The afternoon session of the African Methodist Episcopal convention, held yesterday in St. Philip's church, Queen street, was given over to the hearing of reports on the internal organization of the church throughout the province. Bishop Connor in his speech laid special stress on the work of these organizations, especially on the Sunday school work. The annual conference sermon was preached by C. M. Morgan of Amherst in the evening. The bishop followed Mr. Morgan with an address on the influence of the church on the lives of men and women. At the close of the session several joined the church.
