THE NEW MONTHLY,

One of the Best Women's Journals in the World.

The Best Advertising Medium to Reach the Purchasing Sex in Canada.

WIVES
—AND—DAUGHTERS

A Journal Written for Women by Women.

CONDUCTED BY MRS. JOHN CAMERON, ASSISTED BY MISS ETHELWYN WETHERALD.

Friendly Words from Miss Frances E. Willard.

"Wives and Daughters," edited by Mrs. John Cameron and Miss Ethelwyn Wetherald, is a publication that shows how our Canadian cousins are marching on in their day and generation to the great empire and beautiful land of men and women. We live at present in the men's world; we hope never to live in the women's world, though we think it would perhaps be fully as good as the men's; but one bisected globe is sufficient. What we want to see is the men and women's world, and its luminous orb rises even now above the horizon. This new monthly will help to hasten that luminary toward its proper place in the zenith, for the new magazine conserves the home idea, and tells how to make home what it should be in small and great affairs alike. It has a winsome kindliness of visage, and we believe will become the attached friend of all Canadian women who may listen to its utterances, and to Yankee women also if they will but have the wit and wisdom to subscribe. Yours for a treaty of reciprocity,
FRANCES E. WILLARD.

A Greeting from the Countess of Aberdeen.

Haddo House, Aberdeen, Scotland, Dec. 1, 1890.

Lady Aberdeen begs to congratulate Mrs. Cameron most sincerely on the high promise of the new venture, and will be much obliged if she will direct that two copies should be sent to her at the above address every month. Lady Aberdeen hopes that Mrs Cameron will not mind her making some extracts from "Wives and Daughters" for a little magazine which she herself is editing in connection with a Young Women's Christian Association in Scotland.

Send 25 cents, and have "Wives and Daughters" mailed to your address every month for one year. As the commendations printed above show, you are more than likely to get the worth of your money. Specimen copies sent on application.

There is no better advertising medium in Canada and for many parts of the United States than "Wives and Daughters."

KNIGHTS OF RECIPROCITY.

A "Counter Irritant" to the Farmers' Alliance.

NEW YORK, March 7.—A Washington dispatch says the organization known as the Knights of Reciprocity, which sprouted from the soil of Kansas soon after the election last fall as a "counter irritant" to the Farmers' Alliance, is about to blossom forth all over the country. It has the same social features of the Farmers' Alliance, and its object is to embrace eventually all those who believe in certain well-defined principles. These articles of faith and allegiance are: 1. A desire for the principles of the union, advocacy of liberal pensions to all honorably discharged soldiers and sailors of the late war; the protection of American industry; reciprocity between all friendly nations or fair trade, especially with those nations on the American continent; reciprocity also between all classes in our nation, including a community of interest which should exist between producers and consumers, between manufacturers and operatives, between common carriers and shippers; a fair and honest ballot, and lastly, the disfranchisement of every person offering or accepting bribes or attempting improperly to influence the ballot. Every citizen of the United States over 18 years of age, male and female, is eligible to membership.

DUBLIN, March 7.—At a McCarthyite meeting in Cork yesterday Canon Mahoney declared that in Room 15 of the House of Commons Mr. Parnell, on one occasion, said he would "Lift a corner of the veil," whereupon he (Parnell) repudiated the charge of abusing the hospitality of a friend. He said he defied anybody to find in the Hansard's reports that on a single occasion he had called Capt. O'Shea "friend." Further, Capt. O'Shea did not pay the expenses of his household, and he had calculated and found that during the whole of his married life Capt. O'Shea had spent only 410 days at home.

Owing to Parnellite misrepresentations of McCarthyite motives those having the matter in charge had resolved to abandon their plans for the annual St. Patrick's Day banquet, but they were induced to reverse the decision, and a strong banquet committee has been formed. Among others Cardinal Manning has accepted an invitation to the banquet. Justin McCarthy will preside. The plans of the committee are supported by numerous members of the House of Commons. Every effort will be made to show London that Irishmen are opposed to Parnell.

The communications which have passed between McCarthy and Parnell in relation to funds of the National League, which are in the hands of a banker in Paris, were published to-day. Mr. McCarth
