CLIPPERS TOOK SIXTH OF SERIES

Marathons had an error party last evening, and they held it on an inopportune date, for the Clippers had their binoculars on the five ounce pellet, and it looked to them about as big as a push ball. They were all looking pretty straight and they made Nesbitt look like a ticket for a Nickel show that has gone bankrupt.

Clippers ran in four scores before the sun set, and they added four more in the sixth. The Marathons best was two. Of these the first was traceable to the Clippers' only error but the second was unpreventable, for the little doctor did it with a smashing bang to left field fence, followed by a mad scamper about the circuit.

Back of second base to the left, there was a piece of ground about big enough for a cemetery lot, in which the Greeks fell down 'steen times. Whenever a ball seemed likely to drop into the plot half a dozen grays would make for it, then stop to let the other fellow take it, with the result which is common to such cases.

Marathons had lots of chances to pull up, for the fight went eight full innings, making it the longest evening game of the season. Clippers simply wouldn't let them, however. Their fielding was very near perfection. In five out of the eight innings, they did not allow a single Greek to reach first. In another they caught the only man who got down before he could harbor at second, while in the remaining two they allowed but four men and five, respectively, to wield

Paris, June 25.—The French Derby as the Prix du Jockey Club, run at Chantilly is currently known, proved an American triumph. W. K. Vanderbilt's Negofol won, while the favorite, Mr. Vanderbilt's other crack, Oversight, obtained third place.

Unfortunately, uncertain weather prevented the meeting from being that dazzling display of summer fashions which it usually is under happier meteorological conditions. The toilets were mostly of discreet, half season description.

The American triumph was further emphasized by the fact that William Duke,, the trainer, and Frank O'Neil, the jockey of the winner, are both Americans. However, the receipts exceeded 130,000f. ($26,000), which shows the attendance, good record takings being about 140,000f. ($28,000).

There was a field of eighteen for the Prix du Jockey Club. Mr. Vanderbilt's two cracks were in splendid condition, though Oversight was somewhat nervous. After them Union and Hertre looked the most pleasing. Verdun seemed somewhat finely drawn.

The Vanderbilt stable was at even money, M. Blanc's at two and a half to one and Baron M. Rothschild's at five to one. The rest were "outsiders." The parade was accompanied by the usual ceremony, the best canters being those of Alexis, Union, Oversight, Belus, Herte and Hagtohag. Negofol did not exrt himself.

INDIANS TOOK FIRST GAME FROM GREEKS BY SCORE OF 6 TO 5; TWO GAMES TODAY

The Quoddies came, they saw, they conquered, only in the first game however, the Greeks have two more chances to redeem themselves. The score of yesterday afternoon's game was 6 to 5. The Greeks came near winning in the ninth with Doc Malcolm and Copeland on the bases. Bradbury fanned after giving promise of being able to find Pitcher Dana.

The game was not well played on either side, but the closeness of the finish made it exciting enough.

Errors were too plentiful on both sides. The two pitchers did good work. Titus made five of the opposing batsmen fan, while Dana did likewise to nine of the Greeks.

Indians Start Scoring.

The Indians started the scoring in the second when they tallied four times. The Marathon errors well-mixed with a triple, a two-bagger and a single produced the doleful result. In the fourth the Eastport nine got a couple more errors by the locals figuring largely in the cause. That ended the scoring of the Indians.

Marathons' Scoring.

The Greeks got one in the second when Bradbury crossed the pan as the result of errors. Ramsey and Jimmie Rootes got a couple more runs in the third when a hit and a couple of errors put the Quoddies to the bad. In the eighth, the Greeks pounded the Indian slab-artist for three. Bradbury got a corker for three bags, scoring Doc Malcolm. Brad was caught between third and the plate and was tagged so hard by Mitchell that he went to the bench with a limp. Johnnie Malcolm's bingle scored Harrigan and the Greeks were through two men dying on the bases in the last inning.

Sacobie in the fourth made a one-handed stab of a fly by Jimmie Rootes that was labelled for two bags.

Several of the Greeks were caught between bases.

4 ENTRIES FOR YACHT RACE THIS AFTERNOON

There are four entries for the race for sloops of Class B at Milledgeville this afternoon. The entries and owners of the boats are as follows:—

Boat.	Owner.
Vagabond	A. H. Merill
Fei Yuen	C. E. Elwell
Savitar	J. Gordon Likely
Edith	Francis Kerr

The start will be at 3 p. m., and the time-limit is 2 1-2 hours. The time allowance is according to Seawanhaka measurement.

Officers Of The Day.

Judges—William White, Fred S. Heans.

Timers—Peter Sinclair, J. H. Kimball.

Signals.

Starting signals given from old club house:

Preparatory, fifteen minutes before start, hoist signal flag S.

Five minutes before start, haul down flag S, hoist flag P, fire one gun.

Start, haul down flag P, and fire one gun.

Alternate Courses.

Course—windward and leeward, 10 miles. The judges will notify the contestants which course will be sailed prior to the start.

Course D.—Start off club wharf, to Sandy Point, leaving the buoy there to port; thence to Boar's Head, leaving this buoy to port; thence to Indian Island, leaving this buoy to port; thence to Boar's Head, leaving this buoy to starboard; thence to the finish line off the club wharf, leaving the Indian Island buoy to starboard.

Milkish Course, three times over. Start off the club wharf, to a buoy in the Milkish, leaving it to port; thence to Milledgeville, leaving outer buoy of starting line to port; thence to Milkish, leaving buoy to port; thence to Milledgeville, leaving buoy to port; thence to Milkish leaving buoy to port, and thence to Milledgeville, finishing off the club wharf.

Special Course.

Should neither of these courses be suitable, the officers of the day may order the race sailed on any windward and leeward course, using such turning marks as are available. In this case all buoys, boats, etc., used as turning marks shall be left on the port hand.

THE WOODSTOCK RACES.

Woodstock is going to have some great horse racing on July 8, 9 and 10. The classes have filled well and everything points a most successful meet.

The list of entries received has been as follows:

Thursday, July 8—In the 2.27 class there are 13 entries, and in the 2.15 class there are 8 entries.

Friday, July 9—2.24 class trot there are 12 entries, and 9 entries in the 2.18 class.

Saturday, July 10—In the 2.21 class there are 6 entries, with 12 entries in the 2.38 class and in the free-for-all there are 5 entries.

DIAMOND DUST.

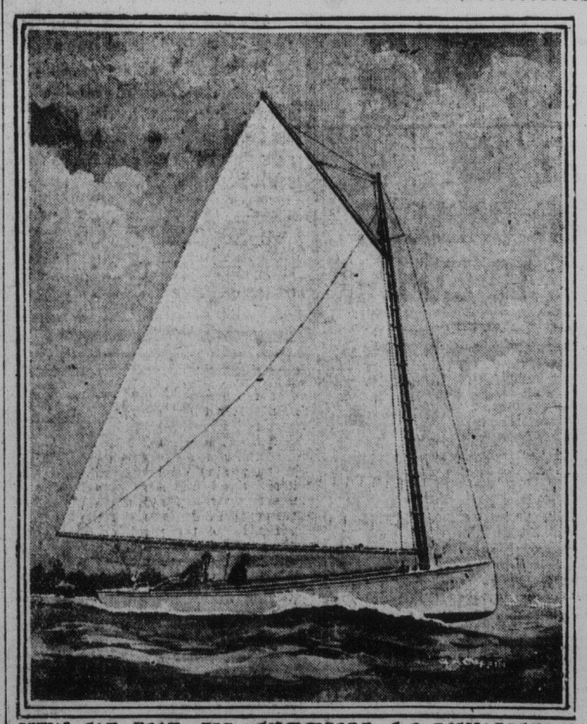
It is lucky that the "Red Sox" have a good corps of utility men as Chech, Cicotte, Madden, Speaker and French were left at home when the team started for Washington. Madden was not needed, but the others remained at home for cause. Speaker has developed a troublesome "Charley horse," a hard thing to get rid of. French's wife has recently been operated upon for appendicitis.

Henry J. Roper, of Cambridge, formerly of Tufts College and recently with Lawrence, is considering an offer to play with a team in the New York State league. Roper is a good-all-round ball player.

Josh Clarke, who was with Cleveland last year, is leading off for Columbus this season and in the last few games has shown a great return to form.

Both Comisky and McAleer are after an outfielder from Boston. The Chicago man offered Pitcher Burns for Speaker, while McAleer offers the choice of his pitching staff for Doc Gessler. The only outfielder whom Lake will let go, however, is Jack Thoney.

Phil Lewis, the former Brooklyn shortstop, is playing a great fielding game for the Baltimore Orioles. Jimmy Slagle is leading off for the Baltimore team and is showing his old-time ability to get to first.



NEW CAT BOAT FOR COMMODORE J. O. RICHARDSON, JR

New York, June 25.—The Toledo Yacht Club is having built at Toledo a Taft class catboat from the designs of Messrs. Cox & Stevens, of this city. This and several other cats are under construction and will race for the cup presented by President Taft for competition by boats of the type belonging to the Toledo and the Detroit yacht clubs.

The dimensions of the boat are as follows:—Length over all, 22 feet; length on water line, 20 feet, 6 inches; beam, 7 feet, and draught, without board, 1 foot 6 inches. She is being built under restricted rules, which include the over all length, beam, sail area and scantlings. Very close racing is expected in this class, and the boats will be sailed in numerous local regattas around Detroit, so as to get in shape for the Taft Cup race, which will be held in August.

The presentation of the cup was the result of a visit by President Taft to Toledo last sumer, where he became much interested in the sport of yachting in that neighborhood, and spent considerable time with Commodore Richardson on his motor yacht, the Jessamine.

WESTFIELD SALMON BOAT RACE TODAY

The first of a series of three salmon boat races to be run by the Westfield Outing Association on June 26, July 1 and July 17, will take place at Westfield this afternoon.

The starting and finishing line will be an imaginary line drawn from the pavilion to a small boat or buoy anchored in the river and carrying a red flag; the inner end of the line shall be marked by a buoy carrying a green flag.

Course.

No. 1 course shall be from starting line at the pavilion, easterly to a buoy anchored a short distance above Sand Point, (leave to starboard); thence southwesterly to a buoy at River Bank, (leave to starboard); thence return to buoy at pavilion, (leave to starboard, thence northerly to buoy or boat at Belyea's Point Light, (leave to starboard); thence southwesterly to finishing line at the pavilion.

No. 2 course shall be from starting line at the Pavilion northerly to a buoy at Belyea's Point Light, (leave to starboard); thence return to buoy at Pavilion, (leave to port); thence easterly to buoy above Sand Point, (leave to starboard); thence southwesterly to buoy at River Bank, (leave to starboard); thence westerly to finishing line at pavilion. Buoys will be marked with red flags if possible.

The course for the day's race will be announced by hoisting on a flag staff at the pavilion a white flag with number of course. This flag will be hoisted about twenty minutes before the start.

Signals.

Five minutes before the start a gun will be fired.

At the expiration of five minutes exactly, the white flag shall be lowered, and a gun fired as a signal to start.

After the start the club burgee will be hoisted, and will be lowered at finish of race, or expiration of time limit.

The winning boat must cover the course in two hours and a half, or less, or the race shall be declared off.

Entries.

W. A. Church, secretary of the sailing committee, has received the following entries for the event:

Mona—John Frodsham.
Chinook—Church Bros.
Lillian—R. B. Ledingham.
Arrah Wanna—M. P. Fisher.
Norma—C. F. Leonard.
Lolita E.—W. C. Rothwell.
Wabeno—K. E. MacDonaid.

The pavilion will be opened in the evening, when a dance will be held for the members of the association and their lady friends. The pavilion is a handsome one. It is opened on all sides.

The salmon boat race will be the first of three for class A. boats. The Woodmans Point plate is the chief prize for the events.

CRICKET MATCH TO-DAY.

The following will be the St. John team to play against the Bankers at Rothesay this afternoon: H. E. C. Sturdee, D. Popham, Cousins, Richards, H. Porter, G. M. McKean, F. R. Fairweather, H. W. Rising, G. Morrisey, G. Kuhring, Williams and F. E. Cooper, umpire.

A SWEEPING CHALLENGE.

S. Freeze visited the Standard office last evening and announced that he was ready to take on any boxer in New Brunswick at 130 pounds.

When one considers that Joe Thomas gave Ketchel three hard fights of 20, 32 and 20 rounds, respectively, it shows that he is a performer of extraordinary merit. Joe is now matched to meet Tommy Sullivan of Lawrence, in Boston next Tuesday and is getting into shape boxing with Harry Lewis.

VESTO BOY WINS THE FREE-FOR-ALL

Special to The Standard.

Montreal, June 25.—Vesto Boy carried off the free-for-all at Delorimer Park today after Jerry Dillard and The Donna had each won a heat. The results:—

Free-For-All—Purse $500.

Time—2.23½, 2.21¼, 2.26, 2.22¼.

IN THE SQUARED CIRCLE.

Packey McFarland has placed himself under the management of Hugh Carrigan of Davenport, Ia. Packey will find sledding rather tough in future.

Ely, Nev., comes to the front with an offer of $30,000 for a fight between Sam Langford and Ketchel to take place in September. California promoters will try to outbid this if necessary.

The $5000 side bet in the Papke-Ketchel bout has been called down and the men will fight only for a percentage of the gate receipts. Papke states that he is willing to wager the amount, but it must be at ringside odds.

Jimmy Clabby is very anxious to get another crack at Tommy Quill, whom he feels he can defeat. Clabby is willing, he says, to pay for a new canvas if Quill will agree to a return match. Clabby claims that a slippery canvas had as much to do with his showing as anything else.

Many lovers of boxing learned with regret of the death of Dan Donnolly, who refereed a number of important glove contests in Boston. "Honest Dan" erred at times, as referees will, but there was never any question as to the honesty of his intentions.

Jack Johnson, after creating a good impression by his public addresses and appearances, nullified it all by breaking his word regarding the match with Tony Ross at Pittsburg, June 30. Willie Pierce had arranged this bout at Johnson's request and believed the affair was a fixture until Johnson telephoned from New York. Willie burned the wires with the endearing expressions he used in reply.

PLENTY HOME PRODUCTS.

The traveller found the old farmer sitting on the fence chewing a wisp of hay.

"What do you think of the tariff?" asked the traveller.

"Dunno," drawled the old man, laconically. "Ain't read about it.

"Well, they've put an extra tax on tea."

"That don't bother me, stranger. We drink sassafras tea around these parts."

"And candy."

"Gosh, we won't need any imported candy. Wild honey in the woods and sweet gum trees for the cutting."

"And feathers,"

"Don't hurt us any, partner. Lucy don't want any ostrich plumes and birds of paradise. Home grown rooster feathers are good enough for her. Calculate there ain't nothin' in that tariff to affect us, stranger. You are just losing time telling about it in these parts."

And then the old man resumed chewing his wisp of hay.

THE LIMIT.

"Why are you crying, my little man?" asked the sympathetic stranger.

"Boohoo;" sobbed the little boy who was almost hidden by packages and cans. "The man that got up this picnic is the meanest man in the world. He's making me carry the hams, jellies, canned salmon, bread, forks, plates, hammocks, swings, croquet sets and baseball bats."

"Gracious! And did he promise anything as a reward?"

"Yes, sir."

'And what will be the reward for such strenuous labor, my son?"

"Why, he—he says he'll let me turn the icecream freezer for a couple of hours. 'Nough to make a fellow turn anarchist. Boo hoo!"

ASEPTO makes clothes whiter, fresher, cleaner, than any soap can make them. Sterilizes everything it comes in contact with—is perfectly odorless. For washing clothes, bedding and various fabrics, dishes, pots and pans, use one tablespoonful of ASEPTO to a bucket of water. After the wash, pour the wash-water into the sink—and sink and drain pipes will be completely disinfected. Invaluable in cases of infectious diseases, as ASEPTO kills all disease germs present in the bedding and dishes used in the sick-room. ASEPTO costs but 5 cts. a package—but when compared with ordinary washing compounds ASEPTO would be dirt cheap at double the price.
ASEPTO has been analyzed by eminent physicians and found to be all we claim for it.
