THE SUMMER DOUBLE NUMBER OF

THE LONDON GRAPHIC

FOR 1886

Will be published in England and America about July 1st.

The Summer Double Number will be a special extra number, independent of the weekly issue, and will contain the usual variety of beautiful sketches, tinted and in colors. These are some of them:—

"A Midsummer Day's Dream."

"Keeping House while my Family is at the Seaside," an Artist's experience, in eleven dainty morsels

"All about our Lawn Tennis Club," told in seven amusing pictures.

"The Bat-man of the Future."

"Happy Young Cubs"

"None but the Brave Deserve the Fair."

"Perfect Bliss." "Farewell."

Besides a spirited supplement, in colors, entitled "A Talented Troupe," being a matinee performance by five accomplished dogs and a full-grown clown.

This pretty Summer Number will embody literary features entertaining enough to fitly accompany its choice illustrations.

The price of the Summer Double Number of the London Graphic will be 50 cents, or double that of the ordinary weekly number.

The Summer Double Number of the

ILLUSTRATED LONDON NEWS

For 1886, ready about July 1st, will also be a special extra number, and will contain the story, "A Cynic's Fortune," by David Christie Murray, finely illustrated, complete in this number, and, besides the usual variety of attractive pictures, will include, as a supplement, a large colored plate, entitled "WALLS HAVE EARS."

The price of the Summer Double Number of The Illustrated London News will be 50 Cents, or double that of the ordinary weekly number.

To secure copies of these papers, please send in your order immediately.
