INJUNCTION PROCEEDINGS ARE DROPPED

Rescinding of Council's Resolution Makes Action Unnecessary and Chief Clark Abandons it.

The common council having rescinded the resolution of December 23 to reduce the police force to one man, D. Mullin, K. C., acting for the plaintiff, W. Walker Clark, chief of police, announced this morning that the object of the injunction having been attained his client had no desire to proceed further.

When the hearing was resumed at eleven o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Mullin said that since the last hearing he had looked into the authorities cited by Mr. Baxter as to the procedure and was prepared to argue in support of the form taken. He referred to a newspaper report of last Monday's meeting of the common council in which it was said that motion had been made to rescind the resolution, Mr. McLellan having said that the object of his resolution had been accomplished. The report did not say that this resolution had been carried and he asked the recorder if such was the case, and the latter assured him that the original resolution had been rescinded. Mr. Mullin then said that his instructions from his client were to the effect that it was not his desire to press the suit further, though he felt convinced that he could go on to a hearing. But the object of the resolution having been attained, he did not wish to press the matter any further as the chief had no desire to do anything that would invite the hostility of the powers that be at City Hall. Under the circumstances he said that he would not ask for any costs.

Mr. Baxter, K. C., said that the resolution had been rescinded and would never have been put in force, even if the injunction had not been granted As the matter was of a public nature and no actual expense had been incurred he would not ask for any costs for the city.

His Honor said that he would not dissolve the injunction without hearing the argument. But as the object was to prevent the putting into force of the resolution to reduce the police force to one man, and that resolution had been rescinded, there was no necessity of proceeding further; and the matter would just be dropped. Had the injunction been continued, he said, the city would have had to pay costs, and had it been dissolved, the plaintiff would have been obliged to pay costs.

Mr. Mullin agreed that the matter should be dropped, and this ended the hearing.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of John McAllister took place yesterday afternoon from his late home in Duke street, Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. H. A. Anderson and interment was in Fernhill.

The body of Robert J. Anderson, who died in Boston, was brought to the city on the Boston express yesterday. The funeral took place from the depot and interment was in Fernhill. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. Ross.

Skin Diseases

ARE PAINFUL AND UNSIGHTLY.

Among the most prevalent are Salt Rheum, Eczema, Tetter, Rash, Boils, Pimples and Itching Skin Eruptions.

These troubles always arise from the blood being in a bad condition and it is absolutely impossible to eradicate them from the system unless you put your blood into good shape. This you can do without the slightest trouble by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

It drives out all the humor from the blood, and makes it pure and rich. Thousands of people have used it during the last thirty-five years and have been cured.

Mr. Robert Gamble, Jones Falls, Ont., says:—"I write with the greatest of pleasure to recommend your great blood purifier, Burdock Blood Bitters. My wife and I had itching sores on our face and ears, and tried everything to help them, but found no relief. We saw your B.B.B. advertised and got a bottle, and before it was half gone we both were getting better, and when it was all gone we were cured."

MISS JACK MAY IS MAKING GOOD ON HER "ESTATE"

London Society Woman who Created Local Comment by Reason of "Rational Dress" now in Alberta.

Miss Jack May who it will be remembered passed through St. John on her way to the West and who became the subject of comment at Sand Point through her eccentricities of dress, is evidently "making good" in the home of her adoption. A Canadian Press despatch from Edmonton has this to say of her:

"I would rather plough than go to the theatre. I would rather plant corn than attend a pink tea. I much prefer currying my horses to arraying myself in an evening gown. What's a butterfly social life in damp and foggy England compared to real life to bright sunshine and bracing cold?"

From High Society.

These are the views from no less a personage than Miss Jack May, a slender and most charming young woman who owns and operates a farm in the "wilds" of Canada. She is a daughter of Admiral May of the British navy and has seen life in the highest English society from the inside. When the Boer war broke out she went to the front as a nurse and there she awoke to the fact that there was something more in life than card parties and pink teas and theatres.

Upon her arrival home she at once entered the Swanley Agricultural College at Kent and at the conclusion of her course she amazed her friends by becoming manager of a dairy farm. After a time she became manager of another farm in Kent devoted to general purposes of agriculture, from which place she came to the Canadian west. She bought a ranch of 350 acres in northern Alberta, near a railroad, and now all English society is watching her venture with interest. Not a man is employed on Miss May's farm. Her only companion and helper is a Canadian girl of 18.

"Go back to society again? Not for world's," she declared emphatically.

Western Dress.

Although this little English woman has sacrificed conventional feminine garb and has given up social life completely, she has lost none of the charm that made her a favorite in select circles in the Old Land. Her everyday costume consists of stout leather boots and leather puttees, riding breeches of heavy blue serge, a man's shirt, and a short khaki coat. When she desires a really "dress up" she wears a soft collar and tie and a peasant's smock of navy blue demin, which comes to her knees, and is losely belted around the waist.

"I love the freedom of life and the bigness of things out here on the prairies," she said recently. "In England one is bound by convention as one's fields are girt with hedges. Here I can do as I choose. I would not go back to stay under any consideration."

"FRECKLES" NEXT WEEK

In the abstract strong stories do not make strong plays. but with "Freckles" which will be the attraction at the Opera House next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, there is an exception, it has made a stronger play than it was a story. and it is just as gripping to the theatregoer as it was to the novel-reader. It is a play for all classes. Freckles with his ready wit, his sweet songs and his battles with "Black Jack" and the rest of the "timber thieves," gives to the play a variety of incidents strong dramatically and strangely interesting.

A MODERN MIRACLE

He Had Eczema 25 Years and Doctors Said "No Cure"

Yet Zam-Buk has Worked Complete Cure.

This is the experience of a man of high reputation, widely known in Montreal, and whose case can readily be investigated. Mr. T. M. Marsh, the gentleman referred to, lives at 101 Delorimier Avenue, Montreal, and has lived there for years. For twenty-five years he has had eczema on his hands and wrists. The disease first started in red blotches, which itched, and when scratched became painful. Bad sores followed, which discharged, and the discharge spread the disease until his hands were one raw, painful mass of sores. This state of affairs continued for twenty-five years!

In that time four eminent medical men tried to cure him, and each gave up the case as hopeless. Naturally, Mr. Marsh tried remedies of all kinds, but he, also, at last gave it up. For two years he had to wear gloves day and night so terrible was the pain and itching when the air got to the sores.

Then came Zam-Buk! He tried it just as he had tried hundreds of remedies before. But he soon found out that Zam-Buk was different. Within a few weeks there were distinct signs of benefit, and a little perseverance with this great herbal balm resulted in what he had given up all hope of—a complete cure! And the cure was no temporary cure. It was permanent. He was cured nearly four years ago. Interviewed the other day, Mr. Marsh said: "The cure which Zam-Buk worked has been absolutely permanent. From the day that I was cured to the present moment I have had no trace of eczema, and I feel sure it will never return."

If you suffer from any skin trouble, cut out this article, write across it the name of this paper, and mail it with one cent stamp to pay return postage, to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. We will forward you by return a free trial box of Zam-Buk. All druggists and stores sell this famous remedy, 50c. box, or three for $1.25. Refuse harmful substitutes.

M'DONALD CASE IN COURT YESTERDAY

Defendant Claimed Collier Owed Him and He Held Back Returns Until Amount Due was Paid.

The entire session of the police court yesterday morning and afternoon was taken up in the hearing in the case of James A. McDonald, charged with stealing from the P. F. Collier Publishing Company.

J. H. Theis, the general manager of the company in Canada, was on the stand all day and the evidence taken was regarding the returns sent in to the head office by McDonald while he was the manager in New Brunswick with headquarters in St. John.

W. M. Davis testified to paying McDonald $6.75 for books, and Leon Keith, agent for the Stockton building, told about McDonald paying him the rent for offices in the building.

At the afternoon sessions there were a number of exchanges betwen R. St. J. Freeze, representing the defence and H. J. Smith for the prosecution.

General Manager Theis was on the stand all afternoon and testified that he had notified McDonald of specific items of shortage which McDonald had never made up.

Mr. Freeze stated to the witness that they were trying to collect amounts from McDonald while the company owed the defendant money. McDonald had asked for an itemized account and if he found he owed the company he would pay, but he had a right to an offset on the money coming to the company.

Witness Theis said he had sent McDonald an itemized account and told him if he did not pay the company what was coming to them they would take action against him. McDonald had written back that he had a right to retain certain money on account of expenses he had sustained.

Mr. Freeze stated that the defendant had asked for three months' salary, amounting to $315, or three months' notice of dismissal. Mr. Theis admitted that such was the case but said he had refused to consider McDonald's request and told him to turn in all the money he had collected.

Mr. Freeze said there was no intention of stealing and claimed that McDonald had the right to hold the money and that if there was any shortage in the accounts the defendant was ready to pay.

Continuing, Witness Theis claimed a shortage on stock that McDonald said he had shipped, but McDonald could not produce a receipt from the express company for the stock and the express company claimed they had never received the said stock from defendant.

The case was adjourned at five o'clock and will be resumed in the police court this afternoon at two o'clock.

"The Only Cure for Piles"

Writes Mr. Taylor in Telling His Experience With Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Mr. M. Taylor.

Because Dr. Chase's Ointment brings almost immediate relief from the dreadful itching, burning, stinging sensations of piles, it is well worth the attention of everyone suffering from this annoying disease.

In most cases, even after years of standing, Dr. Chase's Ointment makes a thorough and lasting cure of itching, bleeding and protruding piles.

Mr. Maxwell Taylor, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes: "To all sufferers from piles in any form I would recommend Dr. Chase's Ointment as the only cure. Over a year ago while in Boston I became afflicted with a dreadful itching. I went to a doctor, who gave me some ointment, which made me no better. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment, and by the use of two boxes I was entirely cured. You may publish this statement in order that other sufferers may profit by my experience."

Dr. Chase's Ointment can better prove its value by the relief it affords than by all the words we could use in its praise. 60 cents a box, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when often it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement.

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without much relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."—Mrs. ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?

Twenty-three years ago one pleased housewife told another her great secret of success — And now over nine hundred thousand home-cooks use FIVE ROSES.

Clean Within!

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills Purify the Blood and Prolong Life

Vigorous health at 70 due to Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills.

If as much intelligent care were given to keeping the body clean and pure within as well as without we would see more healthy, vigorous old men and women. The daily bath does its part by keeping the pores of the skin open so that they throw off much of the body's impurities, but it is even more important that the bowels and kidneys should be kept regular and active.

If the bowels fail, as they often do late in life, to move regularly, at least once a day, the waste matter from the food accumulates, decays, poisons the system and upsets the stomach.

If the kidneys are sluggish the impurities which they should filter from the blood remain and cause rheumatism.

Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills regulate the bowels, stimulate the kidneys and open up the pores of the skin. The result is a body clean within—pure, red blood—good digestion—and a hale and hearty old age.

Three generations have proved the value of Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills, and their sale is steadily increasing all over the world.
