At Mohawk Park.

There were a number of private picnics held at Mohawk Park yesterday afternoon and the pretty grove had the appearance of a May day celebration. Between thirty and forty couples took in the dance in the pavillion in the evening.

Some Corn.

A party visiting at the farm of Mr. Frank Roy, situated northeast of the city, witnessed Mr. Roy cutting down a stalk of corn which measured 11 ft. 8 in. and had not yet reached its full growth. The great proportion of the stalks in the field were about the same height.

The Market.

There was a large Thursday market this morning, and a goodly amount of stuff was offered for sale. Some of the prices asked were: Potatoes, peck, 25c; pumpkins, 10c; green corn, doz., 10c; plums, 11-qt. basket, 40c; apples, 30c basket; encumbers, 25c basket; tomatoes, 1½-peck basket, 40c; beets, carrots, onions, lettuce, 5c bunch.

Had Fine Trip.

R. W. Brooks of the Horticultural Society returned to the city yesterday after an extended trip through New York State, where he visited many parks and places of interest in connection with horticultural work. He is more enthused than ever in the local society since his return.

Exactly Correct.

Official scorer W. Hartman was in Toronto yesterday, where he attended the Toronto-Newark baseball game and for curosity sake and his own satisfaction, scored the game. He compared his box score with that of the official International League scorer, and both were exactly alike.

Laid at Rest

Agnes Alma Patterson.

The funeral of the late Miss Agnes Alma Patterson took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patterson, Echo Place, to Mt. Hope cemetery. Rev. D. T. McClintock officiated. The pallbearers were relatives of the deceased. The services were very largly attended and many floral pieces were received.

Baseball Sprinters.

MONTREAL, Aug 21—Before the Royal-Oriole baseball game at Atwater Park yesterday, Frank Gilhooly, the Montreal outfielder, much sought by big league teams, defeated Cooper the Baltimore outfielder, in a hundred yard race. The match was brought about by a controversy over the speed of the two players, when the Orioles were last here. With Jack Dunn as starter, the runners were set away together and were on even terms for the first half of the distance. Then Gilhooly forged ahead of his tall opponent, and won by about 3 yards.

WRONG HUNCH, NO LUNCH

"Here, my boy," said his new employer, "take this quarter and go out and get three ham sandwiches."

The boy vanished and did not return for half an hour.

See here. Where have you been loitering?" demanded the boss, "and where are my sandwiches?"

"Scissors!" gasped the boy. "I though; they were for me!"

Could Not Kill Himself

Thomas Beard, forty-five, who said he had tried to cut his throat but the knife was too blunt and then had tried to drown himself, but the water was not deep enough, appeared in the dock at Leeds wrapped in a thick blanket and was sent to the workhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cox, 109 Clarence street, gave a party last evening in honor of their guest, Mr. Ben Ward, formerly of this city and now of Calgary. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

The happiest kind of an afternoon in the country was spent by the motorists picnicking at Cleator's Farm yesterday afternoon. Eleven cars conveyed the party including touring cars and roadsters, while some few preferring the paddle, arrived by canoe. Tents were in readiness for the bathers, many indulging in a swim in the cooling stream. Later games were played until the late hour. Mr. Harry Cockshutt acted as umpire. About 7 o'clock innumerable good things were produced and with appetites sharpened with the air and exercise, forty-seven sat down to a picnic tea. At its conclusion the shortening day made one lingeringly return to motor and canoe once more, the former returning to Brantford via Burford or Paris, the latter quietly following the stream to town.

Amongst the many people in attendance at the garden party, band concert and military night in Burford on Wednesday evening of this week, for which Major W. K. Paris News

PARIS, Aug. 21.—There passed away on Monday, at her home in S. Dumfries, one of the pioneer residents of this section in the person of Mrs. Christa McPherson, wife of Mr. Daniel McPherson. She was in her 88th year and had spent most of her life in this vicinity. Of a quiet, loving disposition, she made many friends, who much regret her departure. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon to Glenmorris cemetery.

Paris bowlers went to Norwich on Tuesday and won two games. Galt plays here to-day.

The band will play on Mr. Knill's lawn at the Junction to-night, owing to the fact that Junction residents could not attend the concerts in Upper Town, owing to the long walk, and the concerts at King's Ward park have been discontinued during the serious illness of a resident of that locality.

Court Harmony, A.O.F., will hold their annual church services in the Presbyterian church next Sunday evening.

Mr. J. Cavan and John and Harold Gibbs are holidaying in Rochester, N.Y.

Mr. James Allen of Toronto is visiting his parents here.

Mr. Victor Chapple of Chapleau and Mr. Clement Chapple of Fort William were visiting relatives here the forepart of the week.

Mrs. H. Murphy of Chicago has returned home after a month's visit with relatives here.

Miss Cosford of Drayton is the guest of Mrs. McTavish.

Mrs. J. A. Ronson returned to her home in Walkerville this week after a month's visit with her father, Mr. T. Shawcross.

It All Depends.

"How do you think your constituents will regard our opinions on the tariff"

"I don't know," replied Senator Sorghum. "I have yet to ascertain whether I am depending on the wisdom of the plain people or facing the thoughtless clamor of an uninformed populace."—Washington Star.

SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH-WEST LAND REGULATIONS

ANY PERSON who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Land Agency or Sub-Agency for the District. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency—on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 80 acres, solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter section alongside his homestead. Price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of six years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to earn homestead patent), and cultivate 50 acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right, and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchased homestead in certain districts, price $3.00 per acre. Duties—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate 50 acres and erect a house worth $300.00.

W. W. CORY,
Deputy of Minister of the Interior.
