FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

POTATOES WERE EASIER TODAY

Highest Price on Local Market Was $1.10 a Bushel.

HAY WAS PLENTIFUL

Sold as Low as $10 a Ton Today—Oats Were Somewhat Easier on the Local Square.

Many farmers took advantage of the circus to combine business and pleasure, and as a result there was a very good market this morning.

Hay was offered in quantities, about 80 loads being sold. The price opened briskly at $11 50, but later dropped till it was selling as low as $10, and even some loads went for $9 50.

Oats, too, were somewhat easier, though the demand was good. The majority brought $1 54, though odd load sold as high as $1 58, or as low as $1 50.

Wheat again dropped, selling at 95 cents, but there was a good demand.

Butchers' meats were very slow in sale, and there was only a very moderate supply.

Vegetable Prices.

There were a number of changes in the prices of vegetables.

Potatoes were somewhat easier, the highest price being $1 10 a bushel. Tomatoes, however, were considerably higher, going at 90 cents to $1 per basket, or at 10 cents per box. Corn was offered at 12½ cents a dozen and was soon disposed of. Cauliflower sold at 10 cents each and celery was offered at 40 cents a dozen bunches.

There was very little change in the prices of fruit. Black currants were somewhat higher, selling for 12 cents a box or $1 40 per ten-quart basket. Apples sold at 90 cents to $1 per bushel.

LIVE STOCK.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Aug. 9.—"Nothin' doin'," was the word all over the Union stockyards today.

Export cattle are being largely held over until tomorrow, prices having eased off some.

Butchers' cattle were going very slowly.

There were 2,154 cattle received, 250 sheep, 70 hogs and 28 calves, and up till noon but only a small percentage had changed hands.

Whaley, Coughlin & Co. bought 22 butchers at $4 60, 8 at $3 85, 11 at $4, and 6 at $4 80, for a starter.

A. B. McDonald sold 2 first-class cows at $4 50, 21 butchers, averaging 922 lbs, at $4 30.

The D. B. Martin Company bought 200 firsts for $4 60 to $5, and a drove of seconds from $4 20 to $4 40.

S. Haining sold 2 milkers and 1 springer for $85. "That was the best I could do," he remarked.

H. P. Kennedy bought a load averaging 1,100 lbs at $4 90.

"I never saw it so dull around the stockyards as it is right now," said Mr. Kennedy. "Prices have eased off, the demand is small and the supply is just in keeping."

EAST LONDON

CIRCUS MAN SUFFERED SOME PAINFUL INJURIES

Accident to Employe of Barnum's Big Show While Unloading in East End.

Verne Lade, of Reading, Pennsylvania, was very severely bruised this morning while helping unload the circus vans in East London.

He was holding the tongue of one of the big wagons while it was being run down a runway, when it jerked loose.

Lade lost his balance, and before he could recover himself the wheels had passed over his leg.

He was taken to Victoria Hospital, and it was found that the leg was very badly wrenched and bruised, but Lade will be able to leave this afternoon, and after a rest of a day or two can work again.
