HOCKEY TOURISTS RIPE FOR THE PROS

St. Pats, Hamilton and Canadiens Angling for Prospects —Another Arena Writ.

The O. H. A.'s wholesale refusal of certificates to traveling players is not going to do the pros any narm. Several of the boys who failed to get their papers have been wanted by St. Patricks, and don't be surprised if you see some of them land here. McLeod of Collingwood, who flitted to Welland, is one in question. Red Green, Tex White and Herb Drury are other players who could easily make their way in the pro ranks. Then there is the Montreal boys who moved to Hamilton. Canadiens, Hamilton and St. Patricks are all scrambling for them, and it is a race to see who will get the prizes.

All this will waken more interest in the pro game, and whether the local club gets it quota or not will be closely watched. In the meantime the Saints have enough men to battle any team in the league, and their opening fixture of the local season with Canadiens this evening is causing a lot of talk. There has been a big advance sale, and the Frenchmen from Montreal are always prime favorites here, owing to the fact that they play clever hockey on the local ice. The Arena box office will be open from 11 a.m. to game time to accommodate those wishing to get their seats in advance.

Mitchell in goal, Cameron and Randall on the defence, and Noble, Wilson and Smylie will likely be the way the Saints will step out on the ice. This would leave Roach and Dye for the sub work.

De La Salle will stack against Moose A. C. in the final game of the elimination series for the junior S. P. A. trophy at the Arena on Monday night. The Moose A. C. are an unknown team in O. H. A. circles, but they managed to capture the championship of the Toronto Hockey Association last season, and are confident that they can beat De La Salle on Monday. Coach Steve Vair has plenty of candidates for his team, including Rosenfeld, who played for Barrie juniors last season, and was counted as the best forward they had. On the other hand, De La Salle have a strong team lined up for this season, and in Eddie Rodden they have a boy with a great appetite for getting goals. The "green shirts" say that they are going to win the trophy, but to do so they will have to down the Moose on Monday, and then go on and trim Varsity III., who hold the trophy.

St. Helen's juveniles practice this afternoon at 4 at Little Vic.

The three O.H.A. series get under way the coming week, with the opening games scheduled to be played on Thursday night. There will also be games on Friday and on Saturday, January 1 (New Year's night). The Preston, Brantford, Simcoe and Paris clubs will have the honor of opening. Preston will play at Brantford and Simcoe go to Paris, intermediate fixtures. On Friday night the first games in the "peninsular group" are scheduled. Dunnville will play in Niagara Falls, and the old rivals, Welland and Port Colborne, meet in Welland.

The O.H.A. season in Toronto opens Friday night with a junior game between Parkdale and Aura Lee. Kitchener and Argonauts pry the lid off the senior series on New Year's night. It will be a great game.

Christmas Eve at Osgoode Hall brought two more moves in the legal chess game for the possession of the Arena at Toronto; Frank G. Robinson, on behalf of himself and all other shareholders of the Arena Gardens, Limited, and the Toronto Hockey Club, Limited, on behalf of itself and all other creditors of the Arena Gardens have entered action at Osgoode Hall against the Toronto General Trusts, Limited, trustees for the bondholders, the Arena Gardens, Limited, Charles E. Robin, receiver; Wm. Lyall and Irving P. Rexford.

The plaintiff asks a declaration that the trust indenture in favor of defendant, the Toronto General Trusts, as amended by indenture made, dated July 19, 1917, does not cover and comprise in such security, the chattel property undertaking and business of the Arena Gardens. The writ asks for the setting aside of the appointment of Charles E. Robins as receiver.

A further writ was issued against the Arena Gardens, Limited, by the Canadian Hockey Association for damages for breach of agreement by defendants. W. Grant, the plaintiff, wants the sole and exclusive privilege for playing professional hockey thru the season 1920-21.

The western contingent will arrive in Toronto on the Canadian National on Tuesday afternoon, and will be met by a committee of local curlers, who will take them for a drive around the city. After the banquet the two teams will leave for Montreal. The westerners will leave at 11 o'clock and the Ontario contingent at 10 o'clock. The teams are to play against the Montreal curlers on Wednesday, and will be enertained by the local clubs until they leave for St. John. OTAZELL BASKETBALL TEAM.

Otazell basketball team of Toronto held a reorganization meeting after their practice last night, and decided to enter a team in the annual basketball tournament to be held at Central Y.M.C.A. next week to defend the John A. Tory Trophy, which they won last year in this tourney. The following officers were elected: President, Mr. P. Millar; secretary, Mr. N. Crawford; Manager Mr. G. R. Smith was re-elected for another year. After a brief discussion it was decided to branch out in other lines of sport. The team will line up with last year's players intact, with the addition of Jack Johnson of Central Y. seniors. This team is affiliated with the Ward's Island Association, and does not officially represent any other association in the city, despite rumors and reports to the contrary.

Tampa, Florida, Dec. 24.—Suggestions that Babe Ruth, Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker and other major league baseball stars be obtained for baseball clubs of the Florida West Coast winter baseball league were said today to be under consideration by Rube Allen, the league secretary. Competitive bidding for the services of the big league players by the St. Petersburg and Sara Sota Clubs led to the suggestion that their services be obtained by the league management and awarded to the weaker teams.

PAL MOORE IN GOOD SHAPE.

Sporting Editor World: Pal Moore, who will appear in your city next week, is in good shape and he will be ready to show the Toronto fans a few of the tricks that made him beat Wilde, Pete Herman and Joe Lynch. Moore is really the uncrowned champion and he has never lost a real fight in the last five years. Pete Herman has refused to meet Moore in a decision bout, and has agreed to meet Lynch and Wilde in preference to Moore.

We do not know anything about this boy Gould, but we will be ready for anything he has in stock. Moore is a real bantam and on the night of the 28th he will not be over 116 pounds.

Tex Rickard has just made us an offer of $10,000 for Moore to meet Jack Sharkey on the 29th, but we had to turn it down, as we are booked in your city the 27th. Moore and myself will arrive on the morning of the 26th, as we want to be home for Christmas.

The West End Y.M.C.A. senior house basketball league certainly had some finish last night, when the Pontiacs and Kumbacks battled for the championship. They came to the final game with only one defeat each. Referee Watson of the Playgrounds staff of officials was chosen to handle the game. The first few minutes of the contest was more of a warming-up period, in which the contestants played more of a checking game than trying for baskets. The first point was made by the Pontiacs on a foul shot. This was closely followed by a pretty piece of combination work between the Pontiac guards; they passed to Anderson, he making the first field goal. The Kumbacks at this point knew they were in the game, and a combination pass to Jenkisson counted two on their side of the score sheet. After ten minutes of play the score stood eight all, when they were given a rest, resulting from the excitement of a spectator, who knocked his cigars to the floor, and believe me the players certainly took advantage of the few minutes.

The restarting of play to the end of the half was close and the checking was clean. The passing and combination plays on both sides was of the gilt-edge variety, the Pontiacs having the better of the half. Score, Pontiac 13, Kumbacks 11.

The rest period was used by the teams in forming a new plan of attack. With two points down the Kumbacks went into the Pontiacs like wildcats and scored two baskets in quick succession before the Indians were awake to the fact that they were in a game. From this point until ten minutes of the final period the score was nip and tuck. It would be impossible to single out any one player who played the star game, for they all were shining. When the excitement was at the highest and the teams playing the snappy, close-checking game, Referee Watson ordered one of the Kumbacks out of the game for what he thought a breach of the playing rules. He was given two minutes, but in the excitement thought he was out of the game for good, so went to the showers. Big Chief Yeomans of the Indians suggested to Capt. Walker that he put another player in, but this was refused by the referee, so for two minutes the Kumbacks played with a man short, in which time two baskets were scored. When the Kumbacks were at full strength the score was evened up and then some, for they had one point to the good. Here the Pontiacs, with only four minutes to play, scored two baskets in quick succession, putting them three points ahead. The only other score was made by the Kumbacks from a foul shot as the Pontiacs were playing a guard game, they being content with a lead of two. Final score: Pontiacs 27, Kumbacks 25.

FOR MONDAY NIGHT BOUT.

The fact that Pal Moore is matched to meet Jack Sharkey next Wednesday night in New York for a ten thousand dollar purse and the right to box Joe Lynch for the bantamweight championship would apparently indicate that the southener holds Gould, whom he boxes here on Monday night at the armouries, rather lightly, but this is not the case. The bout in New York is contingent upon his beating Gould.

All the other principals, with the exception of Ray Graham, who boxes Harry Freeman in the eight-round semi-final, are already on the ground. There will be five bouts in all three sizes, and a four-round curtain-raiser in addition to the main bouts. Murray of Hamilton, who tackles Joe Wood of Jamestown in one of the preliminaries, is training at the Classic Club. McCracken is confident that he will stop Wishur inside of the six-round limit, and Newton entertains the same sentiments regarding Scotty Lisner.

Fitzpatrick, the Buffalo heavy, who is listed to battle Soldier Jones, will have to be pretty good to avoid meeting the fate that has befallen all of the Canadian champion's opponents in recent bouts.

CHRISTMAS FIVEPIN TOURNEY.

The Steel Company of Canada, Limited, held their annual Christmas fivepin tournament on the Athenaeum alleys. Fifty employes took part, battling for supremacy, paired off into two-man teams, consisting of a bowler and a nonbowler.

The team honors were carried off by Jack Glenny and Harry Wilkins, who turned in an 889 total. Jim Glenny and G. Sutherland finished second with 870. Third place honors went to Fred May and Fred Kelley, with a total of 871. Jim Glenny, carded as a bowler, turned in the high individual score of 601, and also furnished the high single game, with a 234 count. High individual in the nonbowler turned out to be Les Cunningham, who clouted the pins for a 500 count, and on this showing will, no doubt, graduate into the bowlers' class in the next tournament. Many of the artists had considerable difficulty keeping their ball out of the gutter. It is rumored that Alf Foreman and Wm. Oliver have put their heads together and originated what is known as the glue ball, and these two gentlemen are sponsors for the statement that this particular effort is bound to stick to the alleys. If alley recommendation can be secured, it is planned to hold monthly tournaments.
