Holland Must Surrender Wilhelm.

Allies Will Demand His Extradition--Article 61 Annulled To-day --Fiume Trouble Unsettled--U S. Marines Landed Near That Port.

RAISER TO BE DEMANDED IN TWO WEEKS.

PARIS, Sept. 21.

The Dutch Minister in Paris has been advised, according to the Libro Belgique of Brussels, that Holland within two weeks will receive a demand for the extradition of former Emperor William on behalf of the Allies.

THE PERSIAN TREATY.

LONDON, Sept. 20.

In his reference to Great Britain's treaty with Persia, at the dinner given in honor of the Persian Foreign Minister on Friday night, Earl Curzon, Government leader in the House of Lords, declared that it had been stated in some quarters that the Anglo-Persian agreement is a disparagement or deliberate neglect of the League of Nations. "Articles ten and twenty of the covenant are supposed in the same sense to have been ignored by us," he added, "but I would say emphatically on behalf of my Government and after consideration with His Highness the Persian Foreign Minister this afternoon that both his Government and mine accept unreservedly Articles Ten and Twenty of the Covenant of the League of Nations, and that we see in them nothing inconsistent in what we have done. On the contrary as soon as the Treaty of Peace is ratified, and as soon as the Council of the League of Nations comes into effective existence, it is the intention of his Government and mine to communicate the agreement to the Council of the League with a full explanation and defense of its contents.

WILL SIGN TO-MORROW.

PARIS, Sept. 21.

Baron Kurt Von Lorsner, President of the German peace delegation at Versailles, to-morrow afternoon at four o'clock will sign the protocol annulling Article 61 of the German constitution as demanded by the Peace Conference. The signing will take place at Versailles and will be private. Jules Cambon, of the French Peace Mission, alone will be present. Article 61 of the German Constitution would have given Austria representation in the German Parliament. The Supreme Council declared that this provision was contrary to the stipulations of the Versailles treaty.

TROUBLE OVER FIUME.

ROME, Sept. 20.

Premier Nitti and Foreign Minister Tittoni have disagreed over the Fiume incident, the latter disapproving of the Premier's attitude, according to the newspapers. A despatch from Trieste says a fleet of airplanes has landed near Fiume and has been placed at the disposition of Captain Gabriele D'Annunzio, having flown from one of the Italian aviation camps.

THE FIUME SITUATION.

ROME, Sept. 19.

The Tribune announces to-day that a person returning from Fiume stated that General Badoglio, in charge of the Italian troops outside Fiume, had granted a delay of 48 hours to officers and soldiers in Fiume to return to Italy. It was added that the population of Fiume had decided to make an unmistakable demonstration of their feelings at the expiration of this ultimatum on Saturday. Women and children and men of the civil population were to precede the troops to the armistice line, shielding the troops with their bodies in order to see whether General Badoglio's soldiers would fire on them.

BELGAIN AND DUTCH AMBASSADORS WITHDRAWN.

LONDON, Sept. 21.

An official wireless despatch from Berlin, dated Saturday, says that the Belgian Ambassador at The Hague having been withdrawn, the Dutch Ambassador at Brussels also has been withdrawn.

A. J. BALFOUR TO GET EARLDOM.

LONDON, Sept. 20.

According to the Daily Mirror, Arthur J. Balfour, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is soon to be created an Earl in recognition of his services to the Empire during the war. The newspaper adds that the raising of Mr. Balfour to an Earldom is likely to come simultaneously with his retirement from the Foreign Office which is expected to take place during the autumn. The Mirror says also that when Viscount Grey relinquishes his post of Ambassador to the United States a few months hence, Mr. Balfour may be invited to succeed him.

ALLIED WARSHIPS LEAVE FIUME.

LONDON, Sept. 20.

After a conference between the Allies Commanders at Abbazi, Allied warships have left the harbor of Fiume and have levelled their guns on the town according to a German Government wireless report quoting advices received in Berlin to Laibach and Vienna. The despatch states that it is assumed an ultimatum will be sent demanding that Captain D'Annunzio's forces evacuate the town within twenty-four hours.

CHANGES IN BRITISH MINISTRY.

LONDON, Sept. 21.

In a forecast of the coming reconstruction of the Ministry, the Sunday Times says that Premier Lloyd George has decided to add another olive branch to Ireland, "recognising, as does Bonar Law, that resolute Government has been carried to the farthest extent possible, and that Ireland cannot be definitely kept under military occupation." The correspondent, commenting on the fact that James Ian Macpherson, Chief Secretary for Ireland, did not accompany Viscount French, Lord-Lieutenant and Governor-General of Ireland, on his visit to London for the week-end to discuss the situation, says there is a suspicion that indisposition, which is given as the reason for his absence, may be the prelude to Macpherson's resignation. "He, Macpherson, has so identified himself, with the policy of strong repression," the correspondent says, in this connection, "that any reversion to conciliation must involve his retirement." The Times says the Prime Minister has sounded certain Labor leaders on the suggestion of co-operation, but they have definitely declined. "Hence," it adds, "the Ministerial changes probably will be few." Viscount Rothermere, who is a zealous economist, according to the Times will probably be appointed Secretary of War. Winston Spencer Churchill, the present Secretary of War, will go to the Colonial Office, as Viscount Milner, who holds that office, is anxious to retire. It is pointed out by the Times that the only difficulty attached to the return of Viscount Rothermere to the Ministry is his antagonism to Mr. Bonar Law, but the newspaper says the Prime Minister will find a formulae enabling them to work together, as Bonar Law is regarded as an indispensible member of the Government. No decision has been reached regarding a successor to Walter Hume Long, who is expected to retire as First Lord of the Admiralty.

Crakenthrop, as Minister to Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, and Salvador.
