Cleveland now has 20,000 plurality in Chicago, with two-thirds of the precincts to hear from. He will probably have a plurality in Chicago of 30,000. In the State, so far as returns have been received, Cleveland shows a slight gain over the vote four years ago.

IOWA.

The vote is coming in slowly and shows a small Republican gain over 1888.

Returns from Iowa not sufficient to warrant an opinion.

Thirty towns in Massachusetts give Cleveland 5,897, Harrison 7,658. Haile, for Governor, 6,983, Russel 6,249—a Democratic gain of 629 as compared with 1888.

The New York World bulletin claims that Russell (Dem.) for Governor carries Massachusetts by 14,000.

MINNESOTA.

No returns from the State yet. Comparison will be made with 1888, when the Republicans carried the State by 33,000.

MICHIGAN.

Sixty precincts outside of Wayne county give Rich (Rep.) for Governor 7,501, Morse (Dem.) 6,582.

MISSOURI.

Meager dispatches from all parts of the State indicate net Democrat gains of 27 per cent. over 1888. This will give the State to Cleveland by 30,000 to 35,000, and to Stone (Dem.) for Governor by 17,000.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The New York Tribune says Harrison carries Pennsylvania by 85,000.

RHODE ISLAND.

The total vote of the State, lacking twenty districts, gives Harrison 18,248, Cleveland 15,552. The State goes for Harrison.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

The ballot in this State is two yards long, and it will be noon to-morrow before anything definite is known. Lardner (Populist) are apparently elected representatives.

TENNESSEE.

The New York World says Tennessee is Democratic by 65,000 majority.

Indications here point in that direction, but nothing definite is known. Under the new election law no official count will be given before to-morrow.

WISCONSIN.

Governor Peck says that the German Lutherans voted for him to-day, as they did two years ago, and that Cleveland got the German-Lutheran vote also.

Returns indicate that the Republican national and State tickets will be elected by from 15,000 to 20,000 plurality.

WYOMING.

Weather cold. Returns will be late Both parties claim the State.

GOV. HILL'S ESTIMATE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Private advices from Gov. Hill at Albany are to the effect that in his judgment the Republicans will come down to the Harlem River with 65,000 majority. Cleveland meets them there with 110,000 majority, including New York, Kings and adjacent counties, thus making Cleveland's majority at least 45,000.

MIDNIGHT BULLETINS.

CLEVELAND DOUBTLESS ELECTED.

BUFFALO, Nov. 8.—(Midnight)—The chief of the Telegraph Bureau says:

"My estimate conceding Illinois and Connecticut to Cleveland gives him two more than the necessary 224 votes without considering probabilities of Indiana, Wisconsin, West Virginia or other States not heard from."

The New York Sun claims Cleveland carries Connecticut by 30,000.

The Times says the Republicans have lost the Legislature in Kansas.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The total vote for President in this city with three election districts is estimated as follows: Cleveland, 174,885; Harrison, 99,785. Cleveland's plurality is 75,100. The Congressional delegation of the State will stand: Democrats, 21; Republicans, 13. Democrat loss, 2.

The New York Times says Cleveland gets seven electoral votes from Michigan. If correct, this puts the result beyond doubt.

The Connecticut Congressional representation is unchanged, 3 Democrats to 1 Republican.

The New York World claims New York, Indiana, Illinois, Connecticut, New Jersey and eight votes in Michigan for Cleveland.

The indications are that the Republicans have carried Pennsylvania by the usual majority and that the Legislature will be Republican. This will practically assure the re-election of Matthew Quay to the United States Senate. Returns received from several Congressional districts indicate the election of 19 Republican and 11 Democratic members of Congress, including the Republican Congressmen at large.

The New York Tribune (Rep.) says Cleveland has carried New Jersey by 6,000 plurality.

The Chicago Tribune (Rep.) says the reports received by the western branches of both national committees leave little doubt that Harrison and Reid have carried Iowa. The indications are that the Democrats will lose at least four Congressmen.

Don. M. Dickinson telegraphs Chairman Baker of the Minnesota State Democratic Committee, that all doubtful States have been carried by the Democrats, and claims Cleveland's election.

A World special from Chicago says Chairman Clark of the Democratic State Committee, states that Cleveland has carried Illinois by 15,000, and Altgeld (Dem.) is elected Governor.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 8.—The New Jersey returns are scattering and meager at midnight. It is estimated that Cleveland has carried the State by 7,000 plurality. The result of the gubernatorial contest is in doubt. The complexion of the Legislature is in doubt.

A special from Detroit says the Democratic State Central Committee claims seven and perhaps eight electors. Chipman, Gorman, Whiting and Meadock are considered sure of election to Congress. Chairman Campau is positive that the Lower House of the Michigan Legislature will be Democratic.

Cleveland has carried Alabama, as reports thus far received indicate, by a three times greater majority than did Gov. Jones at the Democratic State election in August. Hardly any doubt exists that the Democrats have elected eight out of nine Congressmen.

Not enough returns have been received to indicate the result in Indiana. The Democrats claim it, although small gains for Harrison are shown in some of the precincts.

A Chicago telegram says the Tribune and Inter-Ocean at 11 o'clock both refuse to give up the State, and claim the latest returns leave the result in doubt.

The Kansas Legislature is in doubt with the prospects that the fusionists will have a majority of joint ballot.

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat concedes Indiana to the Democrats by from 8,000 to 10,000 plurality.

In Nebraska the Democrats elected four Congressmen, the Republicans elected one and the Independents one.

At a late hour the Republicans were claiming Indiana by 1,000 majority,

SUMMING UP.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 8.—(Midnight)—With Connecticut and Illinois conceded to Cleveland he has at this hour carried the following States: Alabama 11, Arkansas 8, Connecticut 6, Florida 4, Georgia 13, Illinois 24, Kentucky 13, Louisiana 8, Maryland 8, Mississippi 9, Missouri 17, New Jersey 10, New York 36, North Carolina 11, South Carolina 9, Tennessee 12, Texas 15, Virginia 12. Total, 226. This would be sufficient, but the Republicans do not yet give up hopes of Illinois and Connecticut.

The doubtful States yet to hear from are West Virginia (probably Democratic), Indiana, Wisconsin, Montana and Nevada.

The two Dakotas, Washington and Wyoming, Nevada and Nebraska elect Weaver electors, and Kansas has probably gone in the same direction. The Weaver party claim the Kansas Legislature on a coalition with the Democrats.

EARLY MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—1 a.m.—The World has the following specials: "The Republicans now claim Indiana by 1,000. The Chicago Tribune concedes Illinois to Cleveland.

Connecticut—Democracts and Republicans have each 10 Senators, 4 in doubt. The Democrats have made a net gain of 3 in the House.

Missouri—Stone (Dem.) elected Governor by 13,000. The Democrats have 14 of the 15 Congressmen and a big majority in the State Legislature.

New York—Cleveland's plurality is growing larger. The Democrats have carried the Legislature and will elect a United States Senator to succeed Hiscock. The Assembly will probably stand—Democrats 72, Republicans 58.

Indiana—Claimed by the Democrats by 10,000 and by the Republicans by 1,000.

West Virginia—Will not file returns till to-morrow. Both parties guess it.

Connecticut's electoral vote will be for Cleveland; probably no election of Congressmen or State officers, as a majority not a plurality is required.

Wisconsin seems to have gone Republican by 1,000 to 1,500.

Wyoming—Indications are that Harrison has carried this State.

Illinois—At midnight the Chicago Herald displayed a red flashlight, its signal betokening Cleveland's election.

Tennessee gives Cleveland 65,000, and elects a Democratic Governor by 50,000.

West Virginia—The Republican State committee claims the State; but few returns are in.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Chairman Carter of the Republican Central Committee, issued the following bulletin at midnight: On returns received by the Republican National Committee at midnight, Harrison and Reid have carried the States of California, Maine, Massachusetts, ten votes in Michigan, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Idaho, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Washington, Wyoming, Nebraska, Indiana and Delaware or 229 electoral votes—a majority of six in the Electoral College. Our advices at this hour also show that we have more than an even chance to carry West Virginia.

(Signed) THOS. H. CARTER, chairman.

THE LAST.

Chairman Harrity, of the Democratic National Committee has issued a statement in which he says there is no doubt of the election of Cleveland and Stevenson by the popular vote, while the defeat of Harrison is certain.

WHITELAW REID'S WAIL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Tribune (Whitelaw Reid, editor), in its leading editorial, says the returns received at the hour of writing are not satisfactory to the Republicans. Democratic dispatches are claiming everything, but Mr. Cleveland would have been elected several months ago if Democratic claims had been equivalent to returns. It can only be said at this hour that returns are not at hand to justify the assertion that several Great Western States have given their electoral votes to Mr. Cleveland, and without those votes he is still in danger of disappointment. The Republicans have failed to carry New York. The machinery in the great Democratic cities has turned out majorities sufficient to overpower the votes of the Republican counties, which appear to have been cut down below expectations. In the absence of returns from any considerable part of New Jersey it can only be assumed that the State has gone Democratic on the Presidential ticket as usual. Connecticut is claimed with confidence in dispatches by both parties, but the returns thus far received appear to favor the Democrats. With New York, New Jersey and Connecticut, and four or five probable votes from Michigan, and a South made solid by fraud and a wholesale denial of the right of suffrage, Mr. Cleveland would have about 216 electoral votes, leaving only those of Indiana or Illinois to assure his election. At the present writing both Indiana and Illinois are claimed by both parties, but without sufficiently full returns to place the result in either State beyond doubt. It is not by any means certain that President Harrison has not secured the electoral vote of one or more Southern States. Cheering dispatches from Delaware give reason to hope that its three electoral votes will be for the Republican candidates. The returns from West Virginia are not complete enough to justify a positive claim according to such tidings as have come to hand thus far. The loss of either of these would leave Mr. Cleveland with not more than 207 electoral votes unless he has carried Indiana or Illinois, and in that case the votes of Indiana alone would not suffice to elect him. Until more full returns have been obtained from the four States named it is plain that the result will not be out of doubt. The result is equally uncertain in some States in which the Democratic party surrendered to the Populists, so that the only question is whether their electoral votes will be for President Harrison or Mr. Weaver. Nebraska and Nevada appear to have given pluralities for Weaver, and the same claim is made as to other States which Republican dispatches affirm voted for President Harrison. If neither Illinois or Indiana have voted for Mr. Cleveland there may have been no election by the people, but should the Democrats' claim as to Illinois be confirmed by later dispatches the success of the Democratic ticket would be assured.

NOTES.

In four wards of one parish in Louisiana not a single Harrison vote was cast.

Governor Flower, of New York, folded his ballots improperly this morning and was obliged to return to his booth and fold them properly, a proceeding which occupied eight minutes.

Tammany has carried every Assembly and aldermanic district in New York.

At Poughkeepsie, N. Y., a quarrel without any apparent good cause broke out at the Seventh ward polling place here between the city police and the United States marshals. It resulted first in the free fight and then in the arrest of the marshals, some four or five in number. They were taken before the recorder and admitted to bail. The marshals then went before United States Commissioner Hunter and swore out warrants for the arrest of the police. Three of them, including the chief, were brought before the commissioner, who held them to await the action of the United States grand jury.

Gov. Flower claims New York State for Cleveland by over 40,000.

The Ohio Congressional delegation probably stand, Democrats 6, Republicans 15.

CARTER'S SLAYER CONVICTED.

He Is a Wealthy Tennessean and Quarreled with His Victim Over a Woman.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 8.—Edward E. Turpin was found guilty of murder in the first degree for killing William M. Carter, at Gallatin, Saturday. The crime has attracted widespread attention on account of the prominence of the parties. Carter was a member of one of the oldest and most highly respected families in Sumner county, and his slayer is unquestionably the richest man in the county, having inherited a fortune from his father, who died about six years in Philadelphia.

Turpin conceived a deep hatred for Carter because of the latter's attentions to a certain young lady, and threatened Carter's life on several occasions. On Feb. 16 last he became involved in a difficulty with Carter and shot him.

A Drunkard at Ten.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—James Hughes, a vicious looking lad of 10 years, was found lying helplessly drunk on the sidewalk at Second avenue and Seventeenth street by Agent King, of Mr. Gerry's society. When arraigned in the Yorkville Court the boy defiantly declared that his father had given him whisky. The father, Patrick Hughes, who bears an excellent reputation, told the justice that his son, although only 10 years of age, was already a confirmed drunkard. Where he procurred the liquor he was unable to say. The boy was sent to the Catholic Protectory.

TO-DAY'S REPORTS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Chairman Harrity, of the Democratic National Committee, says: "There is no break in the south. Republican claims for Delaware are unfounded. In Connecticut the returns show a steady advance over the figures of 1888, when we carried the State. Indiana is undoubtedly ours. The most glorious result appears to be in Illinois, where from the returns it would seem that for the first time in its history the State has gone Democratic. We have won the most glorious and decisive victory in the history of campaigns."

Gov. Flower at 11:30 o'clock claimed 40,000 majority in New York State for Cleveland, based, he said, on the most careful analysis of the returns.

THE RESULT IN ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—At 2:30 a.m. the plurality for Cleveland in Illinois from returns received is estimated at 20,000.

DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN CONGRESS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—At 1:30 o'clock the reports so far received indicate that the Democratic majority in the next National House of Representatives has been but little, if any, decreased. In New York the Republicans appear to have elected but 10 of the 34 Congressmen, a Democratic gain of 1. New Jersey and Connecticut have not apparently changed their present division of representatives, except that the Democrats in New Jersey have gained the additional member accorded by the new apportionment. The South have rolled up almost solid delegations from every State. Alabama has an additional member in the 53rd Congress, and it is a Democratic gain, also Arkansas. Georgia gains a new member and recovers the district now represented by Watson (Alliance). The Republicans gain 1 in New Hampshire, 8 in Ohio and 1 in Oregon. Although the Republicans carried Rhode Island on the Presidential ticket the reports are that no selection for Congressman was made, necessitating another election. Owing to the absence of reports from the Central and Western States and the uncertainty as to the results in Congressional districts it is impossible to even attempt to approximate the total representation of the several parties in the next House, but it will be Democratic.

RED THE WINNING COLOR.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Nov. 9.—Telegrams of congratulation poured in on Gen. Stevenson for hours. A thousand wildly enthusiastic Democrats arrived at Mr. Stevenson's home after midnight, and a thousand throats broke out with "Rah, rah, ree—Democracy, Cleveland and Altgeld—there's the three." Red fire illuminated the city, and the unterrified did not sleep last night.

DON DICKINSON'S TRIUMPH.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Don M. Dickinson, chairman of the Democratic campaign committee, said at 1 a.m.: "We do not desire to boast of the result. The grand result speaks for itself. It shows that the producers of the country have determined that they shall be no longer burdened by excessive taxation for the benefit of the great monopolies, and we are determined to uphold local rights against the abuse of centralized power. In Michigan we have achieved great success in electing a Governor and seven Presidential electors. The uprising in the Northwest is the most significant sign of the times, but in view of the splendid performance of New York, New Jersey and Connecticut there is nothing sectional about the victory, which is a success for sound political and economic principles everywhere."

WHAT NEW YORK PAPERS SAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Times (Independent) in a leading editorial on the result says: At the present writing the returns give Cleveland the electoral votes of the South—159 in all—36 in New York, 10 in New Jersey, 6 in Connecticut, 7 in Michigan, 12 in Wisconsin and 24 in Illinois. This is a total of 254. The early returns from Indiana were favorable to Cleveland, but were insufficient to justify a conclusion. It is not, as will be seen, included in the above estimate. Weaver appears to have 4 votes in Colorado, 3 in Idaho, 4 in Minnesota, 8 in Nebraska and 3 in North Dakota—or 22 in all. The vote will then stand Cleveland, 254; Harrison, 168; Weaver, 22; total 444; Cleveland's plurality 86; Cleveland's majority 64. It is with no undue exultation over a fallen foe that we regard this result, but with profound gratitude that the American people have chosen so wisely and so justly and with firm confidence in the future. The Republican organization has suffered a crushing defeat and deserved it. The Republican party remain with the great body of its voters as honest and as devoted to the best interests of the country as it has ever been; the powerful machinery of the party, which, for at least eight years, has been used by corrupt and unscrupulous men to serve the selfish ends of greedy monopolists as well as their own, is broken. It never can be reconstituted for like uses. The honest voters who in part have blindly supported it are no longer numerous enough to restore it. If the party is again to be a controlling force in the Republic it can only be by the better leadership of better leaders towards better ends.

The Sun (Democratic) says: In the South the Third Party cut a sorry figure. Their most crushing defeat being perhaps in Georgia where Tom Watson was beaten by 4,000, by his Democratic opponent. Not a Third Party Congressman was elected in Georgia. In South Carolina only one district is in doubt and there the chances favor the Democrats. In Florida, famous for its Ocala platform and agitation, the Third Party was in a hopeless minority. In Arkansas the Third Party fusion with Republicans had no effect whatever on Democratic success. In Mississippi also a former alliance hotbed, the entire Democratic Congress delegation was elected as was the case in Virginia, where Weaver received fewer votes than Bidwell. In Tennessee Gov. Buchanan, the Third Party candidate, is left far in the rear. But look at the West! How it repudiated the Force Bill. There will be no Force Bill. Yesterday's victory disposes forever of the infamous project which menaced the rights of American citizenship and the peace of the nation.

The Tribune (Rep.) says the result is in doubt at 2 a.m. Congress is Democrat by a clear majority of about 50. New York State is Democrat by not less than 30,000 and has a Democrat Assembly.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Herald (Independent), says: It was a Democratic revolution. Cleveland has carried the country by a sweeping majority. The latest returns indicate that West Virginia is in the Democratic column. The Democratic landslake extended to the Assembly. The majority in the Lower House is so large that a Democrat will succeed Frank Hiscox in the United States Senate. Thus for the first time in many years New York will have two Democratic Senators in the higher branch of Congress. Congress has a large Democratic majority in the Lower House, though not so large as in the present House and the Democrats have made some gains in the Senate. The South is still solid for the Democrats. The Democratic plan of the campain of tariff reform, and "no imported cheap labor" for its main issue, and against the Force Bill and bayonets has been justified by the returns from all of the States. Even the rainbow chaser has cause to rejoice. It demonstrates, however, that the President's State was not the pivotal, and the Democratic missionary work in the west has borne fruit. In the Electoral College Cleveland and Stevenson will have no less than 269 votes. The People's Party, while not carrying all of the States claimed, has carried a sufficient number to give it recognition as a national party. It is a day of Democratic rejoicing and glory.

CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 9.—The chairman of the Republican State Committee concedes the city to Cleveland by 7,000, but claims the State for Harrison.

Another report says the State is Democratic.

CONNECTICUT.

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 9.—The vote in this State, with one town missing, gives a plurality for Cleveland of 5,417, and Morris (Dem.) for Governor, 1,469 majority.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 9.—The State and National ticket conceded to the Democrats; majority probably 1,000, carrying electors, Congress and Legislature.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, N.C., Nov. 9.—The Democratic chairman declares Cleveland's majority in North Carolina will not fall below 25,000, and that the Democrats have elected all the Congressmen.

COLORADO.

DENVER, Col., Nov. 9.—Thos. Pattison, leader of the People's Party, says: "The indications are that Weaver has carried Colorado by 8,000; also that both fusion candidates for Congress have been elected.

NORTH DAKOTA.

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 9.—National Congressional, State and Legislative State Republican by a small majority.

SOUTH DAKOTA.

HURON, S. D., Nov. 9.—Returns slow, and Harrison has a small majority in the State.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 9.—Two-thirds of the country precincts give Harrison 8,031 plurality. Cook county gives Cleveland 19,348. The Democrats have elected the 2 Congressmen at large and 12 others; the Republicans 5. Three doubtful districts are claimed by both parties.

DANVILLE, Ill., Nov. 9.—Advice from the fifteenth district insure the election of J. G. Cannon, Republican, for Congress.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Indiana, Nov. 9.—At 3 a.m. the returns indicated that Cleveland had carried the State.

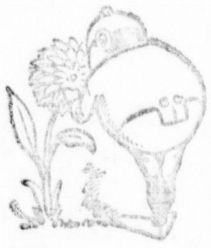
The Flower Show



This week is bound to be a great success. You of course intend going. It's your wash day, is it? Too bad; but that needn't hinder you. Just use C. W. C. (Cottam's Washing Compound.) It does away with rubbing entirely; you need no soap and it saves half the time—if you follow directions.
