COMMITTEE ORGANIZED TO IMPROVE THE PARKS

Preliminary Work is Done—May Seek Information From the United States.

The special committee to consider the preparation of a plan for park improvements was organized yesterday afternoon.

There were present Controller Hocken, Ald. Vaughan, Hales, Bengough, Chisholm, Keeler and Adams, J. P. Hynes of the Guild of Civic Art and R. Home Smith of the board of trade. The Trades and Labor Council was not represented. Controller Hocken was appointed chairman.

Mr. Smith suggested that much valuable information might be obtained by communicating with United States cities. There was a great movement for park improvement going on in that country, and it might be well to invite one or more of the prominent leaders to address the committee.

The names of Joseph Lee and Sylvester Baxter of Boston and Mr. Burnham of Chicago were considered and some action along this line may be taken later.

In order that a solid basis upon which to proceed might be carried out, Property Commissioner Harris, who is temporarily in charge of the parks department, was instructed to prepare a report showing the number of parks, their acreage, number of park employes, and giving general information. This will be ready in two weeks, when the committee will meet again.

A sub-committee made up of Controller Hocken, Ald. Vaughan, Mr. Smith and Mr. Hynes will meet on Friday at 12.30 p.m. to draw up a plan of procedure.

VON BUELOW TO QUIT.

Berlin Court Gossip Predicts an Early Retirement.

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—It is current gossip among officials and diplomats here that Chancellor von Buelow will soon retire from office. He has held his post seven years despite the machinations of a strong party at court composed of disappointed office-seekers and men and women of the old nobility, whose lax principles he has censured. Without a following among his own class and constantly menaced by court intrigue, has has now aroused a fury of hatred among the Socialists, who hold him responsible for all their wrongs.

NEW YORK POLICEMAN CHARGED AS BURGLAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Patrolman Geo. Dawkins, attached to the Adams-street Police Station, Brooklyn, was arrested today when he reported for duty by Capt. Max Steinbruck on a charge of robbery. His case will come before the grand jury and sensational developments are expected.

Scott Ryan, a confessed thief, is the man who told the story upon which Dawkins was arrested, charging that he was privy and a confederate to at least one robbery, and declaring that Dawkins was concerned in a hold-up a year ago, for which he was brought to trial but discharged for lack of evidence.

TROY, N. Y., Jan. 29.—The body of James Todd, a clerk in a night lunch wagon, was found dead early this morning, shocked to death by a live wire. The wagon is lighted by electricity.

JOSEPH E. LESLIE GUILTY.

Sent to Joliet Penitentiary for Bigamy.

CHICAGO, Jan. 29.—Joseph E. Leslie, an alleged hypnotist and bigamist, was convicted in Judge Kersten's court of bigamy and was sentenced to a term in Joliet penitentiary of from one to five years. Miss Nina Wright, wife No. 2, testified. She said:

"I was chambermaid in a Toronto house where Leslie was attending bar. He made love to me by those horrid eyes, and I could not resist him. He threatened my life several times." The couple had met at Grimsby.

Prosecuting Attorney Short produced the duplicate of a marriage license to Bessie Cronin, the first wife.

Leslie said: "I never married that woman in Canada, but I admit that the two children are mine. I have provided for them up to ten years ago. Nina was such a pretty girl and good singer that I could not refrain from marrying her."

Mrs. Kestners, sister of the first wife, said, pointing her finger at the defendant, who quivered: "You legally married my sister, and how dare you defame her name and the name of the children? You told me you were married to her the day of the ceremony, Dec. 19, 1889."

Leslie's attorney was appointed by the court, as he is penniless. The defence based its case on the statement of Leslie that there was no first marriage. They admit he legally married Nina Wright.

There is a fortune awaiting the brother of Harry Raynor, formerly of Toronto, who died recently at Colorado. The estate is valued at about $10,000.

City of Toronto,
County of York,
To wit:

Notice is hereby given that the list of lands now liable to be sold for arrears of assessments of taxes in the City of Toronto has been prepared and is being published in an advertisement in The Ontario Gazette, upon the 14th, 21st and 28th December, 1907, and 4th January, 1908.

Copies of such list or advertisement may be had upon application to me on and after the 20th inst.

In default of the payment of taxes as shown on the said list, on or before Wednesday, the 25th day of March, 1908, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, I shall, at the said time and at the City Hall, Toronto, proceed to sell by Public Auction the said lands, or such portions thereof, as shall be necessary to pay such arrears, together with all charges thereon.

R. T. COADY, City Treasurer.

City Treasurer's Office, Toronto, Dec. 16th, 1907. 4

Public notice is hereby given that under the first part of Chapter 79 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, 1906, known as "The Companies Act," letters patent have been issued under the seal of the Secretary of State of Canada, bearing date the 21st day of December, 1907, incorporating Francis Dudley Mackay, manufacturer; Albert Edward Knox, barrister-at-law; Charles Forsyth Ritchie, student-at-law; Arthur Gould Parish, student-at-law, and George Keogh, student-at-law, all of the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario, for the following purposes, viz.: (a) To carry on business as opticians, cutlers, jewelers, gold and silversmiths, and as manufacturers of and dealers in optical and scientific instruments and appliances of every description, compasses, opera and field glasses, thermometers, fountain pens, gold and silver plate, plated articles, watches, watch and other chains, chatelaines and chronometers, and tools, machines and machinery for manufacturing or handling any of the above-mentioned articles, instruments or appliances. (b) To acquire the good-will, undertaking, rights, property and assets, and to undertake the whole or any part of the liabilities and engagements of the Cohen Bros., Limited, and Montreal Optical Company, or either of them, as going concerns, and of any other person or firm carrying on a similar business, and to pay for the same in cash, stock, bonds, debentures or other securities of this company or otherwise. (c) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business and which is germane to the objects for which the company is incorporated. (d) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, licenses, concessions and the like conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the company or the acquisition of which may seem calculated to benefit the company, and to use, exercise, develop or grant licenses in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired. (e) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits or union of interests with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the company is authorized to carry on or engage in, and to make advances, to guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, or otherwise deal with the same, the whole subject to the provisions of "The Companies Act." (f) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects similar to those of the company. (g) To take over, acquire, hold, use, sell, lease, exchange, convey and mortgage such personal property and movables, machinery, trademarks, patents, licenses and franchises or rights thereunder as may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes for which the company is incorporated. (h) To lend and advance money or give credit to such persons, firms and companies as do business with the company and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the company, and to give guarantees or become security for any such persons, firms or companies. (i) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the company or any part thereof for such consideration as the company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects similar to those of the company, subject always to the provisions of Section 44 of "The Companies Act." (j) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with or on any part of the property and rights of the company. (k) To the extent and in the manner permitted by the laws of the Dominion of Canada or of each province, state, territory or country in which the company may do business, to conduct its business and to have one or more offices and to hold, purchase, lease, mortgage and convey real and personal property in the usual course of its business. (l) To do all or any of the above things as agents, contractors or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. (m) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above-mentioned objects or any of them. The operations of the company to be carried on throughout the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere by the name of "Consolidated Optical Company, Limited," with a capital stock of $250,000, divided into 3500 shares of $100, and the chief place of business of the said company to be at the City of Toronto, in the Province of Ontario.

Dated at the office of the Secretary of State of Canada, this 24th day of December, 1907.
