NOTICE.

To the Ministers as Agents of the "Wesleyan":—

In August last we sent out from this Office to all our ministers who act as Agents for the "Wesleyan," lists of subscribers on their respective circuits. If any have failed to receive such list, please communicate with the Publisher.

By referring to those lists it will be seen that a large number of our subscribers have not yet paid the subscription for 1883, and some, we regret to say, are still in arrears for 1882.

In the revision of our lists at the beginning of the New Year, we shall be compelled to strike off the names of all subscribers who are more than one year in arrears, or THOSE WHO HAVE NOT PAID TWO DOLLARS WITHIN TWELVE MONTHS.

We are sorry to lose a single subscriber, but if our brethren will only help us, we need lose but very few.

We therefore strongly but respectfully urge upon all our Ministers the duty of at once attending to the collection of all unpaid subscriptions.

We are endeavoring to make arrangements for the wider circulation of the Wesleyan, but in order to complete such arrangements we must collect from all who are in arrears.

To our Subscribers:

Please read the above notice to our Ministers, and if you have not paid your subscription within twelve months, do not wait to be called upon, but immediately pay over to the Minister on your Circuit, or send it direct to this office.

S. F. HUESTIS,
Oct. 16th, 1883. Book Steward.

SILVER BROOCH

Made in any Name.

We advertise extensively and wish to ascertain the relative merits of different papers, as not five per cent. of our patrons refer to the paper in which they have seen our advertisement.

As the season is advancing when we make new contracts, we adopt the following plan, which we shall use as a guide in selecting papers in which to advertise for the coming year.

The public will readily understand the value of the information we get and why we can afford to pay liberally for it. We wish to impress upon our many thousands of patrons throughout the Dominion that this is a bona fide offer and not a trade trick to sell goods.

The illustration at the head of this advertisement is a SOLID SILVER BROOCH, which we will furnish with ANY NAME DESIRED for $1.00 when accompanied by the annexed 50ct coupon. In no case will we sell the brooch at the price without the WESLEYAN coupon. The brooch is elegant and beautifully finished, and is good value for twice the price.

We send by mail prepaid, and guarantee satisfaction.

A FORTUNA TE ESCAPE. Mrs. Berkenshaw, 26 Pembroke St., Toronto, at one time was about to submit to a surgical operation for bad lameness of the kneed joint, all other treatment having failed when Hagyards Yellow Oil was tried, and speedily cured her.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.

"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me.
HORACE FAIRBROTHER."
Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute.

"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE."
Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN."
Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRAGDON."
Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.

"A. L. O. E. (Miss C. M. Tucker) may be termed a writer of sanctified fiction. There have been many of these, yet, judging by the hold her stories have had upon the youthful mind, she has been queen of them all. Gifted with the genius and possessed of the arts of the popular novelist, she knew how to catch attention and hold it. Her productions were characterized by ingenuity of plot and happiness of diction. But she was not content with endeavor simply to entertain. The spiritual profit of the reader was the prime purpose, and all else was bent to that end. Her work shows that she acutely comprehended child nature. Some writers tell a story with no inherent instruction, and append a moral. The child reads the story, skips the moral, and is nothing profited. Miss Tucker interweaves the two so that they cannot be separated. Every turn in her narratives illustrates some important truth or enforces some valuable lesson.'—Daily Witness.

The success attending this company during the past 15 years, in which its operations have been almost exclusively confined to the Province of Ontario, has induced the Directors to extend its operations to the Maritime Provinces. Its Motto is

The largest amount of assurance for the least possible outlay.

SPECIAL FEATURE: The Policy-holders get all the profits; in mixed Companies they ONLY PARTICIPATE.

In a letter to a member of the Ontario, the late Hon. D. McDonald said: "THE MUTUAL is the TRUE PRINCIPLE for LIFE ASSURANCE. Stockholders are of no more use than are barnacles to a ship. Were Life Assurance understood by people generally STOCK Companies would be avoided.
