LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

YESTERDAY was the eighteenth anniversary of the great fire of Charlottetown.

THE circus is coming, and the small boys are in committee of ways and means.

HON. MR. ROSS, Premier of Quebec, is expected here on a visit for the benefit of his health.

THE Supreme Court met yesterday in Georgetown. The business we understand is considerable.

THE new locomotives recently received from Kingston have been tested, and pronounced satisfactory.

DOGS are committing terrible depredations among the sheep in some localities.

MR. SCHREIBER, Chief Engineer of Government Railways, is expected shortly to visit the Island.

THE military camp at Hunter River was struck on Saturday last, and the several heroes retreated to their homes in good order and condition.

MR. MILLEDGE, C. E., of the Department of Public Works, Ottawa, is on the Island for the purpose of having the piers put in immediate repair for the fall trade.

THE Caledonian Games will take place on Thursday, 31st July, instant, and not upon the date mentioned in our last issue. The day is proclaimed as a Public Holiday.

A LARGE number of persons will leave next week for an excursion to the Magdalen Islands. They will take the train to Souris, and thence proceed by the steamer Beaver.

A REPRESENTATIVE of the HERALD will, in a few days, call upon those of our city subscribers whose subscriptions are overdue, when we trust he will meet with a cordial reception.

THE Harden Hand Grenade was tested on the Market Square on Thursday evening last, before the Chief Engineer and a large number of citizens. The exhibition was very successful.

THE special attention of all who wish to procure cheap and convenient homes, is directed to the great auction sale of Building Lots, at head of Queen Street on Tuesday, July 22nd, at noon.

WE regret to notice the death recently in New Brunswick of Mr. Charles A. Hallet, who as one of the Engineers on the construction of our Railroad, was well and favorably known on the Island.

THE Stipendiary Magistrate was busily engaged yesterday until five o'clock in the afternoon settling misunderstandings between the police force and some young men of the city, as well as between City Assessors and several taxpayers.

A YOUNG MAN named Malcolm McLeod, son of Frederick McLeod, of this city, was drowned recently while river driving in Pennsylvania. He was only twenty-seven years of age, and had but recently returned from a visit to his parents.

MAJOR RABAN, of the Royal Engineers, is at the Rankin. He is, we understand, commissioned to report upon the best manner of defending Charlottetown against the foreign invader, and will inspect the sites for earthworks at the Harbor's Mouth.

MR. J. HARRY WYATT, formerly of this city, but now an officer of the Saved Army, whose headquarters are in Ontario, opened an attack upon the stronghold of Satan, in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, on Sunday last. The methods of the Army are peculiar, and Harry's salary is $35 a month.

THE residence of a leading gentleman of Charlottetown was entered lately during his absence at the seaside, and all his meerschaums, briar roots, woodstocks, T. D's, and a large variety of other dudeens which he owned were abstracted. Nothing else was interfered with.

MRS. W. W. ROBERTSON, the wife of a prominent citizen in Montreal, died suddenly at the Seaside Hotel, Rustico, on Friday morning last. The deceased lady, accompanied by her son, arrived in the Coban on the Sunday before. Her remains were forwarded to her home on Saturday.

HIS GRACE ARCHBISHOP O'BRIEN, of Halifax, Bishop Fabre, of Montreal, Bishop McIntyre, of Charlottetown, accompanied by Rev. Father Murphy (His Grace's Secretary), Rev. Roderick McDonald, of Pictou, Rev. Father Aubret, of Montreal, and Rev. James Phelan, of this Island, left Halifax on Monday last on a visit to Newfoundland.

SINCE last Saturday the weather has been very wet, rain having fallen almost incessantly, making no exception in favor of St. Swithen. On Saturday evening and Sunday there were heavy thunder-storms in some parts of the Island; we have not heard of any damage therefrom, although in the other Provinces they suffered to some extent.

WE hear that a vessel which arrived at Souris on Monday had on board the body of a boy about fifteen years of age, which had been picked up in a dory off Port Hood. The dory was old and leaky, and when found was full of water, and part of the lad's clothing was lying in the bottom of it. It is supposed that he was employed in a lobster factory.

THE appearance of Queen Square, under the superintendence of Mr. Newbery, and with the artistic touches of Mr. Fletcher, is daily improving. We trust that the Strawberry Festival and Concert, to be held on Friday evening next, will be well patronized by our citizens, in whose interest Mr. Newbery has taken so much trouble, and displayed such great energy.

THE steamer Worcester arrived here from Boston this morning at 9 o'clock. The following is the list of passengers for this Province: Messrs. J. Schafer, F. Driscoll, F. E. Powers, J. C. McGowan, Peter McKinnon, D. McDonald, William Smith. Mrs. Emma Ashton, Mrs. Outerbridge and son, Mrs. A. S. Boothby, Mrs. E. Lawton, Mrs. G. S. Boyyer and daughter, Mrs. Mary Dooley and daughter, Mrs. William D. Lane, Mrs. McAulay and two children. Master A. S. Coffin, A. Homer, M. F. Powers, Wellington Cooke; Misses Jennie Lee, Amelia Blond, Maggie Hughes, Flora McLean, Eliza McLennan, Mary McGillivray, Effie McNeil, Annie Cranston, Nellie Ross, Katie McIsaac, Lizzie Buchanan, Katie Kelly, May E. McKenna, Katie McKenna, Hannah Morrison, May E. Lothrop, May Dunlap, Lizzie Grayor, Minnie McDonald, Agnes McDonald, Flora McLeod, Alice E. Rose, E. W. Laught, Katie McLeod, Mrs. A. F. Thurston, P. F. Crean.

Items from the Hub.

DEAR HERALD,—My last items to the good old HERALD being from my native parish, and being here at present more for health than pleasure, I cannot resist the gratification of communicating a few items that may possibly be of some interest to a portion of your numerous readers. For some days past the weather here has been most oppressive, yet the evenings become beautifully cool and bracy. The "Glorious Fourth" passed off with the usual display of bunting, amusements, etc.

The political and commercial situation on the approach of a Presidential election I shall leave to be dealt with by the graphic and polished pen of your Boston correspondent, save and except to say that the Chicago Democratic Convention, now sitting, seems to be in a muddle between the choice of Cleveland and Butler. The Republicans seem to have made a more easy choice in the person of James G. Blaine, with whom, by the way, I had the honor to ride in the cars from Augusta, Me., to Boston. His clear, keen, penetrating eye would lead you to suppose that he can see as far through a stone as any other live Yankee.

Hay-making is about over in Massachusetts, and is a fair crop. Corn and potatoes look splendid through Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts; but the latter crop is badly afflicted by the bug. Paris Green is freely used, and seems to be the only sure remedy for destroying them. The apple crop through these States will be almost totally destroyed by the worm or insect that played havoc a few years ago on the Island. The leaves on the trees now are eaten off, and appear as bare and decayed as they would in November; yet very promising accounts of the fruit crops are coming in from South and West.

Mechanics' wages here are fairly good; house carpenters receive from $2 to $3 a day, $2.50 being about the average, and other trades in proportion. The Boston markets appear to be over-stocked with Island produce. Potatoes sell from 57 to 60 cents, as any quantity of native new potatoes are now in market, eggs 16 to 17 cents (Island ones at that), and Island butter 23 to 25 cents, retail.

Fires are very common and destructive. A large rubber factory, employing over 400 hands, was burned down last night. Boston has changed immensely since my last visit, eighteen years ago, the great fire of 1871 giving Brother Jonathan that keen relish for style and improvement, streets straightened and widened, and palatial residences erected, which compares favorably with other large cities in the Union. The population of Boston, with suburbs, is now something over 362,000.

Statistics of the different denominations, with religious institutions, I may give you in another letter. Those wise ones here who pretend to see into the future, predict good or bad times the coming fall, to hinge on the result of the November election.

Yours truly,

MORELL.

Boston, Mass., July 11, 1884.

Supreme Court.

THE Supreme Court adjourned on Monday last until 1st August, having previously ordered that all Jury trials not disposed of stand over until January next. The business disposed of was as follows: Albert Allen for house-breaking and larceny. Verdict, guilty; sentenced to four years in the Penitentiary. John Shea, for robbery. Verdict, not guilty. John Doyle (Corngoose), Alfred Farmer and Patrick Dunn, for house-breaking and larceny. Verdict, guilty; sentenced each to four years in the Penitentiary. John Doyle (Corngoose), for house-breaking. Verdict, not guilty. James Leonard, for assaulting Deputy Sheriff. Verdict, guilty. On sentence being moved for, prisoner's counsel applied for arrest of judgment on ground that there was no legal proof of assault having been committed. Chief Justice and Judge Peters decided in favor of application; Judge Hensley dissenting—and prisoner was accordingly discharged. Paul Paoli vs. Inland Steam Navigation Co., an action to recover freight for carrying the boiler of steamer Heather Belle from Pictou to Charlottetown. Verdict for Plaintiff, $36. Executors of John Knight vs. Michael McKinnon. Verdict for Plaintiffs, rule subsequently granted for new trial. Patrick Cullen vs. Jessie Mutch and others, action of ejectment. Verdict for plaintiff; rule subsequently granted for new trial. William Pickard vs. James Yeo, referred to Mr. Morson, arbitrator. Liquidators Bank P. E. I. vs. John Ings. Verdict for plaintiff for $6,602.83.

DURING the past week the following cases were disposed of at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court: Ten drunks, fined in various sums from $1 to $30; two cases of disorderly conduct fined $5 each; one drunk and disorderly, two months hard labor; one assault case, fined $6. Dismissed: Two Scott Act cases; seven for disorderly conduct, and one for assault. Adjourned: one Scott Act and one nuisance case.
