NEUHAUS—WEBER

Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Neuhaus, (nee Bertha Weber,) recently arrived from Swormville, N. Y., on their honeymoon trip. A reception dinner was given in their honor at the bride's brother, Mr. William Weber, Elora road, Carrick. Followed by a Reunion at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Kuntz, Culross, there were present the bride's father, Mr. Math. Weber, also four brothers and their family and many nieces and nephews and some other friends. The young couple left for Kitchener to visit their uncle. They carried with them the best wishes from their many friends for a happy journey through matrimonial life. On their return they wil make their home in Buffalo, N. Y.

A pretty weding occurred at St. Mary's church at Swormville on Tuesday morning, June 24, 1924, when Miss Bertha M. Weber, daughter of Mr. Mathias Weber of Formosa, Ont., became the bride of Mr. Fred N. Neuhaus of Swormville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Dehlinger at 8 a. m.

The bride's gown was of peach embroiered georgette over yellow. She wore a large leghorn hat adorned with yellow flowers and with ties the color of her gown. She carried a large bouquet of sunburst roses. Her only attendant, Miss Genevieve Neuhaus, the groom's sister, wore a gown of blue georgette and a leghorn hat with blue flowers and ties. Her bouquet was of pink and orchid sweet peas. The groom's attendant was his cousin, Mr. Edward Neuhaus.

After the ceremony, the bride and groom left for a trip to Formosa, Ont., where they will visit J. D. Kuntz and other relatives of the bride.

After a week's stay there, they will go to Port Huron, Mich., to visit Mr. Neuhaus' sister, Mrs. Edward Hanel. They take with them in their new life the best wishes of many friends.
