THE "GERMAN" HOUSE.—To that portion of the public who can and will enjoy the bounties of Providence we would direct attention to FARREN's Establishment. He has and says he will keep all the luxuries of this continent, and serve them up with lightning speed, in the true London Bond street style. He says his establishment will constitute a Paradise for the hungry; and although it is his intention to keep all the ordinary luxuries of this life, he will also when ordered, obtain the extraordinary luxuries, in any quantities.—For accommodation, he has it unlimited. Parties from 5 to 500 can be served and no delay in good airy and commodious rooms.

We would advise the lovers of good things to test his pretensions by giving him a call.

☞ The river is completely clear of ice, and the steamers are in full operation.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—We have received the April number of this unrivalled publication. It is beautifully embellished, and well filled with choice reading.

☞ Mr. Robert Shives has been appointed Assessor for the city in place of Mr. Kaye, resigned.

IMPRESSIVE SUICIDE.—An Englishman named McAuliffe, 36 years of age, and married, committed suicide last week in his boarding house, Varick street, New York. He evidently had the deed in contemplation for some time. He procured a bottle of the oil of almonds, then wrote a long well-written letter for the coroner at his inquest, and when all his arrangements were completed, swallowed the fatal draught. The end of the famous suicide, Sadlier, see said to take hold of his imagination. For some time past the deceased has been in the habit of conversing about Sadlier and seemed greatly to admire the manner in which he closed his earthly career. The English financier it will be remembered, poisoned himself with oil of almonds.

☞ HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS ensure cure for Sore Legs.—Henry Thorne, of Montreal, had a most inveterate Sore Leg, there were seven holes in it, like the keys of a flute, and which discharged continuously. He had the best advice obtainable at that station, but he only became worse, and ultimately could not move about even with the aid of crutches. At the instigation of a brother-in-law, who had been cured of a similar complaint by Holloway's Ointment and Pills, he commenced using them; after continuing them for five weeks, the wounds began to heal up, and in two months were completely cured, he is now able to perform the most arduous duties with the greatest ease; no one would believe to see him now that he had ever been afflicted with a bad leg
