VE DOOR TO CANADA

American Statute Likely to Stand

Washington Thinks Congress Will Not Repeal the Bill

State Department Officials Say That Newfoundland Is Anxious to Negotiate a Reciprocity Treaty, But They Have Been Holding Them Off--Congressman McCall's Lament.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 22—No official declaration is expected at the state department regarding the demise of the reciprocity movement, on the ground that the Canadian government naturally supposes that the United States government is familiar with the terms of the agreement, especially the condition that the proposed new and reduced duties shall not be effective until after Canadian ratification. The single exception was the wood pulp and paper schedule, which, by special provision, went into operation immediately upon the approval of the act and is now beyond recall unless congress should see fit to repeal the entire reciprocity act.

The opinion expressed at the state department was that no effort would be made to repeal the reciprocity act, and although the duties therein provided will not become effective, the act itself will be permitted to remain on the statute books, constituting an ever-open door to Canada, and a constant reminder of the recognition by the United States of the merits of the principle of reciprocity with its northern neighbor.

It was suggested today that the only chance for the continuance of reciprocity as an open issue might be found in an attempt by Newfoundland to secure such a treaty of agreement with the United States.

It has been known that the Newfoundlanders were only waiting the disposition of the pact between the United States and Canada to open negotiations with Washington for a reciprocity agreement on their own account, and state department officials said it has been difficult to keep them from pressing the matter while the Canadian agreement was pending.

Rejected a "Golden Opportunity."

Boston, Mass., Sept. 22—In commenting upon the defeat of reciprocity in Canada, Congressman W. McCall, who introduced the original reciprocity bill in congress, said today:

"With the great railroads, the manufacturers and the commercial and financial classes and powerful interests on this side of the border opposing reciprocity, and with the help of Mr. Rudyard Kipling, and his warning that an increase of commerce would increase crime, it is not strange that Canada retained possession of her 'soul.'

The puerile annexation bogey appears to have led her to reject as golden an opportunity as she had or is ever likely to have."

APPOINTED TO MT. ALLISON FACULTY

Sackville, N. B., Sept. 22—The chair of physics at the university, vacated by the withdrawal of Prof. McKay, has been filled by the appointment of Guy G. Becknell, of Goshen, Indiana. Prof. Becknell was graduated in science with high honors at North Western University and after being a member of the faculty at Purdue University for three years took his doctor's degree at Clark University this spring, holding the position of assistant to Prof. Webster, of the physics department, and being appointed to a fellowship. Prof. Becknell has had five years' experience as teacher and presents credentials warmly eulogistic of him as an expert in physics, and a man of wide general culture.

HAD HIM EITHER WAY.

(London, Ont., Advertiser).

A good story is told of two citizens of London, one from the north of Ireland, the other from the south.

The northerner was boiling over against reciprocity. "If the thing carries I will not live in the country; I'll go back to Ireland!" he shouted at the south of Ireland man.

"Won't that be foine," was the reply. "You'll just be there in time for home rule."
