NEW FALL DRY GOODS

AND MILLINERY,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL,

AT

THE "TORONTO HOUSE, No. 60, KING STREET EAST.

TORONTO.

J. CHARLESWORTH, would most respectfully intimate to the Ladies of Toronto and vicinity, that his Fall Stock of

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS

is now complete, and will be found worthy of inspection before purchasing elsewhere.

His MILLINERY DEPARTMENT will be found to be the largest in this City, and perhaps not less than any other establishment in the Province of Canada.

The LATEST MILLINERY FASHIONS, will not be ready in the Retail Trade until about the 7th Oct. 1853. The Wholesale about the 1st next month, when all those parties not having received their orders, may expect to be supplied.

TO COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

J. C. would respectfully intimate to the Trade in Upper Canada West, that his Stock of Dry Goods this Fall will be found some of the greatest inducements. Having made special arrangements, by which every advantage has been taken of the Home Markets, where purchases have been made for cash only, has without exception the advantage over all others in this branch of business.

HIS MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

Parties not having visited this house, will upon inspection find the Stock not only the largest but the cheapest, this fall particularly.

Call and examine Stock, Quality and Price., for which no charge will be made.

JOHN CHARLESWORTH.

Toronto, October, 1853.

THE LARGE ONE HUNDRED AND THREE, YONGE STREET.

The rage for the gold of Australia is past,
And men gather wisdom and show it at last
For now they believe what they've often been told,
That our own favored Canada is the country for Gold'

While here we are blessed with a generous soil,
The man may have gold who is willing to toil,
And vain were his search for a happier shore,
While blessings so numerous encircle his door.

Strange indeed would it be, if a land like our love,
Where our rivers, though I dest, are sweeter when flown
Though our winters are long, and sometimes severe,
But lead us to summers delightfully clear,
Should be less attractive, because it is cold,
Than lands full of vices—though teeming with gold!

But prosperous as Canada always hath been,
This year is the best that she ever hath seen,
And now she is wreathing a laurel to wear,
That nations may one day be anxious to share.

Her prosperous condition will appear very plain,
When her farmers get a dollar and a quarter for grain,
While all their productions so readily sell,
At prices which now pay them equally well.

To many, it doubtless may seem very queer,
Why Dry Goods are cheap and Provisions so dear,
It is true, notwithstanding, which our patrons may see,
By calling on Yonge Street "One Hundred and Three."

While many must know, an advance very great,
Has been made in the value of woollens of late,
Yet our flannels and blankets will quickly appear,
Quite as low as the prices we offered last year.

Our Bonnets and Cloaks have been tastefully made,
With a prospect of greatly increasing our trade,
And our Shawls and our Furs will at once please the eye
And induce even the most fastidious to buy.

Our manner of business is extensively known,
The lowest price asked, with the cash down;
And once, we determine, shall continue to be,
The unerring precedent of ONE HUNDRED AND THREE.
