MADE WELL AND STRONG

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto.—I gladly give you my testimonial in favor of your wonderful medicines. Last October I wrote to you for advice as I was completely run down, had bearing down sensation in the lower part of bowels, backache, and pain in the side. I also suffered terribly from gas.

After receiving your directions, I followed them closely and am now entirely free from pain in back and bowels, and am stronger in every way.

I also took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my baby was born, and I recommend it highly to all pregnant women.—MRS. E. WANDBY, 92 Logan Ave., Toronto, Ont.

Another Woman Cured

Maple Creek, Sask.—I have used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I am now in perfect health. I was troubled with pains every month. I know other women who suffer as I did and I will gladly recommend your medicine to them. You may publish this if you think it will help others.—MRS. F. E. COOK, Maple Creek, Sask.

If you belong to that countless army of women who suffer from some form of female ills, don't hesitate to try Lydia E. Pinkham Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs.

Three U. S. Vessels In Honduran Waters

THE U. S. GUNBOAT WHEELING ORDERED TO HONDURAS.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The U. S. gunboat Wheeling has sailed from Guantanmo, Cuba, for Puerto Cortez, where it probably will arrive on Saturday. This will increase the American representation in Honduran waters to three vessels, the gunboats Marietta and Tacoma already being at Puerto Cortez.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 2.—With 9 men aboard ill, with yellow fever, the American gunboat Marietta is now on her way from Puerto Cortez, Honduras to Key West, Fla.

She sailed from Central American waters under orders from the navy department which were issued as soon as the officials here were advised that the stricken men were suspected of having yellow fever.

Why U. S. Intervened.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 3.—The explanation of the action of the American naval forces in landing at Puerto Cortez in Honduras and in undertaking to intervene between the government forces and the insurrectionists, with a view to bring about a settlement of the difficulty in that country without further bloodshed, was given today when the state department made public the text of telegrams exchanged between President Taft and President Daville, of Honduras within the past six days.

From this telegraphic correspondence it appears that in seeking to restore peace between the warring factions in Honduras, President Taft is simply conforming to the earnest wish of President Daville who telegraphed him last Sunday as follows:

"The government of Honduras is resolved to approve the loan convention. For this, suspension of hostilities is necessary in order to prevent the useless shedding of blood. If your excellency can lend your intervention to the end that the war may cease, the people and government of Honduras will have cause again to thank the United States and its worthy president for the interest they are taking for the tranquility and prosperity of this country."

President Taft's answer was forwarded last Tuesday as follows:

"I have received your excellency's telegram as evidence of your sincere desire to prevent useless bloodshed and disastrous waste of the already depleted resources of your country, and as a fresh token of your appreciation of the fact that the government of the United States is animated solely by a sincere desire to do what it can within proper limits to further the prosperity and welfare of the people of Honduras.

"The importance of the loan negotiations to which you allude lies in their being a contributory means to the same end, and this government's interest is because their object commends itself to all true friends of the people of Honduras for whose benefit, and only with whose sanction its consummation is desired.

"You will have learned from our minister of what this government has been able to do in offering its good offices to secure peaceful adjustment of the pending difficulties and to prevent fratricidal conflict."

THE MAN WITH A GRIEVANCE

Motive for Charges Made at Guides Meeting Apparent—Dismissed Warden Himself Twice Convicted Responsible

Newcastle, Feb. 3.—There is considerable discussion at Bathurst and among North Shore sportsmen in general over the alleged violations of the game law regulations in Gloucester, charged by William Grey of Bathurst, at the New Brunswick Guides' meeting in St. John. After the fullest investigation, your correspondent is in a position to state positively that the regulations are rigidly enforced in Gloucester and the game wardens are most efficient.

It seems peculiar, too, that some of the gentlemen were willing to accept Mr. Grey's version, although not one word of substantiation accompanied it. D. W. Clinch seems to have based his charges on information obtained from Grey.

Now comes the repudiation of the entire charges of incompetency against the Guides. Grey, as is generally known, was a game warden under the former government, but as better men were available he was not reappointed.

On previous occasions it had been charged that he was guilty of poaching, and other violations of the game act. Chief Game Warden Dennis Doyle, of Newcastle, with the assistance of his deputies, Messrs. Getty and O'Brien investigated charges against Grey and had him brought before Magistrate Edward O'Brien at Bathurst, and twice convicted. Grey is appealing the cases.

A former Liberal game warden himself a convicted violator, reveals a nice situation indeed. And this is the man who lays information at the guides' meeting in St. John saying a guide had not been seen in the woods for over three years. Surely this is sufficient proof of Grey's inefficiency to treat game matters in an honest light. Mr. Grey is a guide and as such must know full well what duties are obligatory on him to perform. He is bound on his oath as a guide to report to the proper authorities any case of violation which he is aware of. That is all that was required, and the game warden would be forced to investigate. Still Grey has not reported the violations to Mr. Doyle or his deputies.

The circumstances must serve to prove that Grey is a Liberal with a grievance against the surveyor general's department. Had he not been convicted there might have been more force to his arguments, but the situation must make his opinion of big game matters less weighty than heretofore.

The cold weather here continues. The thermometer registered 20 below this morning.
