Dyspepsia

Makes many lives miserable, and often leads to self destruction. Distress after eating, sick headache, heartburn, sour stomach, mental depression, etc., are caused by this very common and increasing disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla tones the stomach, creates an appetite, promotes healthy digestion, relieves sick headache, clears the mind, and cures the most obstinate cases of dyspepsia. Read the following:

"I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. In an hour after eating I would experience a faintness or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced. It relieved me of that faint, tired, all-gone feeling. I have felt so much better since I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I am happy to recommend it." G. A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

FOOTBALL.

A large crowd, among whom were many ladies, witnessed one of the best matches of the season at Seaforth on Monday, when the old champions again faced each other. The Detroit team was recruited by one or two Canadian players. The match resulted in a tie, each team securing three goals. Seaforth took the first, fourth and fifth, and Detroit the second, third and sixth, all being scored in the first half.

THE KENNEL.

At the Industrial Exhibition Bench Show Mr. F. C. Wheeler, Cincinnati, O., late of London, will officiate as judge for fox terriers, bull terriers, Irish terriers, Bedlington terriers and Italian greyhounds.

HOMING PIGEONS.

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—The Pittsburg birds made their first trial for the prizes Sunday, and, while far short of the Fall River figures, their speed is the best made to date this season to Pennsylvania lofts. The entry was sixteen birds, five hens and eleven cocks. The start was from Consohocton, O., 1,007 miles distant. The hens were liberated at 11 a.m., central standard, the cocks eleven minutes later. The first return was Springfield Bells. The bird was out fifteen hours and fifteen minutes, and covered the distance in the average speed of 1,169 yards per minute.

THE TURF.

The pacing stallion Glendennis, owned by C. J. Hamlin, took a record of 2:17½ at New York Wednesday and died three hours later. Over exertion was the cause.

On Sunday afternoon the training stable at Woodburg farm, eighteen miles from Lexington, Ky., burned to the ground. It contained 22 head of valuable trotters in training for this season's campaigns, several of them being the get of the famous Electioneer. By hard work all but nine were saved. All the sulkies, etc., belonging to the training stable were destroyed with no insurance. Loss about $12,000.

THE WHEEL.

Mr. T. A. Edge, who has at various times succeeded in breaking bicycle records, started Monday morning on a notable journey with his wheel. He has mapped out a route from Lands End to John O'Groat's, thence to London, which will require him to cover 2,039 miles, though the distance, as the crow flys, between those points is hardly more than half that much.

THE SPIRITULISTIC OUTBREAK.

Mr. McRobert Takes a Tilt at Medium Church.

The School Trustee Would Now Like a Public Seance.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

My attention has been called to another letter from W. T. Church, dated June 3, which was published in your valuable paper of the 6th inst. After many meetings of this wonderful medium and his hypnotized followers, including one of whom Mr. Wm. Wilson, who claims to be possessed of a massive brain and a massive mind, and expects through the influence of Medium Church and his numerous "controls" [to at no distant date occupy a prominent position on the floor of the House of Parliament, and who has assured us on many occasions that he will be controlled by the "spirit" of a late eminent barrister in this city and that he will wield a mighty influence towards remodeling the laws of this country. Now wonder then, sir, that this combination has thrown up spiritualism as a loosing game and taken up politics as probably their forte. But, sir, they claim even politics will answer but for a trial or a parting shot at this "formidable adversary," who is trying to "ruin his business in London and elsewhere," but he made the same dying kick in Buffalo when surprised and routed there. But of course he had not Mr. Wilson there to help him, with his massive brain and mind, and I am not surprised that Friend Wilson will lend a helping hand to his captain who has done so much for him; but why not come out over your own signature, Friend Wilson, and tell the public how this "poor, little, decrepid old man over 60 years of age" is foully treated and misrepresented. Tell them of the wonders worked for you through the spirits, of how they (spirits) gave a confidential receipt for manufacturing a paint "duplicator," how they guarded your every act, how Mr. Greenwood had left Australia and got as far as San Francisco with $100,000 to buy this receipt, and how he disappeared in that western city and has not since been heard of. What a sad loss it was! Yes, give us your history in this connection and never mind diverting the subject of controversy from "W. T. Church's" honesty as a medium, to politics, the facts which have their source in the imaginative brain of this wonderful materializing medium. Why, the spirits will be relating this story to the circle in another city ere long, and when you give the public this little piece of information your arguments in future may carry more weight. Then it will be in order for Medium Church to give the experience of his father-in-law and himself in the city of Toronto, when they got this same receipt from "Mr. Spirit Newell," and spent a portion of their time peddling it around Toronto in tin cans and the balance of the day "blowing the proceeds." This will not be politics, either, but further evidences of Mr. Church's honesty.

Why, sir, this political dodge of Mr. Church's, to side track the subject, won't go with thinking people. They will understand the scheme, and that there is not the semblance of truth in the statement is borne upon its face, from the vindictive tone in which it is written, and for proof of this, if any is required, I will simply refer to the two gentlemen in question, who will tell you that I never mentioned politics or vote to either of them in any way however, but when he says those two gentlemen had not attended the seances for a couple of weeks or so before the close, the reason why might be of interest to the public and throw a somewhat different light on Mr. Church's statement. One evening during a seance a "spirit" came to one of these gentlemen, and contrary to rules he put up his hand and took Mr. Spirit by the whiskers, giving them a jerk. For this violation of the rules he was barred out of future seances. Again, sir, your attention is called to a number of very beautiful things we saw—of course! And if we had not seen these wonderful things (in our minds) this exposure would never have been printed—we would have been simply expelled from the class long ago, as none but the faithful can have the pleasure and honor of occupying the "developing chair." Now, sir, this combination has not attempted to disprove one single statement I have made in any of my communications, nor can they do so. They content themselves with talking politics, or calling attention to something new, which has taken root in their fertile brains during the week, and unworthy of reply. If they can disprove my statements in regard to Church's honesty, let them do so, get the Grand Opera House, give a public seance and prove my letters are false. I think the public would be interested to know how many Messrs Church and Wilson can get out of that notable 50 to sign a certificate that his performances are genuine and free of fraud. Now, sir, I was born and brought up within a few miles of this city, and have been a resident of London for twenty years, and I do not carry a silver plate in my head as the result of a slug-shot, and have never forged a man's name to a receipt, and have never been accused of robbery, and on the whole I think my record will compare favorably with my opponent's in this controversy.

W. T. Church teaches his followers to believe that their every act is controlled by some alleged "spirit," and without the aid of this controlling "spirit" their efforts in any event would be weak indeed. Then, sir, it is not a surprise that Messrs. Church and Wilson believe I am controlled by a "spirit" from the "infernal regions" when I attempt to give their little money-making scheme away and expose their exhibition of fraud and deception. Now, sir, this bluffing scheme of Messrs. Church and Wilson won't change the public belief that their exhibition is a fraud, and I would again suggest that they give a public seance and let us have some evidence of the honesty of their show. This ought to be an easy matter for them, as but a few weeks ago Mr. Wilson threatened Medium Church, and assured a number of us that if he (Mr. Church) did not keep sober he would give a public seance himself (he being a powerful medium) and ruin him for all time to come in London. Now is your time, Friend Wilson. Let us have your exhibition, and settle this matter for all time to come before you retire on your "paint scheme" and go to Parliament. I remain, yours truly,

E. J. MCROBERT.

LONDON'S STANDING.

The City's Assessment for 1891 and 1892.

The Population Increases 375, the Valuation $96,290.

Interesting Statistics for Residents of the Forest City—A Comparative Table.

Assessment Commissioner Grant and his assistants have completed the compilation of the assessment rolls for 1892, and the result as made known to ADVERTISER readers in the appended tables.

As will be seen, the population of the six wards of the city in 1891 was 31,240, and this year it is 31,615, an addition of 375 souls. This increase is general, covering all the wards.

In 1891 the total assessment of real and personal property and taxable income was $15,236,807; in 1892, $15,333,097. Increase for the year, $96,290. Wards 1, 3, 4 and 6 share in this increase; Ward 2 has lost $6,665 and Ward 5, $3,195. The value of real property has increased during that period $144,770; but this is partially offset by a decrease of $48,200 in personal property and of $280 in taxable income assessment.

The number of children between the ages of 5 and 21 is 9,259 this year, and was 9,448 in 1891; and between 7 and 13 years of age 4,133 in 1892, and 4,217 in 1891.

The following complete statement will be interesting, as it compares the city's standing in 1891 with that of 1892:

Number of ward.	Population	Non-residents.	Jurors.	Value of each parcel of real property.	Value of personal property other than income.	Taxable income. None Worth Considering

[Hon. John D. Long.]

I never heard an argument against woman suffrage. I have heard expressions of honest and crusty prejudice, and the blunt won't-have it. I know the conservative faintness that is terrified at the fall of a rose-leaf, and I appreciate the weight of the inertia of custom. But I never heard a reason urged against woman suffrage that was worth considering, or that was not an insult to the understanding of a very small boy.

Syrup of Figs.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches and curing habitual constipation.

"Ocean greyhounds" get that name because they are not tarryers.

"Ma," said a discouraged little Maple street urchin, "I ain't going to school any more." "Why dear?" tenderly inquired his mother. "'Cause tain't any use. I can never learn to spell. The teacher keeps changing words on me all the time."

A Cure for Constipation and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion, it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents a package.
