Sardinia and Sicily. The Latin Motto suggests a doubt as to the correctness of Regio instead of Regio."—Herald.

ARREST OF A MAN ACCUSED OF THE LATE HORRIBLE MURDER AT YONGE STREET.—The Mercury is informed that the individual who recently murdered Madame Gauthier, at Yonge street, has been apprehended, and is now in the Three Rivers Gaol. His name is McGinnis. He appears to be a gaol-bird. The amount stolen is £140, with a watch. The appearance of the house, when the murdered corpse of the unfortunate woman was discovered, shows that a fearful struggle had taken place; the furniture was all smashed about and broken, the windows were broken, and the plastering pulled down in many places. The prisoner left behind him in the struggle a short front, which the unfortunate woman, in her dying efforts, dragged from the ruffian.—Montreal Herald.

The Kingston Whig says: "When Judge Burns ended the Sessions of the Court of Queen's Bench at Kingston on Sunday morning, he forgot to dispose of five prisoners committed for want of bail to keep the peace. As this kind of prisoners can only be discharged by the Court of Queen' Bench, in all probability they will have to remain in jail until the next April Assizes, unless the Magistrates who committed them come to Kingston specially, and consent to liberate them on their own recognizances."

QUERY—Did this arise from the forgetfulness of the Judge or the Sheriff?

The Episcopal Methodists have decided to establish their proposed academy at Belleville.

An old stable and shed, the property of the Rev. J. Harris, between Queen and Richmond Streets, were destroyed by fire on Tuesday evening last.

THE BAR.—The following gentlemen passed their full examination before the benches of the Law Society, on Monday the 21st instant:—Mr. J. D. Armour, A. B.; Wm. H. Burns; J. Currie. The two last gentlemen were thereupon called to the bar. Mr. Armour was not called, his term of three years not having expired.

A worthless vagabond obtained access in some way or other to a bedroom of McDonald's Tavern, Hamilton, from which, in the most leisurely manner, he abstracted various valuables belonging to the lodgers. The thief has not yet been apprehended.

SCHOONER WRECKED.—The schooner Jacques Cartier, laden with 19,000 barrels of flour, went ashore, near Colborne, in the storm of Tuesday the 16th inst. All hands were saved.

COST OF THE SEARCH FOR SIR JOHN FRANKLIN.—The different English expeditions have cost the British Government £801,466. The entire sum, expended on Arctic expeditions, within the last eight years, will amount to not far from one million sterling.

FEMALE ROBINSON CRUSOE.—A poor Indian woman was lately rescued from a small island in the Pacific, where she had been living alone for 18 years. A schooner on which she went to to the island was suddenly driven away by a gale of wind. She lived upon the flesh of birds during the whole time of her imprisonment, and made garments of their skins in a very ingenious manner. We hope Barnum may not get hold of her.

THE LATE ASSIST. COM. GEN. RICHARD INGLIS.

Some time ago we noticed the "sudden" death of this old friend and well known individual. We have now received from a correspondent the subjoined extract from a Cape Town paper, from which we lament to see that his death is with too much reason suspected to have been the work of an assassin. Mr. Inglis was born in the Parish of Granville, N. S., of which place his father, the Rev. Archibald Paine Inglis, was Rector, and where he died after an incumbency of about ten years. The subject of this notice passed his early boyhood in that parish, and he is still remembered there by such of his father's parishioners as yet survive:

SUPPOSED MURDER OF ASSISTANT COMMISSARY GENERAL INGLIS AT THE CAPE.—On Sunday, the 24th of April, Mr Inglis dined with Major Bisset; and on Monday morning early, two Commissariat Officers called at his quarters, and were terrified to find him weltering in his blood, from a dreadful wound at the back of the head. Mr. Inglis, who was perfectly sensible refused to tell how he came by the wound, and on the arrival of two medical men who were instantly sent for, he was equally silent. The wound presented the appearance of having been caused by a knife or an assegai, and had evidently been inflicted (there not being any spots of blood on his clothes, while a pool of blood was in bed. In spite of all that medical skill could effect, Mr. Inglis gradually sunk, and on Wednesday breathed his last. Several persons have been arrested, and brought before a Court of Enquiry; but up to this moment no clue to the murderer has been obtained. The funeral took place on Friday, the 29th, with the usual military honours to the Officers of the department to which he belonged. All the military officers were at the funeral, but there was no firing over the grave. The deceased had been 26 years in the Commissariat department, and Sir Harry Smith, during the war, always spoke of him as a zealous good Officer. Several marks of blood were on the body. The deceased was a bachelor, and 56 years of age. He was just on the eve of his departure for Europe. The European servant of the deceased is still in custody—the others are liberated.—Cape Paper.

A correspondent from Quebec writing on Nov. 5, says:—"There was an extraordinary snow squall of short duration, about noon to-day. It was so dark that houses in Champlain Street were invisible from Durham Terrace."

The Simcoe County Council have adopted a petition to the Legislature for the abolition of grand juries, and the appointment in lieu thereof of Crown prosecutors in each County. The recent disgraceful conduct of the Grand Jury in Montreal will have the effect of inducing other public bodies to act similarly to the County Council of Simcoe; and ultimately the institution of grand juries will be abolished, as one that is useless. It was disgraced by the conduct of the Grand Jury of Montreal.—Colonist.

The Kingston Herald of Friday states that a poor old widow woman, named Mary Evans, who resided in a room over the shop of Mr. Sweetman, corner of Queen and Wellington streets, was found at an early hour on Thursday morning burned to death. At the inquest, it appeared that whiskey was the cause of the fatal accident.—Globe.

The Government has given notice that the situation of Medical Superintendent of the Provincial Lunatic Asylum is vacant, and that applications for the same will be received by the Government, until the 1st of February next. The salary is £500 per annum, with a residence in the Asylum.—Patriot.

Mr. Brouilgeest has in the columns of a contemporary suggested the propriety of obtaining in this city a floating Fire-engine, and we hope that our Fire Department and others interested will give the matter the consideration it so justly deserves.—Patriot.

CONDUCT OF THE SOLDIERS AT THE GAVAZZI RIOTS AT MONTREAL.—A Court Martial was held at Montreal on the 18th inst., on the soldiers who gave such strangely conflicting testimony on the "orders to fire" at the Gavazzi Riots. One thing is very certain,—either the officers or the soldiers stated what was not true at the Inquest; and public justice, no less than military discipline, requires that the matter should be thoroughly sifted, and the guilty punished.—Ib.

THE ECPLANADE.—Mr. Alderman Thompson, who returned to the city yesterday, from Quebec, stated in the Council last evening, that he had fully succeeded in the object of his mission, the Government having entirely approved of the plan adopted by the City Council, and undertaken to furnish every necessary authority for disposing of the vacant lands south of Front Street, in order that the funds derived therefrom may be devoted to the improvement of the frontage and other public works.—Ib.

The Treasurer of the Toronto House of Industry, begs to acknowledge with many thanks the receipt of Fifty Pounds, sterling, (£242 4s. 6d., currency) from Lewis Moffat, Esq., as a donation to that Institution, from Alexander Gillespie, Esq., of No. 6 Billiter Court, London.

The opening of the Great Western Railway, for traffic, between Hamilton and the Falls of Niagara, has been unavoidably postponed until next week.

It is announced that Wm. Hamilton Penton, Esq., has been appointed Registrar of Hastings, in the place of Mr. Benjamin, removed.

NIAGARA.—It is proposed to light the town of Niagara with gas.

GRAND TRUNK SHARES.—The price is still improving—on the 3rd inst. they advanced five shillings per share in the London market.

SHIPPING.—We learn from Quebec that there are still 100 vessels in that port.

FAIRY QUEEN.—The Grand Jury at Picton, on the 20th ult., found a true bill for manslaughter against the whole of the crew of the Fairy Queen.

THE STEAMER KALOOLAH.—For some time a good deal of anxiety was felt respecting the fate of this vessel, which at present is plying on Lake Huron. The crank of the engine broke when about seven miles from Manitowaning, but she made the port in safety. The engineer left Manitowaning in an open boat, so that the delay in hearing of the steamer is accounted for.

European News.

WRECK OF THE ANNE JANE.—The Captain, it appears, is responsible for this fearful catastrophe. At the commencement of the storm, he yielded to the solicitation of the passengers, and turned her head for Liverpool, but when the night came on he changed his mind, and put the ship about for Quebec. The passengers remonstrated with the Captain, who is said to have replied, "Quebec or the bottom; and a bullet to the man who offers to take charge."

There has been a serious riot at Wigan, raised by the workmen concerned in the strike for wages. No lives were lost; but much property has been destroyed. Employers are still fixed in their opinion not to yield; and the operatives, as they are suffering severely, will probably have to give way.

The English papers contain obituaries of Lord Cloncurry; the Earl of Kenmore; Sir W. Betham, "Ulster King-at-Arms;" and Dr. Ponsonby, Bishop of Derry.

DIED.

At St. John, New Brunswick, on the 7th Nov., Ralph M. Jarvis, Esq., for upwards of 80 years a resident of that city.

On Saturday morning last, the 12th inst., at his residence Fraserfield, near Williamstown, Glengarry, Canada West, at an advanced age, the Hon. Alexander Fraser, Member of the Legislative Council. The deceased came to Canada in the early part of the present century, with the Canadian Fencible Regiment from Scotland, (where that Corps was raised,) and served with it until it was disbanded in 1816. He then purchased a property in Glengarry, upon which he resided till his death. Previously to his elevation to the Legislative Council, the deceased had represented the County of Glengarry in the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, and subsequently was appointed Warden of the County. During the years 1837-8, the deceased commanded the Battalion of Militia, on service in this portion of the Province. In every position in which the deceased gentleman was placed, he was found competent, and did his duty. In public life, honoured, and in private life, beloved, he has descended to the tomb, and his memory will be long cherished by the population of Glengarry.

On Sunday morning, 20th Nov. sincerely regretted by a large circle of friends and acquaintance, Miss Cameron, late of Grove Vale, aged 17. Amiable Christian and moderate friend—she was ever ready to contribute liberally to all objects of public charity, and her hand was always open to relieve the wants of the poor.

5. Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory.)

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the fatherly care of Christo. North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that Magazine, and first appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and the United States. Such works as "The Caxtons," and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer,) "The Green Hand," "Katie Stewart," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers in this country, have to be reprinted by those publishers from the pages of Blackwood after it has been issued by Messrs. STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS is almost complete, and will be found worthy of inspection before purchasing elsewhere.

His Millinery Department will be found to be the largest in this City, and perhaps not less than any other Establishment in the Province of Canada.

The latest Millinery Fashions will not be ready for the Retail Trade until about the 17th of October, 1853: the Wholesale Trade about the 1st of next month, when all parties not having received their orders may expect to be supplied.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

J. C. would respectfully intimate to the Trade in Canada West that his stock of Dry Goods this Fall will be found to offer some of the greatest inducements.

Having made special arrangements by which every advantage has been taken of the home markets, where purchases have been made for cash only, his

has without exception the advantage over all others in this branch of trade.

Parties not having visited THIS HOUSE will upon inspection find the Stock not only the largest, but the cheapest.

☞ This Fall, particularly, call and examine stock, quality and price, for which no charge will be made.
